TID-BITS

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

"Twenty-five years, boys, is a mighty long time." So says an old song, and the saying is as true now as it was when first made. A lot can be learned in that time, even by a dilettante; but think of what 25 years of doing one thing can teach you.

And it is precisely because of those long years of experience that we are so proud of our fresh fruit and vegetable department. For 25 years our buyer has risen about 4:30 a.m. in the winter and 3 a.m. in the summer so he could be among the first to reach the South Water street market. So he could get there in time to skim the cream of the crop before it had been looked at by the thousands of food merchants who go there to buy. So he could get the largest apples, the finest grapes, most luscious berries. To get the tenderest peas, best tomatoes, soundest cauliflower for his trade.

He has learned why Michigan peaches are better than those from Georgia; why Illinois grows better corn than Texas, although Texas spinach is better than Illinois'. Why tomatoes grown outdoors have a better flavor than hothouse tomatoes although they do not have as good a color.

Come in and see the results of this long period of training which has as its goal the garnishment of your table with the best of the nation's food products. Fruits so tempting that just looking at them makes your mouth water. And vegetables that need only the slightest preparation to turn them into the most palatable and healthy food in the world.

We are proud of our fresh foods. Proud that we can offer you such delightful food all the year round. If you are one of our steady patrons, you'll know why. If you are new, come in and find out. You'll never regret it.
