

BROCKWAY RITES HELD SATURDAY

of the pioneers who helped to establish Lake County.

Mr. Brockway taught school from 1871 to 1889 and then clerked in the department of the Interior in Washington from 1890 to 1893 when he resigned to become a deputy county clerk under the late Al Hendee, then county clerk. He held this position until the fall of 1900 when he was elected to the office of circuit clerk and recorder. He held these joint offices until 1924 when the increase in population of the county made it necessary to divide the office.

Mr. Brockway chose to remain as county recorder and was re-elected. His son-in-law, L. J. Wilmot, was elected circuit clerk and still holds this office.

Mr. Brockway was a member of the board of education from 1899 to 1900.

Fraternally he was a member of the A. O. Fay Masonic Lodge, of Highland Park, for 50 years; treasurer of the Royal Arch Masons in Waukegan for 32 years; member of the Waukegan Knights Templar; Elks; Past Patron of the Order of Eastern Star, and Past Commander of the Modern Woodmen of America.

He was married Jan. 27, 1877 to Abi L. Vant who died Feb. 28, 1930. In 1933 he was remarried to Miss Anna D. Botsford.

Long considered one of the greatest vote getters in the county, he held office successfully from the time he was elected in 1900 up until his death. He was a Republican and bore the reputation of holding the same public office in the county building longer than any other one person.

Mr. Brockway is survived by his widow, Mrs. Anna Botsford Brockway, his two daughters, Mrs. Laura Wilmot, of 1423 Hickory Street, and Mrs. Grace E. Bodington, of Toronto, Can., and other relatives.

Joseph Devadanan to Speak at Church

Joseph Devadanan, native of India, will appear in native costume when he speaks at St. Paul's Evangelical Church, Deerfield, Sunday, Dec. 9, at 7:30 p.m. His subject will be, "Manners and Customs of My People." Additional features will include, community singing and selections by the St. Paul's Junior choir composed of thirty-five voices.

Mr. Devadanan is a graduate of Lucknow Christian College, India. He is a graduate of Indiana University and spent two years at Purdue in post graduate work, and is now a student at Garrett Biblical Institute and Northwestern University. Upon graduation he will return to India.

Joe, as he is known by hundreds of Indian boys, is a most unusual speaker and a keen student. Whenever he has lectured there have been requests for additional engagements. Mr. Devadanan has spoken before hundreds of groups in this State. It is felt that it will be a great privilege to hear him Sunday night at St. Paul's Church, Deerfield. The public is cordially invited to attend.
