

Announce Girls To Dance in "Jack and the Beanstalk"

The names of North Shore girls who will dance in "Jack and the Beanstalk," a dance pantomime to be given in the Ravinia Auditorium Friday afternoon and Saturday evening, May 17-18, are announced by Mildred Haessler as follows:

Mildred Haessler

Highland Park: Anna Schauf, Janet Hansen, Barbara Garst, Sara Jane Murfey, Barbara Franzen, Mona Johnson, Carroll Johnson, Diana Gabonargi, Juul Cabonargi, Phyllis Brown, Judy Rutherford, Shirley Hall, Dorothy Hall, Doris Ann Hansen, Shirley Markell, Babette Weil, Phyllis Kirby, Sally Wennberg, Geraldine Jones, and Master Robert Morley.

Ravinia—Patsy Foreman, Paula Raff, Betty Merfeld, Helen Sarett, Phyllis Copp, Barbara Feilchenfeld, Ellen Horn, Suzanne Greenberg, Margarte Gronlund, Luise Haessler, Braeside—Jeannette Bryant, Glencoe—Joan Heinrichs and Jean Allen.

Lake Forest—Mary Robinson and Willie Lee Casselberry. The program, the ninth annual dance exhibition by the pupils of Mildred Haessler, is built around the old English story of the adventurous Jack who climbed an amazing beanstalk, found himself in danger of being devoured by a blood-thirsty giant, but escaped and put an end to the giant's terrible career.

The Friday matinee in the Ravinia Auditorium May 17 will begin at 3:45 p.m. The Saturday evening performance is to begin at 8:30. The advance sale of tickets began this week.

Mother's Day at the Presbyterian Church

Parents are invited to visit the church school for the observance of Mother's Day. Children will fasten a flower basket tag to their mothers attending in any department. The juniors and young people will meet together in the parish house where there will be a program called "Singing Mothers," according to an announcement from the Highland Park Presbyterian Church. Ruth, Orpah and Naomi will dramatize the Scripture lesson. Mothers in costume will sing lullabies of different nations: Brahms' Lullaby in German by Mrs. George J. Hinn and Mrs. William C. Pohrte; Swedish Lullaby by Mrs. Frank Horn; Negro Lullaby by Mrs. Willard Carter; American Lullaby by Mrs. B. A. Hamilton.

Mrs. Emily Rebling Passes Away Tuesday

Mrs. Emily Yahnke Rebling, wife of the late Sebald T. Rebling, died Tuesday afternoon at the Highland Park Hospital, following a major operation. She had been ill only a short time and death was very unexpected. Mr. Rebling passed away just four years ago this month. Funeral services will be held on Friday afternoon at the late residence, 451 Oakwood avenue, at 2 o'clock. Interment will be in Rosehill cemetery.

Mrs. Rebling leaves to survive her three sisters, Mrs. Marie Richter and the Misses Elizabeth and Minnie Yahnke, all of this city.

Ravinia P.-T. A. Elects Officers for Season

Mrs. Lawrence Meyer was elected president of the Ravinia Parent-Teacher Association at the regular meeting of the Ravinia Parent-Teacher Association held in the Village House April 30.

In the absence of Mrs. Jones, president, Mrs. Karl Wagner, vice-president, conducted the meeting and read the president's annual report.

An unanimous ballot was cast for the new officers, who besides Mrs. Meyer, are: Mrs. George J. Kirk-gasser, vice-president; Miss Katherine Crawford, recording secretary; Mrs. H. W. Schimmelfeng, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. James M. Murphy, treasurer.

Mrs. Canmann, program chairman, presented the speakers of the evening, Dr. D. E. Rossiter, Dr. C. V. Nichols, Miss Cora Herdsee, and Mr. Milton Hardacre.

200 Attend Last Ravinia Club Dance

The last dinner dance of the season, given by the social committee of the Ravinia Woman's Club at the Village House, Saturday evening, May 4, was attended by more than 200 guests.

An excellent dinner was served, and the guests danced to the music of Cope Harvey's Orchestra with Bert Rammelt as leader.

Much credit is due the social committee under Mrs. Edward M. Knox, chairman, for the success of the dance. Members of the committee were: Mrs. Paul Burkholder, Mrs. Jess Halsted, Mrs. Mary Helms, Mrs. H. W. Herring, Mrs. Arthur Jerrems, Mrs. Edwin C. Jones, Mrs. Jos. E. Michels Jr., Mrs. Charles Perrigo, and Mrs. John Robinson.

Locally Prominent to Model at Bridge Tea

The party to be given at the Moraine on May 15 by the Rector's Guild of Trinity Episcopal Church bids fair to be one of the most enjoyable events on the calendar this spring in Highland Park.

There will be bridge during the afternoon followed by tea and a delightful display of summer apparel. Among those who will model are Mrs. Dougal Kittermaster, Mrs. Arthur Claghorne, Mrs. W. F. Bronstedt, Mrs. Christoph Keller and Mrs. Harold Wessel of the Rector's Guild; and Mrs. Harry A. Parkin, president of the Service League of Trinity Episcopal Church, also Miss Jean Smith, daughter of Mrs. Julian Smith, president of the Rector's Guild, and Miss Mary Wood, daughter of General and Mrs. R. E. Wood.

Mrs. Charles Perrigo, chairman of the party, and Mrs. George Brannen, in charge of tickets, tell us that about three hundred have already made reservations and that they are planning a very gay and interesting afternoon.

Tickets may be obtained from any member of the Rector's Guild.
