BROCKWAY RITES HELD SATURDAY

Death Follows Heart Attack Was County Recorder for 34 Years

Funeral services for Lewis O. Brockway, 80, who for 34 years filled the post of Lake county recorder were held at the First Episcopal Church of Waukegan on Saturday, December 1, with the Rev.

Lewis O. Brockway Howard E. Gangster officiating. In-fernment was in the family lot at Milburn cemetery.

Acting as pallbearers were County Judge P. L. Persons, Probate Clerk John R. Bullock, County Treasurer Jay B. Morse, County Clerk Lew Hendee, Alvah L. Rogers and Charles Whyte.

Mr. Brockway died at his home Thanksgiving morning after an illness of a little more than a week from heart trouble. His family was at the bedside at the time.

Born in Lake county, Mr. Brockway was a life long resident of this district except for a few years residence in Washington, D.C., when he was a governmental attaché.

He was born Sept. 19, 1854, in Ela township on a farm a mile southeast of Lake Zurich. He was the son of Martin A. and Sarah (Daugherty) Brockway. His father, a native of New York, located in Ela township in 1847 and was one

Ravinia Women to Hear Lecture by Dudley C. Watson

At the regular monthly meeting of the Ravinia Woman's Club on December 12 Dudley Crafts Watson will present an illustrated lecture on the "Masterpiece of A Century of Progress."

Mr. Watson, an artist residing in Ravinia, is well known to the entire community. His work as lecturer, teacher, museum director and writer has shown thousands the use of art in everyday life, inspiring more constructive living and the actual creation of beauty. He is the official membership lecturer of the Art Institute of Chicago, as well as lecturer for the James Nelson Raymond Public School Children's Lecture Fund. Mr. Watson also had the distinction of being appointed official lecturer for the Fine Arts Department of A Century of Progress exposition in Chicago.

Inasmuch as there will be a short musical program by Miss Ruth Breyspaak preceding Mr. Watson's lecture, the meeting will start promptly at 2 o'clock instead of 2:30 as scheduled. As the sending of notices regarding meetings has been discontinued, it is hoped that the members will note the date and change of hour.

Miss Ruth Breyspaak, violinist, will present a short program before the Ravinia Woman's Club meeting on December 12, preceding the talk on "Masterpieces of A Century of Progress" by Dudley Crafts Watson.

Miss Breyspaak was brought to the attention of Frederick Stock and sent abroad to study. She was accepted as a pupil of the French virtuoso, Professor Henri Marteau, and received four years of training under his tutelage. After her return to America she studied with Franz Kneisel and Leon Sametini, and devoted herself to concert work. Miss Breyspaak has appeared in recital during a recent European tour, and she has also played in large musical centers of America as well as in Ravinia Park.

Bert S. Leech Will Address Lions Club

Bert Leech, science teacher at the Elm Place School, will give an illustrated lecture this noon (Thursday) at the meeting of the Highland Park Lions club.

Mr. Leech will show movies of the collection of pictures of animal and local scenery taken by the late Jesse L. Smith.

A good attendance is requested.

H. P. Organizations Unite in Drive for Christmas Funds

With the object of providing every under-privileged child in Highland Park with a real Christmas, almost every organization in Highland Park is organizing in a movement to raise money for a Christmas fund, to be disbursed under the supervision of the Highland Park Social Service.

The Ravinia Players have a holiday play in rehearsal which they will present at the Alcyon theatre on December 18, 19 and 20. There will be two performances each evening. The screen attraction on these evenings will be George Arliss in "The Last Gentleman."

A full list of the other organizations and their committees will be published in the next week's issue of The Press.

Firemen Request Early Delivery of Toys

A special request is made at this time by the members of the Highland Park and Ravinia fire departments that people who have toys for the firemen to rebuild or refinish, bring them as soon as possible to either the Highland Park or Ravinia fire station.

It is impossible for the members of the department to call for these toys, but they are glad to receive anything that anyone has to contribute towards this yearly enterprise. An early delivery is requested as it takes a great deal of time to get all the toys in first class condition for distribution.

Last year over 600 toys were repaired and it is hoped that this figure may be exceeded this year.

No Loss Sustained in Recent Fires

No loss was sustained in any of the five calls answered during the past few days.

The fires included loose smoke pipe at 302 N. St. Johns, a chimney fire at 8 N. First St., an open furnace door at the Pure Oil station at the corner of Green Bay Road and Central Avenue, a fire caused by a child playing with matches and igniting a window curtain at 150 Beach Street and a chimney fire at 960 Division Street.

None of the fires were serious.

Exmoor Club Officers Elected For Next Year

At the annual meeting of the Exmoor Country Club, held at the University Club of Chicago, on Nov. 26, the following members were elected officers of the club for 1935: Francis E. Baldwin, president; Michael J. O'Brien, vice-president; Howell W. Murray, secretary; and R. C. Brown, treasurer.

A sketch of the swimming pool, which is to be completed by June 1, was displayed and enthusiastically received. It is felt that the pool will prove a great attraction to club members.

Funeral Today For Barbara Ann Rosie

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. today (Thursday) for Barbara Ann Rosie of 1257 Burton Avenue, Highland Park. She is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Murdo Rosie of Wicks, Scotland, and sister of Frank R. Rosie of Highland Park.

Following the services, which will be held at the home on Burton Avenue, interment will be at Memorial Park.

Y. W. C. A. Asks For Support

"Returning to an active piece of work in our 'Y' after a four years absence I find—

The work accomplished—Greater; The number served—Greater; The needs—Much greater.

That through careful planning and the charging of the small fees possible, the 'Y' has come through this trying year 50 per cent self-supporting."

Thus says Mrs. Mary N. Bigham, finance chairman of the local Y.W.C.A., in a plea for funds to support the organization.

"I was shocked to find and feel that you will be too, that only 63 citizens in this town of 14,000 contributed to the support of the 'Y' last year. This is not right. We admit this is partly our fault for through a sympathetic timidity engendered by the depression our active workers did not urge funds. Highland Park can do better than that and I am sure will come to the front this year. Do not think if you can only give a little that it is so small that it will not matter, for as

Scotch say—"Many a Mickle, makes a Muckle."

"The 'Y' has served this community faithfully for 24 years and in new enthusiasms we must not be unkind or unappreciative of its work in our community. The letter we have sent you explains the thought back of all our activities.

"We have lost many of our loyal substantial supporters through death and with the passing of all these fine constructive older people, I am asking all of you, who are passing into the zone of leadership and possessors of more worldly goods to move up into your rightful places among our initial gift givers.

"We serve grade and high school girls and boys with our social dancing, dramatics, etc. If any of these young people are in your home—Give.

"We serve teachers, trained nurses, telephone operators, maids, seamstresses, etc. If you have a human interest in those who minister to your comfort—Give.

DR. WILLIAM BEEBE TO LECTURE HERE

Sponsored by Boy Scouts and Elm Place and Green Bay P.-T. A.

Dr. William Beebe, who is to lecture here at the Elm Place Auditorium, Tuesday, Dec. 11, at 8 p.m., Highland Park, Illinois, is one of the small number of scientists who are also men of letters, capable of translating precise scientific knowledge into literature that is enjoyable for its own sake. These men are liaison officers between the general public and the workers who toil in the laboratories or explore the unknown spaces. They bring to the man in the street the latest golden argosies of science, they tell him strange tales of jungles, deserts and deep seas.

To this small group belonged Fabre, Thoreau and W. H. Hudson. Now that they are gone, William Beebe assumes a pre-eminent place by virtue of his high scientific attainments and his rare literary gifts. Because of his poetic and unusual point of view and the beauty of his style in his carefully penned pictures of jungle life, he has made the ways of the birds and insects of tropical lands and the habits of the weird dwellers of the sea as familiar to the layman as the ordinary life about us.

As director of tropical research of the New York Zoological Society, Dr. Beebe has travelled to the remote corners of the earth to study the habits of birds, animals, insects and fish. Borneo, Mexico, Malaya, Mongolia, the Galapagos, the Sargasso Sea, British Guiana, the oceans of the West Indies and Bermuda, all have passed before his scrutinizing eye. For his monograph (Continued on page 10)

Woman's Club Hears Lecture On Lighting

"A Little Light on the Lights of Our Ancestors" was the subject of a lecture given by Miss Jessie Wrenn before the Highland Park Woman's Club on Tuesday, Dec. 4. The history of lighting is one of Miss Wrenn's hobbies.

Mr. and Mrs. Wrenn have collected many fine specimens of old lamps dating back to stone lamps of 8,000 years ago.

Mrs. Wrenn had on exhibit at the club house, to illustrate her talk, between seventy-five and one hundred lamps of every stage of lighting since lamps came into use hundreds of years ago.

There are few collections of lamps of this type. Henry Ford has a similar collection.

Exhibit Etchings at Woman's Club

The new exhibition at the Highland Park Women's Club, opening this week and to continue through December, shows a representative collection of recent drypoints, etchings and mezzotints, also paintings in oil and water color, by a Ravinia member of the Chicago Society of Artists, Morris Henry Hobbs, active Etcher.

One of the most unusual and interesting exhibits is a framed group of sixteen "postage stamp" etchings made on plates one inch by one and one half inches in size. These miniature etchings have been made by Mr. Hobbs in lecturing and teaching, to demonstrate the process of making an etching or drypoint.

His work is shown at most of the international print shows, and is in the permanent collections of many art museums throughout the country.

Rotary Club Hears Lecture on Scouting at Monday Meeting

"Scouting at Arden Shore," was the subject of the speech presented by George Red Ryan of Arden Shore at the meeting of the Highland Park Rotary Club held Monday noon at the Green Tea Pot. The meeting was under the direction of Mr. C. G. Speer.

Mr. Ryan also brought four scouts from Arden Shore who were guests at the luncheon.

Dr. C. V. Nichols explained the work of the dental clinic in Highland Park. Mr. J. B. Garnett, chairman of Community Service, told of the work of the committee and asked for further cooperation during the ensuing year.

In the absence of Dr. Grover Q. Grady, Mr. L. B. Sinclair acted as president.

D.A.R. Meeting to Be Guest Musicales

Mrs. Caroline Ennell and Mrs. Rubee De Lamarter will present a program of songs and piano numbers at the meeting of the North Shore Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, next Tuesday, December 11 at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Ross J. Beatty, 260 Ravine Drive. Guests and members will be welcomed by Miss Chandler, Miss Beatty, Miss Cutler, Mrs. Ehle, Mrs. Roy Gifford, Mrs. Jared Johnson, Mrs. A. O. Mason, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Rieke and Mrs. Whitehouse as hostesses assisting Mrs. Beatty.

Donations of money or materials for use at Ellis Island will be gratefully received at the meeting. Wool, any kind, color or quantity, shirting in 3 yard lengths, No. 3 or 5 pearl buttons and thread are the materials needed.

The tireless devotion, the fine human understanding, the patriotic zeal of the Daughters of the American Revolution at Ellis Island is indispensable and can not be duplicated. Their presence is symbolic of a spirit of cordiality which is needed not only at our main gateway but in the entire country. Yesterday there were forty different kinds of foreigners in our country; tomorrow they will all be Americans.

The main problem at Ellis Island is the one of long detention caused by the stringency of our laws. The only way to shorten the long, unending hours of the immigrants detained for weeks and months, is to occupy their time by constructive activity. The D.A.R. society is doing this therapeutic work and at the request of the Commissioner of Immigration of the U. S. Marine hospital is increasing this service. One more trained worker has been installed by the D.A.R., who helps the immigrants and the patients to knit, sew, weave, use jig-saws and other hand work. All donations received here will be used to forward this splendid work.

Camera Club to Have Illustrated Lecture

The Camera Club will hold its first meeting of the year on Thursday night, December 6, in the Highland Park Public Library building on Laurel Avenue, at 8 o'clock p.m.

Mr. W. A. Stickler, of Mishawaka, Indiana, will show his movies of the North Woods. Mr. Stickler is noted for his many fine action shots of wild life around Marcell, Minn. Among his pictures are many taken in natural color of fishing and of wild game, in which this part of northern Minnesota abounds.

The club also expects to have an exhibit of pictures taken by Mr. Clyde T. Brown of the Chicago Daily News, many of which have appeared in the Rotogravure pages of that paper in the past months. Mr. Brown's pictures will be on exhibit at the meeting Thursday night.

The Highland Park Camera Club invites all who are interested to attend this and all future meetings of the club. There is no admission charge for any meetings. Additional information relating to the activities of the Highland Park Camera Club may be obtained by calling Mr. W. Reed at H. P. 1743.
