Novelty Quintette Gives Fine Program

presented a very fine varied program at the Bethlehem Church last Thursday evening. The church was packed to the doors with a very enthusiastic audience. The five who arranged the entertainment were Orin Spalding, Elmer Hecketsweiler, Leslie Christensen, David Stryker, and Harold Vant.

Guest artists who appeared were Miss Margaret Esamiz, violinist; Peter Grimson, xylophonist; Helen Fisher of Lake Forest College of Speech; Retta Ree Hipsley West, tuba soloist; Barbara Huehl, soprano soloist, and the Bethany quartette (which included Jacob Hecketsweiler, George Bray, Carl Hansen, and Dr. Earl Fritsch of Highland Park; Ethel Button, trombonist, and Richard Merner, cornetist.

The very pleasing part of this concert was the variety of entertainment presented. There were classical selections novelty numbers, a unique arrangement of brass music, readings of both a serious and lighter vein, vocal numbers and a finale of southern music which brought in the entire cast in a clever way.

Much credit for this program is given to Harold Vant, whose untiring efforts gave the audience a fine program and the Bethlehem Church a set of new church hymnals. Rev. Earl J. Bruso graciously accepted the gift in behalf of his church.

Deerfield C of C Hold Monthly Dinner

The regular monthly meeting and dinner was held at Shugrue's Restaurant Thursday evening, Nov. 22. The attendance was considerably below the average owing to church and other social activities held that evening.

Marshall Pottenger reported that he expected to commence work on the new athletic field for Deerfield in the very near future.

The next meeting will be held on Thursday evening, Dec. 27, and the annual meeting for election of officers will be held Thursday, Jan. 4. No other business of importance took place before adjournment.

Health Studio Opens a Class at Y.W.C.A.

Mrs. Sadler of the Highland Park Health Studio opened two classes at the Y.W.C.A. this week. The classes are Tuesday morning from 10 to 11 o'clock Thursday afternoon from 2:30 to 3:30.

They consist of systematic gymnastic exercises, dancing, limbering, stretching, reducing and building up. The term will last 10 weeks.

Guests Are Invited to Current Topics Lecture

Two changes have been announced for Mrs. Clock's current topics course, which is held at Mrs. Roy O. Nereim's home at 247 Central Avenue. The third lecture, Thursday, Dec. 6, will start at 10:15 instead of 10:30 o'clock.

Ticket holders who have missed one of the meetings will receive a complimentary guest admission by presenting their course ticket at the door, where single admissions may also be had. The lectures are for the benefit of the Girl Scouts.

Hindu Will Speak at St. Paul's Church

Joseph Devadunam, a native of India, will appear in costume at a special Sunday evening service at St. Paul's Evangelical Church, in Deerfield, on Dec. 9, at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Devadunam, who is working for his master's degree at Northwestern University, will tell of the manners and customs of his people.

An additional feature will be secular selections by St. Paul's Junior Choir. There will also be community singing.

The program is open to the public. A free will offering will be received.

Miss Loretta Greenwald of this city is one of the members of the society.

$10,626 Subscribed in Hospital Service Certificate Campaign

A total of $10,626 was subscribed in the recent Highland Park Hospital Service Certificate Campaign, according to the final report just submitted by Alfred T. Sihler, chairman of the management committee for the drive. The number of individual subscriptions totalled 1,025. The subscriptions were in excess of the goal set at the beginning of the drive, making this year's campaign the most successful in the history of the effort.

Twenty-two of the thirty-three districts equalled or exceeded the quotas assigned at the beginning of the drive.

In submitting the report to workers in the drive, Mr. Sihler said: "We wish it were possible to comment at length not only on the teams that scored the highest, but on the earnest and valuable work rendered by the many workers in all territories (including Glencoe) in building up good-will for the hospital. The success of this campaign belongs to you, and the community is indebted to you for rendering a valuable service and doing a grand job!"

Team captains were R. Marsh, Mrs. George Childs, Richard Kebron, C. W. Jones, H. W. Herring, J. B. Hering, J. B. Garnett, M. E. Bullard, Mrs. R. T. R. Hastings, E. J. Lowenthal, H. S. Vanderbie, D. A. Kittermaster, D. D. McCormick, H. E. Kerber, Charles Grimes, Mrs. R. C. O'Hara, Arthur Claghorn, E. C. George, P. D. Stokes, L. J. Stirling, W. E. Rietz, H. Will, H. H. Bowker, Harold Pfister, Dr. Frank Trangmar, H. B. Alston, J. S. Weinberg, R. Adler, D. M. Blasler, J. S. Johnson, B. S. Leech, C. H. Witt and Mrs. K. Towler.

"HORRORS GRANDPA'S MUSTACHE CUP!"

those days are gone forever

AND IT'S JUST AS FOOLISH TO DO YOUR WASHING AT HOME

Grandfather's mustache cup was perfectly at home in the best of company when mustaches resembled handlebars. But today even men with their wee-small hirsute decorations find it far from the necessity grandfather did. In fact, the old mustache cup would call forth spasms of horrors from the modern hostess. It is as out of the picture as the horse-leis carriage, the kerosene lamp, keeping a cow . . . or home washing . . . in truly up-to-date homes.

Yes, you'll find the many out-of-date curiosities in museums . . . for times have changed . . . Except home washing equipment. And it should be there, too. In fact it should be displayed in that portion of the museum devoted to the torture instruments of the ages.

For home washing is torture. Ask the housewife who does it regularly. And so needless, too, Look for the red, green and gold insignia of members of the North Shore Quality Laundries. It marks laundry work of such quality that it sets a standard for other laundries throughout the country. Their prices for such fine work are no higher than those charged for the most ordinary kind.

when such big, reliable institutions as the North Shore Quality Laundries can relieve of all this drudgery . . . and give you a whiter, more immaculate washing than could ever be done at home.

Today's "bargain" prices for their popular services actually save you money, too!

BE MODERN! Sell that home washing equipment and use the money to pay for weeks and weeks of laundry service by the North Shore Quality Laundry in your community!
