

Deerfield Local and Personal

Jane Krause will hold open house on Thursday afternoon, April 25, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Krause of West Deerfield Avenue. It will be just one year ago on that day that Jane was forced to go to bed because of an injury to her right hip-bone. The cast was removed at Christmas time but she has been required to remain in bed the entire year. She will be taken to the Wesley Memorial Hospital the first week in May. Jane would love to see all her school friends next Thursday afternoon at this party which her mother is arranging. A year is a long time to remain in bed and surely all her friends will visit her that day!

Mr. and Mrs. George Stanger, Mrs. Edna S. Orsborn and son Charles, and Clifford Stanger with Mr. and Mrs. Lester Stanger and daughter, Bonita of Highland Park, left Sunday for Grand Junction, Iowa, to attend the funeral of Mrs. George Stanger's nephew, Clarence Wessling (son of Dan Wessling), who died in a Des Moines Hospital. Death was due to injuries received several weeks previous on his farm near Grand Junction.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schwab returned Sunday from Melvin, Ill., after a week's visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Dickman (Lillian Schwab).

Mrs. Alex Willman will be hostess to members of the Chatter 'N' Sew Club on Tuesday evening, April 30, at her home on Waukegan Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Krause entertained eighteen at Sunday dinner in honor of their eldest daughter's confirmation and their youngest daughter's baptism. Betty Krause was confirmed at St. Paul's Church Sunday morning and in the afternoon Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok baptized little Shirley Jule at the Krause home. Her sponsors were Mr. S. A. Ecklund and Mrs. Henry Behrman of Chicago. Out of town guests were the Henry Behrmans, Mr. and Mrs. Ole Stensland and the Ecklands of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. August Schomburg of Oak Park, and Mrs. Julia Nickolas of Glenview.

Mrs. Fred LaBahn will entertain Circle One of St. Paul's Church on Thursday afternoon, April 25. Miss Edith Metcalf returned to Connecticut College at New London, Conn., April 2 after spending the spring vacation with her maternal grandmother at Wilmington, Del., and with a school chum in New York City. Walter Metcalf Jr., took an auto trip with several of his school friends to Owensborough, N.Y., and Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. Cecelia L. Frost and two sons, Harold and Russell, and Mrs. Howard Stryker left on Sunday to visit in Fowler, Indiana. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Casey of Rosemary Terrace have a baby girl, Sally Ann, born April 9 at the Highland Park Hospital.

Mrs. J. A. Reichelt Jr. is expected home today from a trip to Washington, D.C.

Mrs. John Hoffman will be hostess at a meeting of the Independent Social Club on Wednesday, April 24. It will be a one o'clock luncheon. Miss Caryl Frantz entertained at a "kid's party" on Monday evening. The costumes were unique.

Weidner & Johnson of Valparaiso, Ind., have leased the former B. & L. Cafe store in the Stryker building and will open a restaurant there about May 1. The ping pong club which has had headquarters there this winter is seeking another location.

Fred LaBahn's birthday anniversary, which occurred April 16, was celebrated on Sunday at a family dinner. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. George LaBahn and daughter, Irma, and Mrs. Caroline Niebuhr of Evanston, Mrs. Minnie Doherty and two daughters Wilma and Margaret of Chicago, and Robert Cook of Warren, Ill.

Carl John Bates, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bates, has the measles. Deerfield teachers are spending their vacations at their respective homes: Hazel Miller in Pittsville, Mo.; Leta Toll in Chicago Heights; Ethel Titus in Libertyville; Beth Andrew in Rockford; Irene Evenson in Larson, Wis.; Genevieve Card in Stevens Point, Wis.; Jean Nygard, in Mt. Horeb, Ill.; Christine Knaak and Virginia Engels in Highland Park; Dorothy Lidgerwood and C. E. Bates in Deerfield.

Sixteen relatives attended a birthday party in honor of Mrs. George Pettis last Wednesday evening. The Nevins family went east recently, moving from the Edwin Stryker home on Orchard Lane.

The Leslie Brands returned Monday from White Lake, Mich. Mrs. Harold Youngs will entertain her sewing club on Wednesday at her new home on Brittany Road in Highland Park.

Evelyn Kent is staying at the Delbert Meyer home. Miss Helen Scully will entertain the Junior Auxiliary of the American Legion on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. William Tennermann is director of the Juniors.

Mrs. Earl Hurt entertained her bridge club yesterday afternoon. Miss Edna Behrens of Evanston was the week-end guest of Mrs. R. E. Pettis.

Miss Anna Kruse of Forest Park spent the week-end at the Edw. H. Selig home.

John Derby is home from DePauw University, and Duncan Reeds from the University of Illinois for their spring vacations.

LeRoy S. Scully, master of the Deerfield Masonic Lodge, was pleasantly surprised at a party by his officers last Tuesday evening at the George Lutz home in Northbrook.

Nancy Burnett is spending the week-end with her grand parents in Maywood. Her little brother, Budyd, has scarlet fever.

Mrs. Isaac Rapp has been staying at the David Sanders home in Highland Park while Mr. and Mrs. Sanders are in New Orleans, La. They are expected home this week.

St. Paul's Ladies' Aid Society will hold a rummage sale on Friday and Saturday, May 3 and 4.

The Deerfield R.N.A. will hold a rummage sale on Friday and Saturday, May 17 and 18.

Miss Anna Krimbill of Chicago is visiting her niece, Miss Bertha Feese.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stearns, parents of Howard O. Stearns of 613 Central Avenue, are visiting their son en route from their winter home in Florida to their home in Fort Dodge, Iowa. They expect to spend several weeks here.

Frank Jacobs Sr., is very seriously ill. He returned home from the Highland Park Hospital the latter part of last week.

Wrecking of the Green Tree Inn on Waukegan Road in West Lake Forest, badly damaged by fire several months ago, is being done by Jens Petersen.

A paper bag luncheon is being planned by the Eastern Star Guild for May 7 at the home of Mrs. Raymond Dobbins. They will tie a comforter that afternoon.

Miss Edna Fritsch and Mrs. Harold Giss are hostesses this afternoon at a meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Bethlehem Church.

Miss Luella Plagge of Chicago spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Henry Plagge.

Mrs. Raymond Meyer filled the station of Warder at Friends Night on Friday at the Glenview O. E. S.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Immer who had been living in Dr. W. B. Metcalf's house on Greenwood Avenue moved to Park Ridge last week.

The Wagner cottage was vacated recently by Mr. and Mrs. Elgard Heins, who moved to Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Easton have rented their house on Chestnut Street and are moving to the apartment in the Walter Page home on Osterman Avenue. Mrs. Page is Mr. Easton's daughter.

Mrs. Zimmer of Highland Park has leased the Lange homestead on Elm Street.

S. E. Mak Van Waay has leased the Bailey house (Biederstadt homestead) at the corner of Waukegan Road and Central Avenue. The Mak Van Waay brothers are remodeling the house and will open an antique shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kightley (Ruth Drake) have moved from Highland Park to the former R. B. Patterson house on Osterman Avenue now owned by Mrs. Becker of Highland Park. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Black, also of Highland Park, are living with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Block of Highland Park have rented the lower apartment in the George Harder building on Chestnut Street.

The Ivan Peterson family from Chicago will occupy the upper apartment in the Fehr building on East Deerfield Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Herman and children are moving from the Fred Schwab house on Hazel Avenue to the Frank Jacobs, Sr. house on Elm Street on May 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Scott have leased the John Klemp house on Todd Court and are moving from Forest Avenue about May 1.

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Snider of Stratford Road, Woodland Park, left Friday to spend the summer in Massachusetts.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harris have moved into the house at the corner of Hazel and Woodward Avenues formerly occupied by the Barzowski family.

Easter parties with special programs and egg hunts were given the children of St. Paul's Church on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons. The members of the children's choir and the junior department held their party on Tuesday with Mrs. George Meyer and Mrs. F. G. Piepenbrok in charge. The beginners and primary departments held theirs on Wednesday with Mrs. Leonard North, Ruth Johnson, Ethel Ott and Shirley Blaine in charge of activities.

The Evangelical Daughters went to Bensenville last Wednesday afternoon and delivered forty-five Easter baskets filled with candy to the Home which they had made at their last meeting at the home of Mrs. Hubert Juhred.

Mrs. Alvin Meyer (Bess Schilstra) and son John Alvin of New Florence, Mo., returned home on Friday, accompanying Miss Hazel Miller, eighth grade teacher in the grade school, who went to Pittsfield, Mo. to spend her vacation with her mother. Mrs. Meyer, visited at the Delbert Meyer home and also with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Schilstra in Kilmourne, Wis.

Mrs. Fred Protine (Sue Easton) had been visiting at the Alvin Meyer farm near New Florence and Mrs. Meyer accompanied her to Elmhurst. The Fred Meyers, who had been staying at the home of their son, Alvin, have returned from a month's visit.

Mrs. Max Euler (Bessie Knickerbocker) and daughter Elizabeth Jane of Kitchener, Ontario, Canada, have been the guests of Mrs. Harry Norton (Eleanor Meyer) of Harvey, Ill. On Sunday Mrs. Euler and little daughter and Mrs. Norton were Sunday dimer guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Anderson. They were also guests at the Raymond Meyer home.

Neil Irving Anderson arrived home Friday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Anderson of Fair Oaks Avenue. Neil has worked as a computer for a crew of government surveyors in the Chequamegon National Forest.

Miss Virginia Anderson has been seriously ill for the past six weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peterson entertained eight guests at dinner and bridge on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Julius Miller and children of Chicago were Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Grandmason of County Line Road.

Ethan Willman of Whitefish Bay, Wis., spent several days of last week at the home of his mother, Mrs. J. C. Willman.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Huhn and two daughters spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ethan Willman in Whitefish Bay, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Page and two children, Bubbles and Frank, and E. J. Long were Sunday guests at the Carl Mehlert's home in Cicero.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sloat and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Haggie visited friends in Chicago on Sunday.

E. J. Long left Tuesday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. George Long in Keego Harbor, Mich.

Mrs. Fred Protine and son Jimmy of Elmhurst were luncheon guests of Mrs. Protine's sister, Mrs. Walter Page, on Thursday.

The Junior Department of the Presbyterian Church School enjoyed an Easter party Saturday afternoon at the church. The 84 eggs which they colored were taken to Laird House in Chicago on Sunday. Teachers of this group are Mrs. Edna Orsborn, Miss Louise Huhn and Miss Hazel Miller. Mr. C. E. Piper, accompanied by Miss Huhn and four of the children, Violet Hoffman, Jirah Cole, Bobby Piper and Norma Margaret Russell, were guests at Laird House on Sunday.

Mrs. C. T. Anderson was the guest of Mrs. Harry Norton in Harvey, Ill. on Wednesday.

James Ryan and Mrs. Charles Mau, who have been seriously ill at their respective homes, are now much improved in health.

Rev. F. A. Render of Ottawa will be the guest speaker at the Bethlehem Church on Sunday morning, April 28.

Miss Ethel Titus and Miss Irene Evenson were hostesses to members of the Teacher's Bridge Club last Monday evening at the Samuel Rockenbach home.

John Kaatz celebrated his birthday anniversary last Friday with a party at the kindergarten.

Charles Koch has given the school a fine collection of moths and beetles.

Dorcas Circle meetings for April are being planned. Circle Two will meet next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dwight Merrell; Circle Three with Mrs. Ambrose Montavon at the Hicks home on the last Friday of the month and Circle Four with Mrs. C. C. Pickett on the preceding day.

The boys of the Holy Cross parish will serve a cooker-hotcha dinner (Mulligan stew) on Monday evening, April 22, at the parish hall. The money realized will be put in the fund for their camping trip at Camp Jing-ga-Wa-Ka in Minocqua. Serving will begin at 5 p.m. and there will be an entertainment at 8 p.m.

A change has been made in the date of the Deerfield Woman's Club luncheon. It has been postponed from April 23 to May 14. Reservations may be made by telephoning Mrs. Robert E. Pettis.

Read The Want Ads

Quality Cleaners RELIABLE LAUNDRY AND DRY CLEANING CO. Phone R. P. 178

BLUM'S LAKE FOREST

273 DEERPATH AVENUE

One Suit To Wear 3 Ways

$39.75

Wear It As A Costume Wear It As A Dress Wear It As A Suit

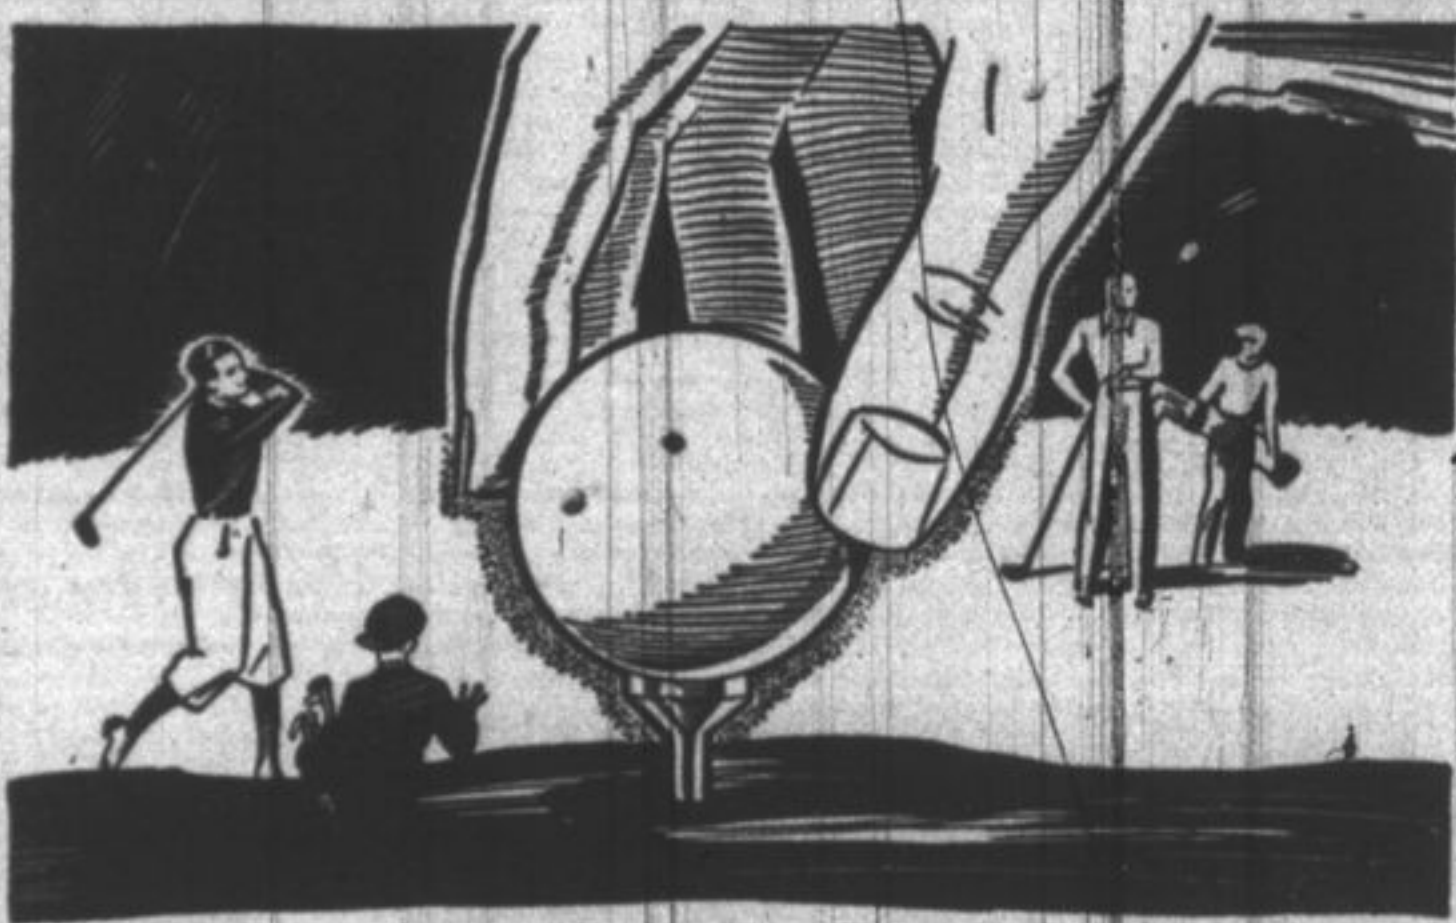

The Success of The Season

... this navy blue suit with long coat and suit and two-piece polka-dot silk dress, just one of our many new suits.

Gloves 3 Pair $3.00

Our regular $1.25 hand sewn fine fabric gloves, white, navy and chamois, 3 pairs for $3.00

Become acquainted with our extraordinary values—the courtesy of a charge account costs you no more.

its open!

THAT FRIENDLY SORT OF A PLACE

Golf course now maintained and conditioned by Frank Roeder, late of Olympia Fields. He knows what it takes to make a perfect course.

Dining room and bar now in charge of George Shambora of Chicago Athletic Assn. and French Casino. He knows steaks and cocktails.

Playing Professional Jock Dryburg of Edinburgh, Scotland. He knows golf. Women's golf in charge of Mrs. Dryburg.

Charlie Nash invites you to take advantage of a marvelous golf course and perfect club house facilities all for low daily fee rates.

VERNON COUNTRY CLUB 1 1/2 MILES WEST OF DEERFIELD

SILVER ANNIVERSARY 25 YEARS OF FASHION PRE-EMINENCE