

Highwood Legion To Present Minstrel Show Tonight and Friday

The Highwood American Legion Minstrel show which will be staged at the Oak Terrace school, Highwood, Feb. 14 and 15, offers two distinct features, in that those who still remember the old fashioned minstrels will get the thrill that the old time minstrel always gave them, and to those who do not remember them, it will be something entirely new and different. There is, of course, a modern theme in the show, but for the most part the songs are old ballads which were popular in the gay nineties, with all the pep of very gay 35's added. Miss Alyce Curley is the director of the music, and her sister, Miss Ann Curley, is one of the best soloists of the show.

The performance will open with an old time minstrel with funny end men, interlocutor, and a large circle, and will consist of a riot of fun, singing and music, which will last an hour. After that there will be the usual Olio, with a series of vaudeville sketches with such acts as Mr. Joe Farnetti with his trained dog, "Bozo," who does everything except talk, and at times almost does that; the well known team of Otteni and Klemp, in "Barnacle Bill the Sailor." Mr. Otteni has gained national Legion fame as the Official Saluting Demon of the A.E.F., as well as the Legion. Mr. Harvey Reber and Miss Dora Krueger, in South American "Rhumba," the Mid-Western Hill Billies, as well as the Highwood Hill Billies with orchestra under the direction of Mr. Rocco Stella, and the children of Mr. and Mrs. George Abernathy in popular songs and tap dancing.

"The Legion Tappers," under the direction of Miss Marie Pierantoni who is herself an accomplished dancer, Miss Louise Bendini in popular songs and dances, Miss Ostrowsky, a blues singer, Miss Marie Lawther, Miss Lucille Hartnell of WCFL and WIND, finishing with a tableau of the wars and showing the birth of the American Legion. Those taking part in the finale are Oscar Ahlberg, Charles La Duke, Art Kerwahld, Henry Collier, Carroll Risdon, Mrs. Helen Kerwahld, Doris Baldi, Sonny Reber and Bobby La Duke.

Members of the Mutual Club made valentine baskets on Thursday evening at the home of Miss Louise Huhn. These were distributed to shut-ins in the village.

Philathea Class of Bethany Church Plans for Birthday Party

Plans have been completed for the church birthday party to be given by the Philathea class of the Bethany Evangelical church in the church parlors on Friday evening, Feb. 22 at 7:30 p.m.

The class plans to have twelve tables, one for each month of the year. Many ideas will be carried through to make the evening pleasant and entertaining.

The class has provided little bags into which each one is expected to place a penny for each year of his or her life. It is hoped that every friend of Bethany will put forth an effort to be present for this birthday party.

D. A. R. Better Films Committee Review

Feb. 14, Thursday—"The White Parade," featuring John Boles and Loretta Young. An authentic portrayal of a training school for nurses; endorsed by the American Nurses Association; emphasizing the self sacrifice necessary for the successful carrying on of the profession; the ceremonies of receiving the cap and of graduation were most impressive. One of the well worth while productions of the year. Adults and young adults.

Feb. 15, Saturday only—"Babes in Toyland," with Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy. The first half of this children's drama, with the familiar music from the popular extravaganza of earlier days and the beloved "Mother Goose" characters, is delightfully staged, whimsically acted and should be a joy to holiday audiences of children. The second part, involving a trip to Bogeyland; is much too long and in parts terrifying to the overly nervous child.

"Boosting Dad," featuring Junior Coghlan. An outline of the troubles faced by a high school boy when he attempts to earn money to impress one of his girls. Bright entertainment, with amusing shots of a trick dog, "Family."

Saturday Mat. only—"Law of the Wild," serial.

Feb. 17-18, Sunday, Monday—"Lady by Choice," with May Robson and Wallie Connolly. A fan dancer adopts an old derelict as her mother for publicity's sake. A typical vehicle for the able, human May Robson, demonstrating her facile regenerating possibilities. Adults.

Feb. 19-20, Tuesday-Wednesday—"Transatlantic Merry-Go-Round" with Jack Benny, Nancy Carroll, Gene Raymond. A complicated story, Grand Hotel-like, in which the incidents portraying mystery, murder and romance take place on a liner plying its way from New York to a British port. The hustle and bustle of ship life is educational. Very entertaining. Adults and young adults.

Feb. 21-22, Thursday and Friday—"Chu Chin Chow" with Anna May Wong. The old musical extravaganza, elaborately staged and acted with humor and zest. The cast is well chosen and the familiar score is heard again. A sort of glorified "Ala Baba and the Forty Thieves" and is most delightful with its sumptuous Oriental pageantry.—Family.

Lecture on Japan To Be Presented at Highwood Church

Miss Ada Shaw, former teacher in Japan, will speak on "Japan," at the Highwood Methodist church on Sunday evening, February 17, at 8 o'clock.

The evening service will consist of selections from the student chorus, vocal solos, recitations and short talks by students of the E.C.I. an institution recently organized under the supervision of the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal church. Its junior college program is made possible by the co-operation of Northwestern university. The college is partly supported by donations from churches, which fact makes possible a very small tuition fee. Rev. Wm. W. Nelson, who for eight years was pastor of the Highwood M.E. church, is dean of the new school.

Several young men and women are attending from this vicinity. The public is cordially invited to attend. Refreshments will be served after the first meeting.

The women's committees of Bethany and Bethlehem Churches met in Deerfield last Thursday to make plans for their participation in the annual conference to be held in Highland Park in April.

H. P. Hockey Club Loses Fast Game To Chicago Sextet

Playing in a close, fast moving game against the Vodrazka Hornets of Chicago, the Highland Park Hockey Club met defeat at Sunset Park last Sunday by the score of 7-4. The game was one of excitement from start to finish and it wasn't until the Hornets put in their final goal that either the local sextet or the spectators counted the game as a loss. Body checking was in vogue that afternoon, both teams giving plenty and taking just as much, asking no quarter, receiving none.

Slightly soft ice might have done a great deal to slow the game, had it not been that both teams were determined to win. The local boys were out to show the fans that they weren't going to stop at anything and the Hornets were just as determined to prove that they couldn't be stopped. In fact it looked very much as if they were stopped at the start of the game, for inside of seven and one-half minutes the Hornets had sunk three goals.

With half of the final period gone the visitors finally decided to end the game there and then, but it took them all of the remaining ten minutes to convince the local boys that they really were beaten. Inside of that interval they put in three more goals, their last after leaving the local five man forward line up the ice.

Waukegan Defeats Highwood Boosters In Two Overtimes

Losing a fast, cleverly played game, the Highwood Boosters lost to the fast Waukegan Co-op team in the second overtime period by a score of 35 to 34. The Co-op team opened up their attack in the last half to score 21 points to tie up the Boosters with a score of 28 up ending the second half causing an overtime.

In the first overtime both teams made 3 points, making another overtime necessary from which the Co-ops came out the victor to the tune of 34-35.

The game was fast and rough and the crowd received many thrills as the Co-op team came up from behind to tie and beat the Boosters. Maki was the outstanding man of the evening for he played a swell game and tallied the winning points to clinch the game. Maki also scored 13 points and his mate Ruta also scored 13 points.

Rogan was high scorer for Highwood with 12 points, but was handicapped for he was injured in the first quarter and couldn't be of much help during the two overtimes. Scabby, small and light, compared to the burly Co-ops, turned in one of his best games.

Russell, Pasquesi, Swede and McClure all played good heady ball.

Summary of the game follows:
Boosters B.F.P. Co-op B.F.P.
McClure 3 0 0 Skyrius 2 1 3
Pasquesi 2 1 1 Maki 6 1 1
Rogan 5 2 1 Ruta 6 1 3
T. Russell 1 1 4 Malysak 1 1 1
Scabby 4 0 1 Kapter 0 0 1 3
Swede 0 0 4 Waaraniki 0 0 0

Valentine Dance Proves Successful

Reports from many who attended the Ravinia Valentine dance Saturday evening are said to indicate that it was a great success. The music was excellent and the clever favors and special features added much to the gaiety of the dancers. In response to the many requests coming in, the Ravinia Woman's club hopes to be able to entertain high school students soon again with another party.

Bannockburn Club Hears Bird Talk

The February meeting of the Bannockburn Garden club was held last Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. J. Ginter. Mrs. Arthur Harrison read an interesting paper on "Birds of Illinois."

Mrs. Raymond Watts will give another lecture on February 18 at the Bannockburn Grammar school at a meeting of the Junior Garden club.

To The Voters of Highland Park

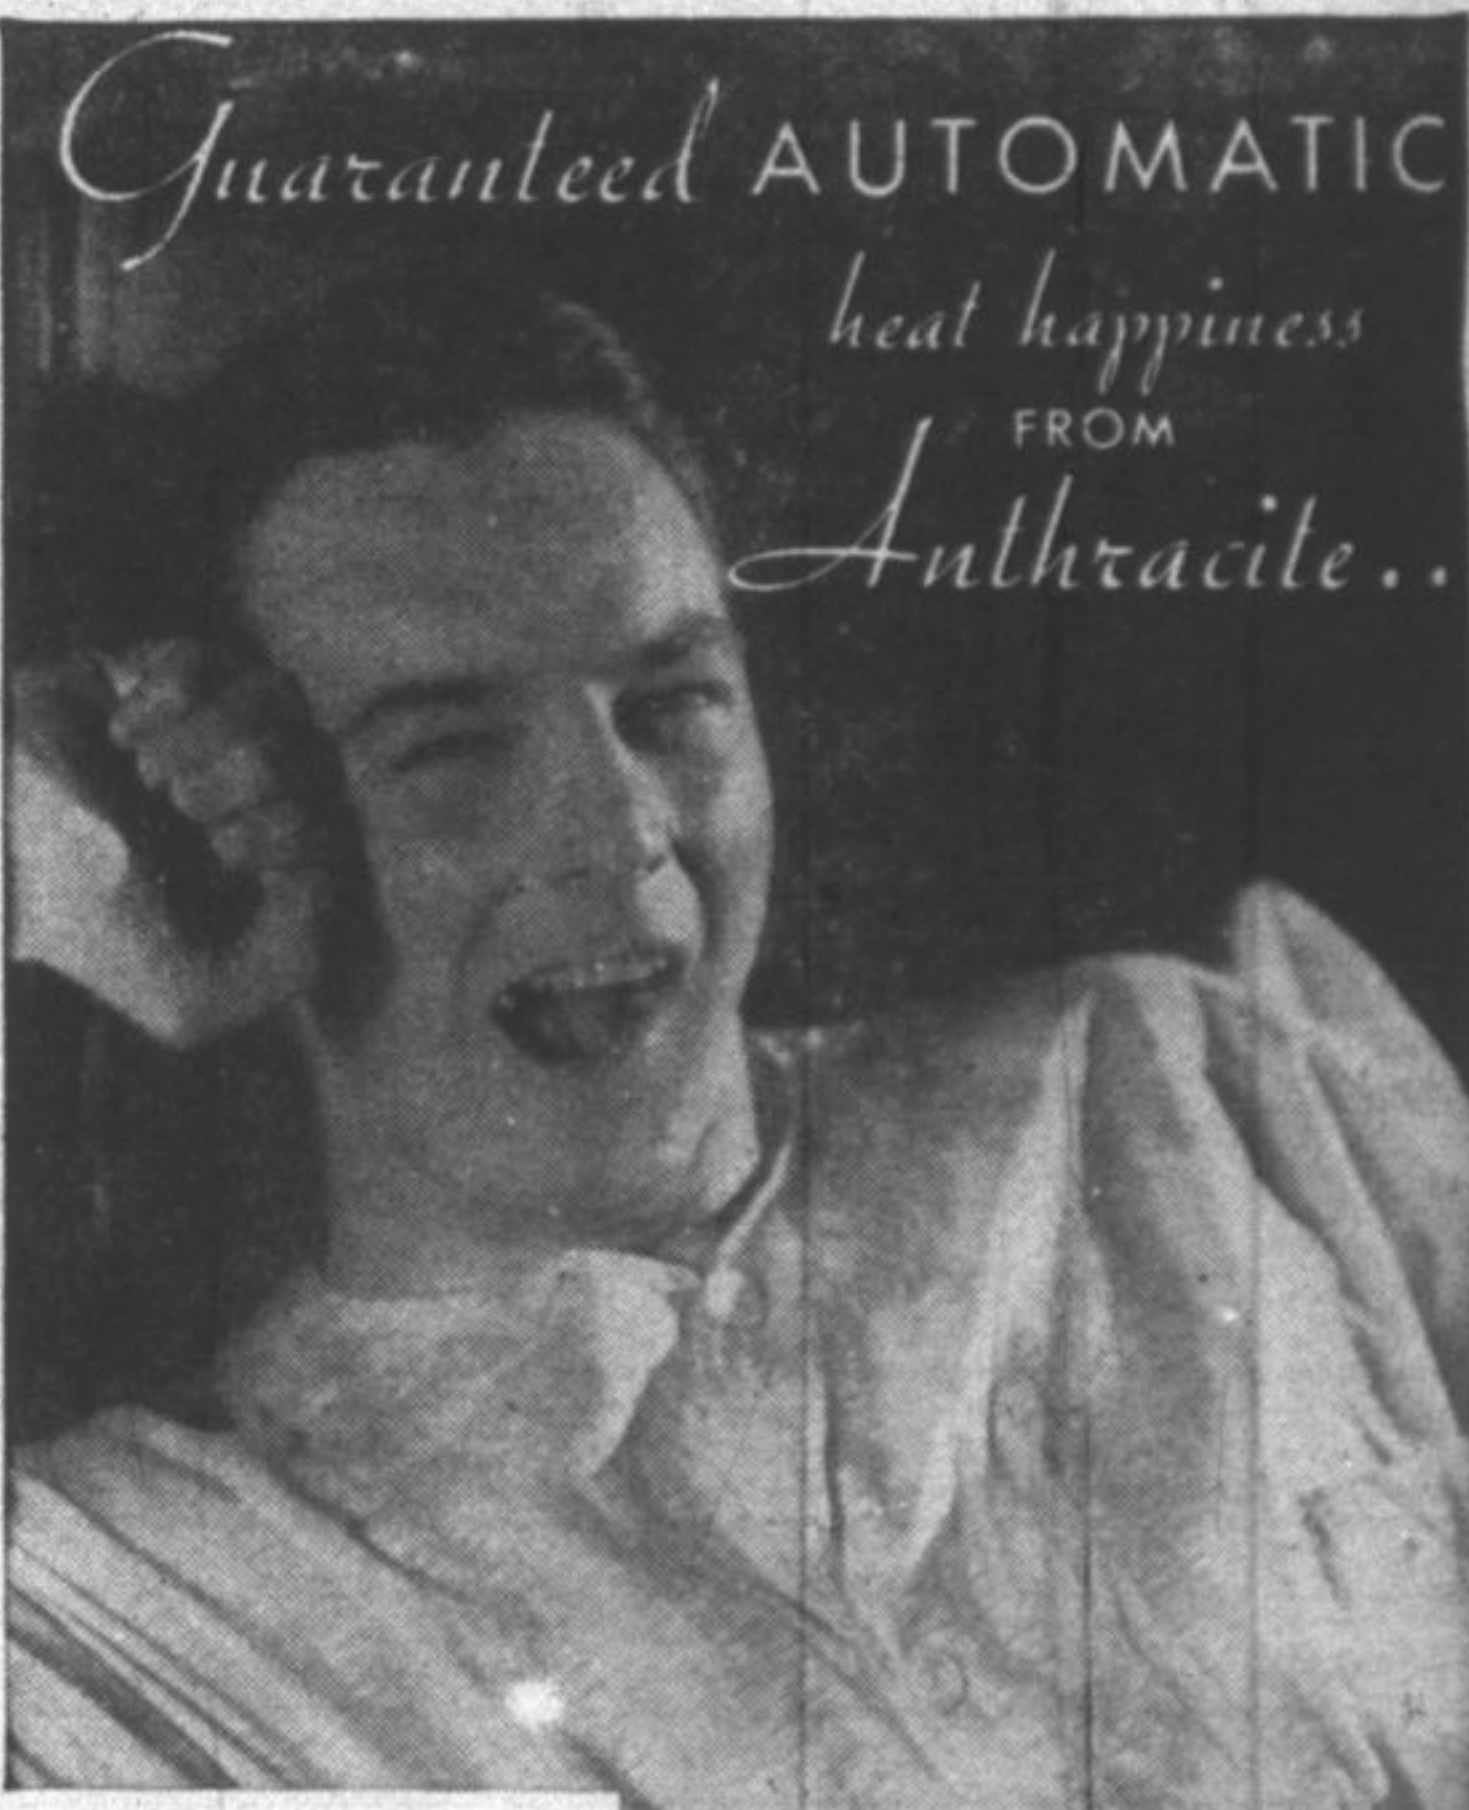

During the past four years, I have served the public of this City as one of your Commissioners. I feel sure the faithful service and devotion to my duties has met with your approval. I am asking your support at the coming Primary. It is important that you vote Feb. 26th.

If re-elected, I shall bring to that office four years of experience and can render more efficient service in the future. I am out to serve Highland Park; no faction; but THE COMMON GOOD OF EVERY CITIZEN.

Respectfully yours,

J. H. TAYLOR
