

Music Club Program Given On Wednesday

The Highland Park Music Club had an interesting meeting Wednesday afternoon, beginning at 3 p.m., in the music room of the Ravinia School.

Dancing Season Will Begin at the Y.W.C.A.

The young people of Highland Park are looking forward to the annual opening of Miss Jessie Pocock's dancing season, which opens Friday evening, Nov. 9, at the Y.W.C.A. Auditorium.

The class instruction which proceeds the social hour will be under the direction of Miss Charlene Rose, an associate of Miss Pocock. Miss Pocock's success in teaching is due to the excellent discipline which exists in all her classes.

The 7th and 8th grade assemblies are from 7 to 9 and the high school fortnightly are from 9 to 11 o'clock.

Calisthenics Classes To Start At Y.W.C.A.

Helen Keith Sadler of the Highland Park Health Studio on Sheridan Road will open a 10 weeks course at the Y.W.C.A. in calisthenics and systematic building beginning Thursday afternoon, Nov. 8 at 2:30 o'clock.

Registrations are open to women and girls over 18 years. Any loose clothing, gym outfit, shorts or pajamas may be worn, but gym shoes or rubber sole shoes are preferable.

Cuore Arte Club To Present Program At Oak Terrace School

Sunday evening's program of the Cuore Arte Club will be opened at 8 o'clock at the Oak Terrace School in Highland. The first feature will be the Brissan and Mars three-act comedy "Le Sorprese Del Divorzio" (Surprises of a Divorce), in Italian, directed by Anna Rabattini and assisted by John Ugolini, the president of the club.

This famous comedy is set in Paris, during the present time. It is based on the many complications and consequences of a divorce and quarrels with a rebellious mother-in-law, climaxing with a humorous and clever twist. In line with its title the conclusion will be a great surprise.

Second Part of Program Lorenz Amedei, accordionist will play and sing comic Italian songs. Bruna Bertucci, child artist will be presented in an Italian musical sketch.

Ena Picchetti, tenor, will be featured in a scene called the "Three Serenaders."

Joseph Rabattini, baritone, will render a classical score. Michael Lamana, comic songster, will feature favorite Italian folk songs.

Richard Torelli, tenor, features Italian songs.

Perlee Tintari, lyric tenor, ten year old boy artist from Chicago Heights, is guest soloist on program and will sing semi-classic selections.

The soloists will be assisted by Alma Galassini at the piano.

This program marks the ninth consecutive presentation since "Cuore Arte" was founded a little more than three years ago by Dario C. Bonetti of Highland Park.

Tickets for the above occasion may be purchased from any of the members.

Lincoln School P.T.A. Meeting To Be Nov. 13

The Lincoln School Parent Teacher Association will hold its next meeting on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 13, at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Mildred Fort from Carson, Pirie, Scott and Co., will talk on educational toys. Mrs.

Fort will bring an exhibit of toys which will be on display that day and the three succeeding days of the Book Fair.

The Book Fair, under the supervision of Mrs. John Millar, will commence Monday, Nov. 12, and continue thru Friday the 16th. This will be an excellent opportunity for selecting Christmas gifts as the books will cover a large range of interests and prices.

ELECT

A. J. SUTKUS DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE for County Treasurer

RESIDENT OF HIGHLAND PARK. Our only hope to break the "inner circle" hold on the County Treasurer's office is to elect an honest, capable and reliable man who works in the interests of Lake County residents and taxpayers.

That man is A. J. SUTKUS, a resident of this county for 32 years, an active business man in Waukegan.

A. J. SUTKUS fought for savings to taxpayers' pocket-books (see his record) as an assistant county supervisor. He knows the taxpayers' needs and realizes the strangle-hold the "inner circle" has on the county treasury.

A. J. SUTKUS as County Treasurer means a break of this costly control—he will serve only the people of Lake County.

Everyone is welcome at the Democratic Headquarters, 384 CENTRAL AVE. Highland Park
