Chicago Bishop to Visit Highland Park

The Rt. Rev. George Craig Stewart, D.D., bishop of the diocese of Chicago, will make his annual visit to Trinity Episcopal Church on this coming Sunday, March 10.

The bishop will confirm a class at the 11 o'clock service and will also be the special preacher.

It has become a tradition that the bishop visit the Highland Park parish every year on the first Sunday in Lent; and the church feels that it is a most helpful thing to have the voice of Bishop Stewart, who is one of the outstanding preachers of the church, address a congregation on the threshold of Lent.

To the extent of the rather limited seating capacity of Trinity Church, the community is invited to attend this service, at which the men and boys' choir under the direction of Ralph Anschuetz will sing.

A "Spook Chaser" explains how he evicts from haunted houses. Read this unusual illustrated article in The American Weekly, the magazine distributed with NEXT SUNDAY'S CHICAGO HERALD AND EXAMINER.
