Legion Inaugurates Sending Boy Scout To Summer Camp

As part of its program of Americanism the Dumaress Spencer Post of the American Legion in Highland Park has inaugurated a movement among civic and fraternal organizations...

This year William Smith of 380 Central Avenue, was the fortunate scout to be selected for a two weeks' stay with all expenses paid.

In sponsoring this movement the post not only wishes to pay tribute to the Boy Scouts of America and the wonderful work it is doing to combat radicalism and mold American youth in patriotic endeavor...

"To invest in American youth of today," says Mr. Alston, "is to safeguard the future as they will govern America's destinies as the citizens of tomorrow."

Commander James Thompson expresses the sincere wish that the Legion post may be joined by other organizations in this cause, not only that it may serve as a reward to worthy scouts but as perhaps a means of helping those who could not otherwise afford to go to camp and thus derive the enjoyment and training its facilities afford.
