Swept into office by the large majorities in precincts eight, nine and ten, combined with the good per-centage of votes obtained in eight other precincts, William M. Dooley was elected mayor of Highland Park last Tuesday for a second time. Mayor-elect Dooley, who has been prominent in public life here for many years, had already served as mayor under the old aldermanic system of city government.

Among many other positions Mr. Dooley has held during his long years of service here are postmaster, cashier of both the Highland Park State Bank and North Shore Trust bank, chairman of Red Cross drives, president of the chamber of commerce, school treasurer and many other positions of trust and responsibility. It is felt that this great experience, coupled with his long residence here, have given him a background and insight which will make it possible for him to be a very efficient mayor. The four commissioners elected are all men who have served in the position before.
