

Silver Jubilee Is Held Sunday At Holy Cross Church

A solemn high mass at 11 o'clock Sunday, Oct. 28, was the opening event of the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the Deerfield Holy Cross Church of which Rev. J. E. Savage is pastor.

Visiting clergy who assisted in the service were: celebrant, Rev. C. L. McDonough; deacon, Rev. J. D. O'Neill, D.D.; sub-deacon, Rev. J. F. Fielding; master of ceremonies, Rev. Charles Murphy; jubilee sermon, Very Rev. Magr. T. F. Quinn.

The church choir was assisted by the choir of St. Edward's Parish.

A jubilee dinner was served immediately after the mass to visiting clergy. Places of honor were given to members of the parish who were in attendance at the first mass read in Deerfield on Oct. 28, 1909. Dinner was then served continuously until 7 p.m. to over 500 guests.

Confirmation was conferred at 7:30 by Bishop B. J. Shiel, assisted by a large delegation of visiting priests from neighboring parishes. Those confirmed were Joseph Scavuzzo, John Klemp, Thomas Coleman, Kress Willman, Earl Knaak, Almon Frost, Robert and George Haws, Robert Burns, Elizabeth and Mary Cunningham, Mary Pfister, Adelaide and Mary McGuire, Dorothy Phillips, James Kilcoyne and Mrs. John Wachholder.

History of Church
Miss Clara Ender, at whose father's home the Holy Cross Church congregation first met to worship in Deerfield, prepared a history of the parish which was read at the silver jubilee on Sunday. It follows:

In the fall of 1908, the Rev. J. D. O'Neill, D.D., pastor of the Immaculate Conception Church of Highland Park inaugurated the first Catholic activity in Deerfield, by the organization of a weekly class in catechism which was conducted in the town hall. A few of the members of the first class were John, Margaret and Earl Kress, Eva Ender, John and Helen Beckley, John, Gertrude and Margaret Schneider, Catherine Mau and James Brett. A year later, through the efforts of Rev. O'Neill, the Deerfield mission was founded; the first pastor appointed was the Rt. Rev. Magr. Thomas F. Quinn. James O'Connor was delegated to meet Rev. Quinn, who took the train from Chicago to Highland Park. There he was met by Mr. O'Connor who brought him by horse and buggy, to Deerfield. Residing in Everett, he served faithfully both Deerfield and Everett for seven years.

Prior to the building of the Holy Cross Church, Rev. Quinn conducted services in the home of John C. Ender, who suggested the name of the church, Holy Cross, as this was the name of the church of his boyhood days in Columbus, Ohio.

Thomas Duffy donated the original site of the church 50x150 feet, south of the Ender home on Waukegan Road. The church was dedicated on Oct. 28, 1909, with the Most Rev. Archbishop James E. Quigley, D.D., officiating, and assisted by the Rev. F. R. Mueller, chancellor. Rev. Thomas F. Quinn, Rev. J. D. O'Neill, D.D., and Rev. J. K. Fielding were among the twenty-two clergymen who took part in the ceremony.

Among those families present at the first mass were Ender, Karch, Kress, Duffy, Wolff, Zahnle, Ryan, Love, Dawson, Frankh, Kottrach, Trute, Wisniewski, Schneider, Brett, Leist, Beckley, Knickerbocker, Jungels and Hottua. Earl Kress, John Schneider, George Karch, and William Zahnle served in the first mass said in the Ender home.

Eugene Ender was the first organist and served the church most faithfully for about twenty-three years. Among the first choir members were: Loretta Kress (Mrs. Alex Willman), Ruth Kress (Mrs. Robt. Greenslade), Catherine Karch (Mrs. Frank Saeman), Marie Kress (Mrs. Elmer Clavey), Sophia Zahnle (Mrs. John Klemp Jr.), Martha Karch and Mary Hottua.

Going back through the records of the parish it is found that the first child to be baptized was Gordon Kress, and the first marriage was that of Arthur Pfister and Mary Carolan.

The main altar of the church was given by Dr. O'Neill; St. Joseph's altar by George Karch; St. Joseph's statue was dedicated to the memory of Mrs. George Karch; Blessed Virgin altar by Michael Jungels; altar railing by the Ender family; Sacred Heart statue and Christmas crib in memory of Mrs. Mary Dawson; St. Anthony statue by Mrs. J. D. Garrity; Little Flower statue by Mrs. Joseph Pyle; organ by popular subscription.

The two memorial windows at the altar are in memory of Mathew Zahnle and Mrs. Joseph Wolff.

Soon the church was found to be too small for the increasing number of Catholics of this community. An addition was built to the church. The original lot was not sufficient and 100 feet to the south was purchased at a cost of $1500.

In 1916 Rev. Quinn was called by his superior to another appointment and the Rev. W. J. Ryan succeeded him, serving twelve years, until his death. Under the pastorate of Rev. Ryan the church was moved back from the street to its present location. After his death, Rev. J. K. Fielding was appointed. In June of 1929 because the agitation of certain most interested parishioners of the mission, the cardinal gave Deerfield the dignity of a parish with a resident pastor. At this time Deerfield and Everett were separated. Rev. Fielding remained at Everett and Rev. C. L. McDonough became the first resident pastor of the newly formed Holy Cross Parish.

During the pastorate of Rev. McDonough notable improvements were made; especially the raising of the church building to provide for a spacious basement to take care of the social activities of the parish. A heating plant was installed and the church redecorated, interior and exterior. Work was completed for the observance of the 20th anniversary, Oct. 28, 1929.

An additional acquiring of church property, which will be absolutely necessary for the future needs of the parish, was effected in 1930, when the six lots adjoining to the east of the original property were purchased at a cost of $8500. After two and one-half years, Rev. McDonough was transferred the Precious Blood Parish, Chicago, and he was succeeded by Rev. Jos. E. Savage, present pastor of Holy Cross Church.

NATURE COURSE BEGINS SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 4TH

The beginning of the nature specialization course for North Shore Scouters has been postponed for one week and instead of beginning last Sunday will not begin until this coming Sunday, Nov. 4. Those who are interested in this course which is for credit will meet at scout headquarters in Highland Park at 2 o'clock and will go from there to the place that Jim Mooney designates as the training grounds. Jim Mooney is associated with the research department of the Field Museum of Natural History and has been with the museum for five years. He was in charge of the nature department at Camp MaKaJaWan last summer. The first session will be devoted to the flora of this region.

THIRD SESSION OF UNIVERSITY TO BE HELD NEXT THURSDAY

The third session of the University of Scouting which is being held for the training of North Shore Scout leaders, will be held next Monday night, Nov. 5, at Christ Church parish house, Winnetka. Approximately 50 men are enrolled in the course being offered in Scoutmastership, principles of first aid, and handicraft. A demonstration of a troop committee meeting will be put on by the troop committee of Troop 35 of Ravinia with Harold Pfister as chairman. John P. O'Connor is Scoutmaster of the troop. The troop committee will deal with problems typical of those which troop committees have and will include the yearly program planning, yearly camping program, personnel problems, troop finances, and the general welfare of Scout Troops. A special effort is being made to have as many of the troop committee members of troops in the council as possible present on this occasion.

RAVINIA CUBS MEET AT SCHOOL HOUSE

Pack 65 of Ravinia held its meeting on Oct. 27 in the Ravinia School field house.

For four of the cubs were present, 22 of them passed the bob-test. Then they went outside and played soccer. Dick Mathias and Walter Kriets were captains—Cub Roland W. Hoermann, Scribe Pack 65.

TROOP 35 HOLDS SURPRISE HIKE ON OCTOBER 23RD

On Oct. 23 at its regular meeting, Troop 35 had a surprise hike. After the meeting Scoutmaster O'Connor picked out several boys to lay a torn paper trail for the rest of the boys to follow. While these boys were out laying the trail the rest of the troop played games. Then the boys were sent out in groups of eight to follow the trail that had been laid. This trail finally led to the park just east of the North Shore station. Here each boy was given a Dixie Cup as a reward for following the trail. Because the Boys' Club at the high school had a get-together on last Tuesday all those who did not go to this gathering had another surprise meeting—Raymond Reutenwald, Troop 35, Ravinia School.

"NOVEMBER"

October's now passed out of our sight
Just like a dew from the soft morning light
November's come and fetched her chill
With nights so cold and clear and still
If I could travel back a ways
Where a Farm Boy lived in bygone days
I'd start right now if I just could
To hump back-logs and kindin' wood.
I have never known a boy to concede
Or ever confess that he didn't need
November days so clear and cool
Just as bad as he needs the swimmin' pool
(You can mark it down or else I'm wrong)
That there ain't no month can come along
And look November in the face
Or keepin' a Farm Boy in his place.
There's somethin' about November yet
That a feller can never just plum forget
Every blame time I feel her air
I think about eatin' and I'll just swear
I want to go huntin' and I want to work
November is never a time to shirk
You can feel sort o' lazy the rest of the year
But this month will fetch you to business
purr' near.
When November comes I start to reflect
About things on the farm kind o' sweet to rec'lect

For instance the killin' of the first fat pig
And invitin' the neighbors all in for a pig
And cuttin' and dressin' the turkey for sale
And eatin' their gizzards 'til your eatin'
would fall
And selectin' the one for Thanksgiving Day
To cook for the folks that were then on their way.
I'd like to go back and just rabbit trap
Once more in November and listen for Pap
Holler's to tell me to hurry on back
To help fence the cattle from another haystack.
Ah! Friends near and dear of the present decade
To a feller whose ways are just kind o'
home-made
NOVEMBER'S the best and always will be
Maybe not any more, but in sweet memory.

A Candidate With Experience

VOTE FOR

Allen J. Nelson

Republican Candidate for

County Treasurer

Seven years actual experience in tax collection work.
Ten years training in financial work.

TO THE VOTERS OF LAKE COUNTY

I appeal to your good judgment when you cast your vote for County Treasurer on November 6.

Having had 7 years training in tax collection work, enables me, and gives me the ability to handle the complex duties of the County Treasurer's Office.

This should convince you that I can run the office more economically than one who has not had any experience and thereby save the Taxpayer additional expense.

TAXPAYER - PROPERTY OWNER - EX-SERVICE MAN

The Modernization Credit Plan

It is the biggest "loan umbrella" ever spread in America — or the whole world, for that matter. It gives cover to any property owner with a fairly steady income who wants to borrow money to fix up his house, his store — any real property.

He can do it on small monthly payments out of his monthly income. It's a gigantic time-financing plan — at a most reasonable cost.
