Local and Personal

At 4 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, June 8, before the flower bedecked altar of the First United Evangelical church, Irene Daggitt, daughter of Mrs. Ida Daggitt of Sister Lakes, Michigan, formerly of Highland Park became the bride of Rev. Ralph G. Bealer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison K. Bealer of Bethlehem, Pa. The bride, carrying a bouquet of white roses, lilies of the valley, and sweet peas, looked lovely in a gown of white satin, and veil and train of tulle, fashioned after the one worn by Princess Marina. Beatrice Schaff, the maid of honor, wore a blue embroidered net dress and carried pink tea roses. The bride was given in marriage by her oldest brother, Nestor Daggitt. Earl Daggitt, another brother of the bride, attended the groom as best man, and the ushers were Messrs. Henry Maechtle and Walter Fidler. Before the ceremony, which was read by Rev. Frank Brandfeller, Miss Thelma Anthony of Waukegan sang two very appropriate numbers, "I Love You Truly" and "Because." Raymond Fidler was the organist. A reception and dinner was held for the wedding party and members of the family at the Georgian hotel in Evanston. After a short honeymoon, Reverend and Mrs. Bealer will reside at 5 South Jackson street, Pottsville, Pa., where Reverend Bealer is pastor of the Christ United Evangelical church. Mrs. Bealer attended Wheaton academy and college, and Reverend Bealer is a graduate of Moravian college.
