

N. U. Settlement To Give Benefit Bridge

The Highland Park board of the Northwestern University Settlement, announces a benefit bridge to be given in the main dining room of the Moraine hotel on Wednesday afternoon, May 22. Tea will be served, and the committee in charge of prizes is planning "something different" for every table.

Mrs. Charles Wright, chairman of the Highland Park board, is being assisted by the following committee chairmen: Mrs. Howell Murray, Mrs. Roswell Swazey, Mrs. Edmund Brigham, Mrs. W. T. Jones, Mrs. Kenneth Ives and Mrs. Robert Walker. Tickets may be secured from Mrs. Wright or Mrs. Ives.

The Northwestern University Settlement is more than forty years old, and in 1934 approximately 1000 persons a day made use of it. Its activities, consisting of health and vocational education, relief work, dramatic and social clubs and the solving of civic and personal problems, include men, women and children. It keeps young people off the streets, and is invaluable in preserving the morale of those (both young and old) who are verging on despair and revolt. As Miss Harriet Vittum remarked in a recent talk to the Highland Park board, "the Settlement's big job now is to remake people for citizenship."

Miss Vittum and her staff kept the Settlement open during the depression against terrific odds. It is hoped that their courage and fine constructive effort will move Highland Park friends of the Settlement to help a little at this time in carrying on this important work.

David Dushkin and Dorothy Smith Dushkin, directors of the School of Musical Arts and Crafts in Winnetka, will give a talk and performance on primitive instruments and what can be done with them. The fundamental principle of the Dushkin school is to train children to understand music by having them make a primitive instrument, feeling that each child has a capacity for one instrument or another. This program will be enjoyed by children as well as parents and the community is urged to come promptly at 4 o'clock and share the last of these delightfully informal, friendly and, at the same time, highly entertaining twilight gatherings.

BASEBALL SEASON TO OPEN SUNDAY

"Mike" Segert's Team to Represent Highland Park in Northwest Sports Assn.

Mike Segert's local ball team will represent Highland Park in the Northwest Sports association, an eight team league, now in its second season. The opening game will be played at home against Orchard place, a team with a small name, but reputedly, the strongest member of last year's race, won by Arlington Heights. Other teams in the organization are: Des Plaines, Park Ridge, Edison Park, the strong Evanston News-Index team, the Three C. Camp from Glenview, and Niles Center. All games will be umpired by a member of the Chicago Umpire association, whose fee for league games other than Highland Park, is $5. per game. The league, whose director is Mr. Al Lyons of Park Ridge, will pay the difference between $6, the fee asked for a trip to this city, and the regular price of each league contest. Manager Segert's ambition is to outdraw in attendance the Highwood town teams, and thinks that the citizens here will support an early league leader. Game will be called at 2:30 p.m.

Girl Scout News

The big event of the Girl Scout year—the second annual banquet for Scouts and their mothers and fathers—is scheduled for Saturday evening, May 25 at 6:30 at the Ravinia school auditorium. Such enthusiasm was voiced by the crowd of 200 who were entertained at the first banquet last year that arrangements are being made for a much larger attendance at this year's affair.

Plans for songs, stunts, and table decoration were discussed at meeting of the leaders' association held last week at the home of Mrs. Harry M. Pier. Each table will represent some important phase of Scouting.

The new council nominations have been announced by Mrs. C. A. Wright, chairman of the nominating committee, as follows: Mrs. B. K. Goodman, commissioner; Mrs. C. A. Wright, finance; Mrs. K. G. Ives, co-chairman of finance; Mrs. Kellogg Patterson, secretary; Mrs. W. R. Neisner, camp; Mrs. V. E. Musser, badges and awards; Mrs. A. E. Merser, training and personnel; Mrs. A. L. Arceberg, publicity; and members at large: Mrs. Earl W. Jones, Mrs. Raymond Jones, Mrs. Paul Dale Williams, Mrs. R. O. Nereim, and Mrs. R. E. White.

An error was made by the publicity chairman in reporting that the Girl Scout camp, Mrs. Walter Neisner, camp chairman, will be at her home at 24 Central avenue, where she will receive camp registrations and discuss camp on Monday afternoons after four, not every afternoon as stated.

A notable gathering of women is expected to attend the 11th annual Girl Scout conference of the Great Lakes region, at the Palmer House in Chicago, May 10-11. This region includes Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin. Highland Park troop leaders and council members are planning to be present both days.

The steadily increasing Girl Scout membership in this region indicates that the conference this year will be the largest gathering ever held in the Great Lakes region. Among the 1,000 delegates it is expected will attend the two-day conference program are: Mrs. Herbert Hoover, honorary vice-president of the Girl Scouts; Mrs. William M. Chester, of Milwaukee, training and health advisor on the national staff; Dr. Lillian M. Gilbreth, consulting engineer of Montclair, N.J.; and Mrs. R. S. Bishop, of Flint, Mich., members of the national board of directors. They are all scheduled to speak at one of the general sessions or lead in the group discussions which have been planned for the conference.

Presentation of the new Girl Scout Marine program, by Mrs. Chester, "Skipper" of the Great Lakes region, and Olive McCormick, of New York City, waterfront safety and health advisor on the national staff, will be one of the highlights of the conference. Girl Scout Marines from Milwaukee and Chicago will participate in the demonstration of this program.

Other members of the national staff who will assist the regional committee are Alice Conway, community organizer; Hazel Osborne, Margaret Murray and Ethel Mochler, of New York City; Mrs. Katie Lee Johnson, Girl Scout director in the Great Lakes region; Alice Mulkey and Patricia Alsop, who are associated with Mrs. Johnson at the Chicago headquarters.

Mrs. Clarence M. Day, of Jackson, Mich., chairman of the regional committee, will preside at the opening session in the grand

Sky Harbor Airport Is Center of Local Flying Activities

Sky Harbor Airport, local flying center, promises much activity for the coming season. Hamilton Kunath of Highland Park is taking over its operation. Kunath has been flying for a long time and "knows what it is all about" we are told. A part of the airport activity is to be given over to the manufacture and flying of glider planes. This activity will be sponsored by the Chicago Gliding and Soaring club.
