

D.A.R. Better Films Committee Review

"Wings in the Dark" with Myrna Loy and Cary Grant, on Thursday April 18. A fast action story of peace time aviation and the struggle of an aviator, blinded by an accident, to overcome seeming defeat and disappointment, to come back to a life of usefulness. Two friends, one of them a woman aviator, help him to win back and to prove to the world the value of the blind flying mechanical devices he has perfected. Tense, exciting, with a satisfying suspense sustained from the beginning to its highly melodramatic finish. Convincingly acted and excellently directed. Family.

"Spirit of 1914." A musical fantasy in which a candidate is voted into office on an anti-work platform. Disappointment follows; people tire of leisure and the candidate finds that to be elected he must reverse his platform and join the anti-workers. An amusing burlesque with rhythmic music, entertaining. Family.

April 19-20, Friday and Saturday, "Baboons." Photographed and directed by Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson, well known African explorers. The Martin Johnsons blaze a new trail of exploration and discovery in an aerial safari that covers 60,000 miles of gorgeous African country hitherto impassable. The sound and photography are exceptionally clear. The animal scenes are amazingly natural and the entire production thrilling and instructive. Family.

"The Shoemaker and the Elves," color chapbook series. A delightful interpretation of the old fairy tale of the shoemaker who rescued a waif from the snow, and for whom the elves made shoes at midnight. Charming. Family.

Saturday matinee only, "Mystery Mountain," serial.

April 21-22, Sunday and Monday, "Rumba" with George Raft and Carole Lombard. A series of unrelated fragments centering around an American dancer who goes to Havana, learns the native rumba, and opens an elaborate night club, and with a partner, gives exhibition dances. Well portrayed Cuban atmosphere and some effective dance sequences. Adults and young adults.

April 23, Tuesday, Lee Tracy and Sally Eilers in "Carnival." The story of a trapper whose wife dies in childbirth and whose baby is placed in a nursing home. The stealing of the baby later involves unjust criticism of large hospitals. The utter disregard for the law, especially theft, is presented humorously, consequently the effect is demoralizing. Strictly for adults.

April 24-25, "Grand Old Girl" with May Robson. A middle-aged school teacher, grown old in the service, attempts to correct several evils which threaten her high school pupils and encountering the "powers that be" is eventually dismissed. The visit of the President of the United States, a former student, re-instates her in public regard. A human story which sincerely attempts to reveal the courageous spirit and understanding heart of a teacher. Good family entertainment.

Deerfield P.T.A. Has Interesting Meeting

Mrs. Harry Muhlke presided at the April meeting of the Deerfield Grammar School P.T.A. on Friday afternoon at the grammar school gym. The first grade children, under the direction of Mrs. Christine Knaak, gave a delightful program of song, recitations, and toy orchestra music.

"The Brass Kettle," a one-act play under the direction of Miss Elyse Rinkenberger, dramatic coach at the Deerfield-Shields High School, was cleverly presented by a dramatic group. The cast included Mary Lou Keaster, Edward Ransdall, Ada Grusin, Florence Louis, Artis Martin, Erik Schacht, Howard O'Donnell, Nancy Sneddon, Winona McCintie, Mary Heed and Dorothy Lytle.

The play was well given and greatly enjoyed. The Deerfield Grammar School P.T.A. takes this means of publicly thanking the students for presenting the program.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Muhlke appointed a nominating committee to present new officers at the May meeting.

A social hour concluded the afternoon with fourth grade mothers as hostesses. Mrs. William J. Galloway and Miss Ethel Titus poured at the tea table.

Deerfield Auxiliary Will Hold Party

The regular meeting of the Deerfield American Legion Auxiliary unit No. 738, was held on Monday evening April 15, at the home of Mrs. Alvin Knaak of Highland Park.

April being child welfare month, Mr. C. C. Kapschull very kindly accepted the invitation of the unit's child welfare chairman, Mrs. Erma Haggi, to speak on this subject at our meeting. Mr. Kapschull called attention to the importance of the Legions constructive criticism of children's institutions in the State of Illinois, particularly at the U. S. Soldiers and Sailors Orphans home at Normal and at St. Charles School for Boys. Many unfavorable conditions at both institutions have been corrected through the Legions influence especially where political exploitation was the underlying cause. Although seldom given credit, the Legions national organization is largely responsible for the enactment of the child labor law recently put into effect.

The unit voted to sponsor the June birthday party for the patients at U.S.V.B. Hospital No. 105 at North Chicago. Mrs. Gladys Dunham, hospital chairman reported taking 395 magazines, battleship games and figures, saw puzzles to the hospital during the next month.

The Auxiliary will sponsor a public card party to be held at the Masonic temple on the afternoon of Friday, April 26. The lavender and white woolen blanket on display at Olendorf's store will be awarded at this time.

The unit and post will hold their oratorical contest in the Deerfield Grammar school auditorium during the coming week.

A very appropriate program is being arranged by the chairman, Mrs. C. C. Kapschull. The public is cordially invited to attend at no cost. There will be about six contestants.

The play "The Rebellion of Youth" will be presented by the Mothers' club of Highland Park, at the school auditorium in the near future. This will be given under the auspices of the Auxiliary and we are pleased to be able to bring this highly recommended feature to the people of Deerfield.

Mrs. Mary Welch, community service chairman reported that 82 articles of clothing had been redistributed during the past month. The committee is still happy to receive contributions of clothing for the poor. Persons having such things are urged to bring them to the Red Cross room at the Grammar school on Wednesday of each week.

The unit voted to send $1.00 to the General department Child Welfare fund.

A report on the testimonial dinner to Mrs. Ada Mucklestone, Illinois' candidate for national president of the Auxiliary was read by the president.

The meeting was adjourned and refreshments served by the hostess and her assistant, Mrs. Gladys Jacobs. —Contributed.

Y.W.C.A.

A Regional Conference (which included 101 Y.W.C.A.'s of the middle west) met in Chicago at the Sherman hotel Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 11-13. The program included panel discussions on membership participation, social security, the Y.W.C.A. and labor problems, public affairs and standard and goals. Excellent leadership was secured for the conference which included Dr. and Mrs. Gilkey, Clifton Utley and Dr. Arthur Holt, as well as national staff and board members. With this opportunity so close at hand, Highland Park had splendid representation. Mrs. Corliss D. Anderson, Mrs. H. C. Howes, Mrs. L. W. Frank, Mrs. G. L. Canright and Mrs. L. Schimmel attended from our local board of directors and Mrs. Arnewald, Mrs. C. St. John, Mrs. W. Hayward, Mrs. W. N. Howard, and Mrs. D. Kerr from the Mothers club, as well as Mrs. Lydia V. Hutton the executive secretary and Miss Ethel Skidmore who has been doing the work with the younger girls.

One is impressed again with the need and the scope of such a national and international organization. One million women in 50 nations is no small force. A statistical report of 1934, was given by the national board of the work in the United States to be:

Girls obtaining jobs through the Y.W.C.A.	107,000
Received different forms of emergency relief	46,000
Entered into the free recreation program	142,000
Were reached throughout the country by the program and services of the various associations	2,000,000
Registered for study with a wide range of subject available	208,000
Girls who work in factories participated in the club programs	125,000
Young women in business offices and 12,000 girls engaged in household work	66,000
Women are contributing their time and services to the Y.W.C.A. in volunteer service, either on board, committee and educational department	79,000

Easter Twilight Tea

There will be a Twilight Tea given at the Y.W.C.A. Easter Sunday by the Friendship club, between the hours of 5 and 7 o'clock. Members of the club and their friends, (both girls and young men are invited). A musical program has been arranged by a committee, numbers to include vocal and piano selections. Members of the club extend a cordial welcome to other employed girls and young men in the community. These teas are informal, its a good time to make new friends, a hearty welcome awaits you if you accept this invitation.

Easter Cantata at St. Paul's Church

"Christ Victorious," an Easter cantata by Roy E. Nolte, will be presented by the Junior Choir of St. Paul's Evangelical Church, of Deerfield, on Sunday evening at 7:30. Thirty-five children in white robes will sing in the cantata with solos and duets by Katharine Reeb, Anna Dewey, Lois Palmer, Ione Beckman, Edward Sticken, LaVon Davis, Donald Davis, Charles Kapschull Jr., Frederick Piepenbrok, L. F. Soefker, and Dorothy Bleyer.

Songs to be sung are: "Rejoice and Be Glad," "Go to Dark Gethsemane," "The Hour Is at Hand," "The Glory of the Cross," "How Calm and Beautiful the Morn," "Joy Bells of Easter," "Hear the Story," "This Is the Day," "My Redeemer Lives," "Lift Your Glad Voices," "O Lord, Thou Art My God." The community is invited.
