W.C.B.D. Radio Programs

WCBD, Lake county radio station located near Waukegan, utilizes its 500 watt transmitter only from sunrise to sundown. It is one of the few radio stations equipped only with a portable mobile transmitter, mounted in a motor car which is ready to go to the scene of news events.

The Ozark Mountaineers (Hill Billy Band), the Three Sub-Debs, Doc Sunshine, WCBD Minstrels, and others under the direction "Doctor" Joe Rudolph, one of the "three doctors," are some of the better known features to be heard, over WCBD.

Since these programs are not published regularly in any easily available local newspaper, residents of Lake county have been for the most part unaware of some of the attractions offered, the Highland Park Press, hoping that it might fulfill some need, has decided to publish regularly the weekly programs of WCBD. The program for the week, as announced by the station manager, Ken Hoffman, follows:

water Beach hotel and a record crowd of over 5,500 Chicagoans on the exotic outdoor Beach Walk last Saturday night.

Two huge searchlights, typical of Hollywood's gala "first nights," greeted the town's smart set at the hotel's entrance and as darkness descended on the lakeside dancing rendezvous movie klieg lights helped out the moonlight while newsreel photogs ground out pictures of the orchestra and fashionably attired crowd in action.

As to Fio-Rito's present musical organization and superb group and individual vocalists, one can only echo the praises of West Coast newspaper critics, "Hollywood's favorite maestro," "the smoothest music on any air wave" and other flattering phrases too numerous to mention—and sincerely state that it's a greater thrill to see and hear them in person than over radio or in movies. In the latter two fields they seem to have reached, as a dance band, the ever disputable top, being on a coast to coast radio commercial at present and having just finished several pictures about to be released, the last one being with Dick Powell in "Broadway Gondolier," coming to Chicago soon.
