Modern Juveniles

The awarding of the John Newbery Medal in June to Monica Shannon for "Dobry" as "the most distinguished contribution of the year to the literature for American children," raises the question of other good modern juvenile stories.

Following is a list of the awards since 1921, when the medal was first presented. All are outstanding children's books.

1921—"The Story of Mankind" by Hendrik Van Loon.

1922—"The Voyages of Dr. Dolittle" by Hugh Lofting.

1923—"The Dark Frigate" by Charles Boardman Hawes.

1924—"Tales from Silver Lands" by Charles J. Finger.

1925—"Shen of the Sea" by Arthur Bowie Chrisman.

1926—"Smoky: the Sowhorse" by Will James.

1927—"Gay-Neck" by Dhan Gopal Mukerji.

1928—"Trumpeter of Krawow" by Eric P. Kelly.

1929—"Hitty, Her First Hundred Years" by Rachel Field.

1930—"The Cat Who Went To Heaven" by Elizabeth Coatsworth.

1931—"Waterless Mountain" by Mrs. Laura Adams Armer.

1932—"Young Fu" by Elizabeth Foreman Lewis Winston.

1933—"Invincible Louisa" by C. L. Meigs.

1934—"Dobry" by Monica Shannon. Of Timely Interest

Ten outstanding magazine articles for July are:

"Unless China Submits—?" by Nathaniel Peffer in Asia.

"The War to Start War" by Nathaniel Peffer in The American Mercury.

"Where Is Young Germany Heading?" by Vyvyan Adams and Jochen Benemann in Forum and Century.

"Dust Blowing" by Avis D. Carlson in Harpers Magazine.

"The Law Honesty of TVA" by Herbert Corey in Nation's Business.

"An Experiment in Labor Democracy" by George E. Sokolosky in The Atlantic Monthly.

"NRA: A Trial Balance" by M. D. Vincent and Beniah Amidon in Survey Graphic.

"Decentralize Industry" by David Cushman Coyle in The Virginia Quarterly Review.

"Fool Voyage" by Alan Villiers in Scribner's Magazine.

"The Business of Montetary Control" by Guy Greer in Harpers Magazine.

What Is Yours?

There are probably few people who at some time have not said "I have always meant to read..." In "Books" a list of interesting people is given with the books they have always meant to read.

Of twelve people each naming three books, four have chosen Don Quixote as one of their good intentions; Gibbon's Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire is named four times; Daughtry's Arabia Deserta has two hoping to read it some day.

I Have Meant To Read:

Imgoldby Legends.

Pickwick Papers.

Anatomy of Melancholy

Pilgrim's Progress.

Origin of Species.

Wealth of Nations.

Church News

First Church of Christ, Scientist

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Highland Park, Illinois, 381 Hazel Avenue, is a branch of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The Sunday morning service is held at 11 o'clock, and the Wednesday evening meeting, which includes testimonies of Christian Science healing, is at 8 o'clock.

Sunday school is open to pupils up to the age of twenty years, and is held Sunday morning at 9:30.

Subject for next Sunday's lesson sermon, "Truth."

A free public reading room is maintained by this church at 43 N. Sheridan Road, which is open daily from 9 o'clock in the morning to 6 in the evening.

On Sunday the reading room is open from 2:30 to 5:30. Here the Bible and all authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed, or purchased.

All are cordially invited to attend the services and make use of the reading room.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Life" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 21.

The Golden Text was, "How excellent is thy lovingkindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings..." and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures. (Psalms 36:7-9)

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "In the way of righteousness is life; and in the pathway thereof there is no death" (Proverbs 12:28).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Mortals claim that death is inevitable; but man's eternal Principle is ever-present Life" (p. 312).

V. W. Bridle's Dog Found Not Guilty

Judge Henry Hansen of Highland Park rendered a decision "not guilty" in the dog case Saturday. Suit was brought by the People of Deerfield against V. William Bridle, attorney of Rosemary Terrace. The trial was set for July 13, and a change of venue was granted Mr. Bridle. Po-agreed to the change and as the next nearest justice was Peter J. Duffy, suggested that name, but for personal reasons Mr. Bridle wished a trial outside of Deerfield.

After hearing the case July 13, Judge Hansen asked for a week's time before rendering his decision and on Saturday, July 20, announced the defendant not guilty of owning a dog that was a public nuisance.

Charles White, attorney from George McGaughey's office, was the lawyer for the Deerfield people, and Mr. Bridle acted as his own lawyer.
