WHEN?

America will attain greater prosperity than ever before. More individuals and families than ever before will share in this prosperity.

More families than ever before will own their own homes. Our current total of 21,500,000 automobiles will be more than doubled.

Such little-used conveniences and comforts as air-conditioning equipment, sun lamps, and television receivers will be commonplace in the home.

Much better provision will be made for caring for those thrown temporarily out of employment.

In short, a better day will dawn—certainly! That isn't the opinion of a professional optimist of the "prosperity-is-just-around-the-corner" school. It is the opinion of B. C. Forbes, the realistic financial analyst, who expresses it in a recent issue of Cosmopolitan magazine.

The natural question to ask, then, is WHEN are all of these blessings going to come to us? And that, in Mr. Forbes' belief, is largely dependent on the activities of government. He is confident that the pent-up natural forces of recovery are rarin' to go—and that only man-made obstacles are standing in their way. Fears of inflation, stifling taxes, government competition with private business, industrial regimentation, bureaucratic regulation of our great businesses—these are the friends of depression, and the enemies of recovery. What is needed, in Mr. Forbes' words, is "a sensible get-together between government and governed; a pact to work in harmony rather than at cross purposes."

A tremendous responsibility weighs upon our political leaders to bring that about. The American people are in no mood to let politics continue to interfere with the course of recovery.

NEW YORK STARS TO BE ON NORTH SHORE

Ben Guy Phillips, impresario and director of note, will present six nationally-known stars, supported by a cast of excellent professionals in four productions at the Glencoe Central School auditorium opening the evening of June 23, under the sponsorship of the Rector's Guild of Trinity Church.

Mr. Phillips is well known in this field of work. He is a distinguished English actor, director and lecturer, with past successes in London and New York, and in bridge, Mass., indicative of his ability. His most recent productions in Chicago were the two great pageants at Soldiers Field, "Judas Iscariot," and "Brutus, Little Children."

He comes well equipped to handle this venture which is drawing the attention of the dramatic critics and watching with keen interest the development of this new idea in this vicinity.

Mr. Phillips has succeeded in acquiring six of the most prominent stars of the New York stage to appear in these four plays: Edith Barrett, of "Mrs. Moonlight" fame; Bessie Meredyth, who appeared with Katherine Curran in "The Barretts of Wimpole Street"; Frances Starr, a Belasco choice for Royce Landis, who co-starred with Dennis King in "Peter Petta"; Eric Dressler, fame; and Ernest Glendenning, who is said to be one of the most versatile young actors during the summer. Each of these stars will be supported by an entirely professional cast worthy of his ability.

Four outstanding dramatic productions have been chosen for the season, each to run twelve successive nights:

"Noah," opening Monday, June 24, by Andre Obey, comes here from a successful run on Broadway.

"Man With a Load of Mischief," by Ashley Dukes, opening July 12.

"The Crime at Blossoms," by MacLennan Shairp, opening Wednesday, July 31.

A revival of "Mary Rose" by James M. Barrie, opening Monday, August 13.

These four plays are offered on a subscription basis for one-third of the regular price. In addition to these plays, on Saturday mornings Mr. Phillips is offering the Sue Hastings Marionettes, famous in connection with the Theatre Guild of New York, in four complete programs and reviews. Tickets for these may also be procured on a subscription basis.

The Rector's Guild of the Trinity Episcopal Church, recognizing the great interest developing on the North Shore in Mr. Phillips' project, is sponsoring the sale of subscriptions to the general public. Reservations will be given precedence in the order in which they are received. Reserved-seats may be had by applying now to Mrs. William L. Winters, H. P. 2760.
