In keeping with the custom of the past 12 years, Navy Day will be observed on Oct. 27, 1934. Oct. 27, 1775, marks the birth of our Navy. On Oct. 27 also falls the birthday of Theodore Roosevelt, a great American who never swerved from his interest in Naval affairs. The officers of Stupey-Smith Post, No. 501, American Legion of Highwood, Ill., desires to make known to the public that the appearance of the Junior Bugle and Drum Corps in the Republican parade, held in this city on the evening of the 22nd of October was without the knowledge or sanction of the officers of this post, and they desire further to inform the public, that it is the policy of the post to live up to the mandates of the last American Legion department convention held in Peoria, Sept. 3 and 4 of this year, to maintain absolute political neutrality.

Signed, Charles E. Anderson, Post Commander, Stupey-Smith Post 501, American Legion, Highwood, Ill. Paul A. Blum, Post Adjutant Stupey-Smith Post 501, American Legion, Highwood, Ill.

Nothing is easier than fault-finding; no talent, no self-denial, no brains, no character are required to set up in the grumbling business.—Robert West.
