NOTE SPECIAL CALAVO PRICES!

Bumper Crop Bargains in Rare Fruit

WATCH your dealer's store - and his advertisements - for "specials" on Calavos, California's new improved avocado. The first bumper crop of this new salad delicacy means plenty for everyone - at prices which make dimes do the work that dollars used to.

Of more than 400 different varieties of avocados or alligator pears only 14 are good enough to be Calavos. They have fibreless meat, small seeds, and up to 2 1/2 times as much of the flavor-bearing natural fruit oil that gives Calavos their melting goodness!

Try two or three today. Look for the name stamped on the skin and insist on genuine Calavos when you buy. They insure praise from family and guests.

HOW TO SERVE

HALVED - Cut lengthwise a Calavo that has softened sufficiently to yield readily to the gentle pressure of the full hands. Remove pit. Serve halves unpeeled on lettuce bed with a light, sharp dressing or lemon juice and salt. Eat with a spoon.

SLICED - Halve, peel and slice Calavos. Serve on shredded lettuce with light, sharp dressing. Or add to mixed vegetable, fruit, fish or meat salads. Cube Calavos and serve in cocktail sauce for a first course.
