Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Juhrend returned Sunday from a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Werner Borchering in Fredericksburg, Iowa. The Juhrends made the trip to Iowa in five hours, but their return was much different. They left Friday morning at 10 a.m. and due to the heavy snowdrifts did not get to Deerfield until Sunday noon. After they reached Rockford they found no snow to Deerfield.

Friday, when the fire siren blew, everyone felt sorry that there had to be a fire on such a windy day. Fortunately it was only a chimney fire, with no resulting damages, at the Andrew Savage house on Somerset avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Savage and family are moving from the Hastings house in the near future to Herman Huehl house on Waukegan road.

A. M. Guncel and Ray Guncel of Highland Park visited Miss Verene Guncel on Wednesday at the S. S. Love home.

There will not be a regular meeting of the Grammar School P.T.A. on the second Friday of this month. Instead, a Christmas program by the school children will be held just before the holidays.

Practice on the Christmas operetta has been started at the school and the entire cast will be selected from the eighth grade, thus making the Christmas operetta an annual eighth grade project.

After the new year evening services will be held on alternate Sunday nights with St. Paul's Church and the Presbyterian Church by an agreement of the two ministers, Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok and Rev. W. F. Weir, respectively.

At the assembly of the Deerfield Grammar School last week seven scenes from "The Courtship of Miles Standish" were dramatized. The cast included: Joan Nash as Priscilla; David Sanders as John Alden; Jack Gillilan as Miles Standish. Most of the seventh grade pupils took part in the play either as Pilgrims or Indians.

Mrs. Joseph Korenin and daughter Frances spent Thursday with Mrs. Korenin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Iverson in DeKalb.

Mrs. Margaret Gastfield had as her guest on Friday her grandson, Thomas Johnson Rice of Glen Ellyn. Mrs. Frank Jacobs Jr. will be hostess to the Sewing Society of St. Paul's Church on Thursday, Dec. 13, at the home of Mrs. Peter Juhrend. The meeting date was set forward one week because of the Christmas holidays. The society is making gifts for the Bensonville Home.

The Ladies Aid Society of St. Paul's Church is meeting Thursday afternoon (today) at the church. Hostesses will be Mrs. Edwin Palmer, Mrs. Fred Sallach and Mrs. Henry Huehl. A Christmas program has been planned by the program chairman, Mrs. John Ott.

Magic Chef GAS RANGE

Look in her kitchen for a Christmas gift suggestion. Is the cook stove out-of-date that she uses every day? If it is, you can depend on it that she will appreciate a modern gas range.

The convenience of a modern gas range will give her daily freedom from cooking drudgery. This means new leisure... more time away from kitchen duties.

What greater gift could you give her than relief from burdensome, outmoded cooking methods! A modern gas range has every feature required for complete ease and enjoyment in cooking.

Visit our large display of modern gas ranges. There are many styles, finishes and prices. A demonstration will not oblige you.

Look for this seal of approval on the range you buy

The Magic Chef is outstanding in up-to-date features. It brings convenience, efficiency, economy and ease to every cooking operation. Note the Magic Chef features below:

- Non-clogging, automatic lighting top burners that give a thousand even heats.
- Red Wheel Lorain heat regulator that maintains any desired heat in the oven.
- Fully insulated oven that saves heat and keeps your kitchen comfortable.
- Smokeless, odorless, grid-pan broiler with two-piece basting reservoir to catch melted fats.
- Sanitary high burner tray that conceals pipes and protects them against spatters and boil-overs.
