Blue Feathers, an organization for freshman women, at the University of Illinois it was learned here today. The Orange and Blue Feathers is associated with the University Woman's League, and has a joint scholarship fund with Gold Geathers, the sophomore organization for women. Their purpose is to encourage a more friendly relationship between students, endorse scholarship, and promote activities. Barbara McPherson, 418 St. John Place, is also a member of the committee.

A trip to A Century of Progress in Chicago was part of a science course last week (Oct. 17) for Edward Norcross, who is a student of Saint Alban's, a private Episcopal school for boys at Sycamore, Ill. Classes in chemistry and biology, under the direction of their teacher, Ray W. Quisenberry, visited the exhibits at the Hall of Science and other scientific features of the Fair on a student tour. This is one of a series of tours the boys are taking to points of scientific interest in the Chicago vicinity during the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Shea of High Street, have had as their guests this week, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Gildsmith of Hamilton, Ohio. Larry Cutler, who has been suffering from a finger infection has returned to duty after a several weeks absence. He is proprietor of Larry Cutler's Beauty Shop.

Mr. Samuel Brownlee of Cheyenne, Wyo. and Mr. James Brownlee of Springfield, Vt., have returned to their homes, having been called here by the death of their mother. They were visiting at the home of their sister Mrs. Elson G. Rice, the early part of this week.

Miss Marie Lawther sings over radio station WCBD Karcher Hotel, Waukegan, at 2:15 Mondays and Wednesdays. Her many friends here will no doubt be interested in hearing her sing.

David A. Hustedt who was seriously hurt in an automobile accident at Niles Center last week is getting along nicely at the St. Francis Hospital in Evanston.

Miss Esther Benson of Berwyn was the week-end guest of the John Udehl of Park Avenue. Mrs. E. R. Phelps of Bloom Street entertained a few members of the Community Garden Club at luncheon Tuesday preceding their meeting.

Mrs. Le Gro of Detroit, Michigan is the house guest of Mrs. Morton Mayor of Laurel Avenue this week. Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Crafts Watson of Marshman Avenue have moved to Fond du Lac and Greenbay, Wisconsin for a few days.

Miss Mayme Brahmmer of Elisibon, N.D., spent several days last week with Mrs. Fred Zahle of Vine Avenue. Mrs. Alfred Brahmmer of Waukegan was her guest on Thursday. Mrs. Albert Weisenberger of S. Sheridan Road is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. J. Widmer of Naples, N.Y., for six weeks.

Mrs. Kaumanns Again President of Ravinia Red Cross Roll Call

Mrs. F. J. Kaumanns of Ravinia, is again chairman of the Red Cross drive in Ravinia this year. The splendid results of last year's roll call were noticed at headquarters, and the splendid co-operation of Ravinians made this showing possible. Mrs. Kaumanns states. She asks that residents or her community make the annual roll call as successful this year.

On Thursday, Oct. 18, the Chicago Red Cross chapter entertained delegates from the suburban committees at the Auditorium Hotel, for an exchange of ideas and experiences. A luncheon was served in the Blue Ball Room. Delegates were welcomed by Mrs. James B. Forgan, Jr., chairman of the chapter, who is also serving as chairman of the roll call this year.

Britton I. Budd, president of the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois, addressed the delegates, explaining in detail the co-operation being extended the local suburban committees by the employees of that corporation.

In the afternoon, several brief discussions were made by suburban roll call chairman who have had a wide experience in handling the campaign in previous years.

Dancing Season at the Y.W.C.A. Starts Nov. 9

The young people of Highland Park and vicinity have been looking forward to the opening of Miss Jessie Pocock's dancing season, that will open Friday evening, Nov. 9.

The hours for 7th and 8th grade assembly will be from 7 to 9 o'clock; the high school fortnightly will be held the same evening from 9 to 11 o'clock.

Announcements will be mailed the first of the week. The classes will be limited; reservations should be made early in order to secure a membership in the class. It is the wish of the committee and Miss Pocock to keep the class with an even number of boys and girls.

In both the fortnightly and the assembly, the girls will wear their light party dresses. There will be several special parties featured thru the course.

These classes will be under the direction of Miss Pocock, and will be in charge of Miss Charleen E. Rose, an associate of Miss Pocock's for the past ten years.
