ARDEN SHORE SCOUTS ENTERTAIN AT ROTARY

Three Scouts from Arden Shore Camp entertained members of the Highland Park Rotary Club at their regular meeting on Monday of this week. The three scouts were representative of the four that are making Arden Shore their home this winter. Arden Shore during the winter time is conducted as a school and camp for underprivileged boys of the city of Chicago and their entire program is based upon Scouting procedure and methods. George Ryan and Calvin Gartley are the male members of the Arden Shore staff and have charge of the scout work. The program at the Rotary Club on Monday consisted of some musical numbers, both vocal and on the harmonica. After the Scouts completed their part of the program, Mr. Ryan spoke about the work being done at Arden Shore by Miss Anna Belle Ferrer, the director, and her staff of assistants. Visitors are welcome to Arden Shore where a 24-hour day Scout program is in operation.

WINTER CAMP FOR CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS

Scouts interested in a four day winter camp at the Isaac Walton Cabin near Wheeling, should get in touch with their Scoutmaster for information. The camp will be held for four days, beginning Dec. 26. A program of real fun and adventure and Scouting will be conducted by competent and well informed camp staff. This is a chance for a real Scout holiday, which will be valuable to all who take advantage of it. See your Scoutmaster today.

SCOUTS URGED TO BRING IN NEWSPAPERS

Those Scouts and troops who have collected newspapers are hereby notified that a box car will be on the siding of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad to Deerfield next Saturday afternoon to receive papers. All papers will be weighed and the correct amount will be credited to the troop or individual delivering the papers to the car. Many Scouts have earned their uniforms and their way to camp with this method and several Scout troops finance their activities in this manner.

HOLD CHRISTMAS PARTY FOR SCOUTMASTERS DEC. 15
