

Deerfield Local and Personal

Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok of the St. Paul's Church officiated at two recent weddings. On May 4 Joseph Slater and Miss Martha Elsie Nadel, both of Chicago, were united in marriage at St. Paul's Church with Adelia M. Folsom and Herman C. Nadel as their attendants.

Miss Beatrice Berendt of Highland Park and Carl Nielsen of Mundelein were married by Rev. Piepenbrok on May 18 at St. Paul's parsonage. Their attendants were Miss Edna DeVore and Charles A. Retzinger.

The Hyett family moved from Chicago to the house on Warrington Road recently vacated by the Nashes who moved to Highland Park. Robert Hyett entered the fifth grade in the local school last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Milford Wandless and two children of Gary, Ind., spent Sunday with Mrs. C. S. Fehr at the Isaac Rapp home. Mrs. Wandless is Mrs. Fehr's granddaughter.

The Deerfield Unit American Legion Auxiliary has postponed its meeting from May 20 to the following Friday evening (May 24) at the home of Miss Louise Huhn.

Mrs. E. D. Blehmel spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Martin Murphy in Highland Park.

Mrs. A. R. Hedges (Ruth Patterson) entertained Quid Nunc Club on Tuesday evening at her home in Edison Park.

Thomas Simpson of Detroit, Mich., was the Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Van de Velden of Oesterman Avenue.

Mrs. Harriet Johnston of Lockport and Mrs. Kenneth Holloway and daughter, Shirley Ann, of Joliet are visiting at the William Johnston and Conrad Uehntman homes.

A number of Deerfield people attended a party Saturday evening given by Mrs. W. G. Churchill of Morton Grove.

Mrs. C. T. Anderson is substituting in the Green Bay Road School, Highland Park, this week, for Miss Lulu Behrens, who was called to Huntingburg, Ind., because of the serious illness of her sister, Miss Anna Behrens.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Jacobson and three daughters spent the week-end with relatives in Nauvoo, Illinois.

Misses Viola and Irene Rockenbach and their father, George Rockenbach, were Sunday dinner guests at the William Brandenburg home in Chicago.

Arthur J. Ender and his sister, Clara Ender, who drove down to Moline, Ill., have returned from a several days' visit at the home of their niece, Mrs. A. L. Dondanville.

Mrs. F. H. Mayer and Mrs. W. F. Weir attended a woman's auxiliary luncheon at the Presbyterian College in Chicago on Monday.

Orval Fredricks is home from his duties at the Commonwealth Edison Company for a two weeks' vacation.

Miss Frieda Freiman had as her week-end guest, Miss Lydia Kleine, of Chicago. Miss Freiman was hostess at a party on Saturday evening at her home on Central Avenue.

Mrs. Arnold Keller was a guest at a party of the Daughters of the British Empire at the Stevens Hotel on Saturday in Chicago.

Mrs. Eugene Cooksey will entertain Dorcas Circle Four of the Presbyterian Church at tea on Friday at 2 p.m. in her home on Oesterman Avenue.

Mrs. Arthur Pagel had as her week-end guests, her brother Mr. Shult and her sister, Miss Ester Shult, of Sumner, Iowa.

Miss Charlotte Brand will entertain the Just Sew Club on Tuesday afternoon, June 4.

The Lake County Firemen's meeting will be held at Lake Villa on Monday evening, May 27. Volunteer Deerfield firefighters plan to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Repenning, and son Jack of Keego Harbor, Mich., are staying at the E. J. Long home on Greenwood Avenue.

The Tri C Society will have a supper and outing at Forest Preserve Dam Two on Monday at 6:30 p.m. The youngsters are hoping that the summer weather will have arrived by May 27.

Mr. and Mrs. John Strong entertained relatives from Chicago over the week-end.

Thomas Edward Stark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stark of Chicago, who was born Feb. 9, 1935, was baptized Sunday afternoon by Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Zander in West Lake Forest. Sponsors for the baby were Edward Zander and Mrs. Ewald Stilke.

Rev. Earl J. Brusio delivered the commencement address at the Tripp School on Tuesday evening and will give the address at the Wilmot School commencement exercises on Friday evening, May 24. County Superintendent W. C. Petty is ill and will be unable to attend.

The Deerfield Woman's Club will have a refreshment stand on the high school grounds the day of the pageant, June 29, and the proceeds will be put in the building fund of the field house. Mrs. E. H. Selig, Mrs. Eugene Becker and Mrs. Harry Muhleke are members of the committee to arrange the sale.

Mrs. Burr Hindahl, newly elected president of the Deerfield Woman's Club, entertained her officers on Monday Afternoon. The committee chairmen for the year's work were discussed.

Miss Ethel Titus is living at the home of Mrs. Emma Tripp in Libertyville for the remainder of the school year.

Mrs. Isaac Rapp and her group of cradle roll children, "Little Heralds" will be guests at the Woman's Missionary Society of the Bethlehem Church at a party on Tuesday afternoon, June 4.

Mrs. Chester Wessling is filling the station of Martha at the Waukegan Chapter, O.E.S., this evening and that of secretary at Des Plaines Chapter on Monday evening, at the advance officers' night.

The Woman's Auxiliary of Bethlehem Church is meeting this afternoon. Miss Edna Fritsch and Mrs. Rebecca Merner will act as hostesses.

The Principals' Club, composed of the heads of the various district grade schools met for their monthly dinner meeting last Wednesday evening at Brier Hill Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Schneider of Chicago visited at the Ryan and Ender homes on Monday.

Dr. W. F. Weir will conduct a conference on church administration in Vincennes, Ind., on May 28 (today) for the Vincennes Presbytery.

Mrs. Willard Soukup and daughter of Freeport have come up this week because of the death of Mrs. Soukup's sister, Mrs. Leslie Haggie.

Mrs. Fred LaBahn spent Wednesday at the George LaBahn home in Evanston.

The Friedman family moved to Brier Hill last week in the house recently vacated by the Morgans.

Miss Florence Charolan, accompanied by her brother, William, of Harrisburg, Ill., visited their sister, Mrs. Molly C. Pfister on Saturday.

Ewald Winter of Chicago spent Sunday with his father, August Winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton A. Frantz, Miss Laura Wessling and Miss Bertha Freese visited Miss Sarah Schneider on Sunday in the Old People's Home in New Carlisle, Ind. Miss Schneider has been there for the past eleven years.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Selig and daughter Virginia of Highwood spent Sunday at the Peter J. Juhrend home.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Hammer of Chicago spent Sunday at the home of their son Clifford Hammer.

Mrs. V. William Bridle and baby son are expected home this week from the Highland Park Hospital. Their other little son, John William, is staying at the C. V. Steiner home.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Hutchison left Saturday for a two weeks' motor trip. They will visit Mr. Hutchison's sister, Mrs. R. E. L. Holmes and family in Clarksville, Mo., and his brother, William Hutchison and family in Ozark, Mo.

Carl E. Bates, local Rotarian, has been appointed a member of the credentialed committee for the district conference at Elgin on May 22 and 23.

Deerfield was well represented at the Dyche Stadium on Sunday when the Boy Scouts of the North Shore Area presented a program.

Mrs. Friedel Fuller is entertaining Dinner Club members and their husbands this evening at her home in Bannockburn.

Janet Marie Kress, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kress, was christened Sunday by Rev. J. F. Savage in the Holy Cross Church. Sponsors were Betty Clavey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Clavey (Marie Kress) and Kress Willman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Willman (Loretta Kress).

Mrs. Harold Sabin (Pearl Juhrend) has returned to her home in Elmhurst, following an appendectomy at St. Joseph's Hospital in Elgin. Her cousin, Mrs. William Fields (Martha Hagl) is now at her home in Libertyville following a major operation at the Lake County Hospital.

C. C. Kapschull is leaving shortly for a three weeks trip in Nevada.

Mrs. H. C. Youngs and her mother, Mrs. Grace Cotrell of Highland Park with Mrs. Irving Brand and Mrs. Alex Willman, spent Thursday in Milwaukee.

Mrs. Minnie Gumme and son, Mr. William Gumme, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Guritz and three daughters, and Mr. and Mrs. William Guritz and daughter, all from Evanston, were Sunday guests at the Fred LaBahn home.

Rev. and Mrs. F. G. Piepenbrok spent last week at Hayward, Wis. Mrs. Clarence Anderson will be hostess to members of the Chatter 'N' Sew Club on Wednesday evening at her home on Hazel Avenue.

George S. Dwyer, a conductor on the Milwaukee railroad for many years, died Wednesday at a Chicago sanitarium following a three year illness. Services were held Saturday in Chicago with interment in Rosehill. Mr. and Mrs. Dwyer are former residents of this village.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nusbaum and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Murl Bair of Oak Park were Sunday guests at the Emil Fredricks home. Fred Tappenbeck and his father G. Tappenbeck of Chicago and his grandson Robert Derickson of Forest Glen visited at the Fredricks home on Saturday.

Eleven members of the Deerfield Camp, Royal Neighbors, attended a stunt night program at Lake Forest last Tuesday evening. Principal parts in a school room skit were taken by Mrs. Walter Page and Mrs. Emil Fredricks, as the boy and the teacher. Highland Park's camp also participated in the program.

Miss Irene Rockenbach attended a district institute directed by the Lake County Council of Religious Education at the Fox Lake Community Church on Monday evening. Miss Genevieve Card entertained the Deerfield teachers at bridge Wednesday evening at the Eugene Becker home.

The Independent Social Club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Louis Ott.

Reverend Earl J. Brusio awarded leadership training certificates on Sunday evening to Mrs. John Vetter, Mrs. E. J. Brusio, Mrs. Arthur Lee, Myrtle Lee, Elmer Rasmussen, Anna Marie Herrmann and Olive Frantz. Miss Frantz received special honors for four credits and was given a special certificate.

The grade school papers contained the following about the school children's participation in the centennial: "The eighth grade is beginning the study of 'The History of Deerfield.' The Centennial committee on publicity has asked us to write stories about early Deerfield. The best of these will be printed in the local papers. We are co-operating with them and working on our stories. The finance committee has also asked that each school child donate something towards the expense of the centennial." The sixth grade is also studying the history of Deerfield. We find many interesting things we did not know about our village. We are anxious to learn more. The coming pageant promises to be of much interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Thomas (Louise Kersten) of Evanston visited at the Fred Haggie home Monday evening. Mrs. C. G. Pettis spent Wednesday with her niece, Mrs. Wednesday, Thomas, in Evanston.

The annual meeting of the Deerfield Cemetery Association will be held Friday afternoon, May 24, in the town hall at 4 o'clock for the purpose of receiving reports of the secretary and treasurer and transaction of new business.

The association is appealing for contributions for the upkeep of the Officers are: President, Theodore J. Knaak; secretary, John L. Vetter; treasurer, Charles A. Selig; trustees: Bert Easton, Herman Ludwig and Mrs. Edith Osterman.

Children to Write of Deerfield Centennial

Children in the three grade schools of West Deerfield Township (Bannockburn, Wilmot and Deerfield) have been asked by the publicity committee of the Deerfield Centennial Comemoration to write historical themes, the best of which will be published in local newspapers.

Suggestions for topics were:

A pioneer who has contributed to the growth or advancement of Deerfield. A brief history of West Deerfield Township; A brief history of one of the three schools; A pioneer ancestor; Growth of the business district or churches.

One Drop of Blood! How it solved the most diabolical crime in the History of India. Read about it in The American Weekly, the Magazine Distributed with NEXT SUNDAY'S CHICAGO HERALD AND EXAMINER.

Read The Want Ads

NORTH SHORES MOST BEAUTIFUL THEATRE DEERPETH LAKE FOREST

Thursday and Friday Evenings and Saturday Matinee UNTAMED ROMANCE IN THE HIGH SIERRAS! "SEQUOIA" with JEAN PARKER, RUSSELL HARDIE

Sunday-Monday May 26-27 Joan Blondell - Glenda Farrell in the fun frolic "TRAVELING SALESLADY" with William Cagney, Hugh Herbert, Ruth Dussally

Wednesday-Thursday-Friday BING CROSBY - W. C. FIELDS - JOAN BENNETT "MISSISSIPPI" COMEDY NEWS "HAIL AMERICA"

ofing... AGAINST... special... vae and... hout in... after our... subject... says wise... cleaning... L. COST... NG ORDER... ers... ersity 1632... nd Park, Illinois... n Ave., Evanston... terprise 1775... ent... AY... IC... TIC

Dietz's Stables IVANHOE - Routes 59A and 176 Now Featuring BAVARIAN ENTERTAINERS 'Of World's Fair Fame - Featuring Their Well Known Singing - Yodeling and Dancing Acts IN RATHSKELLER EVERY WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY, FRIDAY, SATURDAY AND SUNDAY NIGHTS ALSO CHICKEN AND STEAK DINNERS, 75c Modern and old time dances every Saturday night with Zirk's 7-Piece Orchestra.

Dahl's Auto Reconstruction Co. Auto Repainting Cold Frame and Axle Straightening Body and Fender Repairing SPRING SERVICE STATION WELDING AND SOLDERING 322 N. First St. Phone 77

Now on display in our Showrooms The New FORD V-8 Convertible Sedan seat providing ample space for stowing luggage when you are touring... You have your choice of genuine leather or Bedford Cord seat cushions... Equipment is deluxe throughout including twin horns, twin tail-lights, ash trays in both front and rear compartments and a robe rail... In body colors you have (at no extra cost) a wide variety to choose from. And each body color can be set off by wheels of a contrasting color, if you wish. See this new Ford V-8 Convertible Sedan today. Nothing so smart exists at anywhere near its price. AUTHORIZED FORD DEALERS EVERY FORD CAR BUILT HAS THE SAME FORD V-TYPE, 8 CYLINDER ENGINE