White Gift Service

The young people and a number of the children of the Bethany Evangelical Sunday School will present the annual Christmas program of the church, Sunday afternoon at 4:30 vesper. Their program will be in the form of a Christmas play presenting a very fine Christmas message. The play ends with a strong appeal to the audience to present their Christmas "White Gifts," which this year will again go to the Flat Rock Orphanage at Flat Rock, Ohio. This "White Gift" service is being sponsored by Mrs. C. Stryker, Mrs. E. Hecketsweiler, Mrs. E. D. Fritsch, Mrs. A. E. Decker and Mrs. W. E. Meierhoff. They have been assisted by Miss Katherine Geary, who has been directing the play. The public is invited to enjoy this fine Christmas program.

Church Organization
Hears Two Speakers

The Highlanders, an organization composed of 60 young married couples at the Highland Park Presbyterian Church met Sunday night at the church. They were addressed by two men on the subject of "Recruiting New Leadership in Public Office."
The speakers, John Miller, until recently with the F. R. A. and Kendall Lingle of Chicago, a Princeton graduate who is organizing a new party in Chicago politics, were introduced by Corliss Anderson, president of the Highlanders.

Bethany Choir

The choir of the Bethany Evangelical Church, will present a Christmas Music Festival in the auditorium of the church at Laurel and McGovern on Friday evening of this week at 7:45. Their program will consist of a number of Christmas Anthems and some of the old as well as some of the newer Christmas Carols. The choir has been working hard and faithful under direction of Mr. Fredrick Bieler of Northwestern U. and Miss Charlotte Brand the organist. Those who enjoy sacred music, will not want to miss this fine Christmas program. A cordial invitation is extended to the people of the community to share this worthwhile service.
