

Local and Personal of Highland Park

Mr. and Mrs. William Guyot are spending a week at Rhineland, Wis., with the George Brands, former Highland Park residents. Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Bernice Jaeger, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Jaeger of Chicago, and Harold Evans of this city, which took place Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Park View Lutheran Church. A reception was held at the Lions Club in Chicago after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Evans will reside in Chicago.

The marriage of Miss Marjorie Mae Spiegel, daughter of Mrs. Arthur H. Spiegel, and Richard W. Dammann will take place Thursday, Aug. 22, in the gardens of her mother's estate. The ceremony will be read at 6 o'clock in the evening and will be followed by a supper party at home. Miss Spiegel has just returned from Bedford Hill, N. Y., where she has been visiting her fiancé's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Dammann.

Miss Margaret Gerken was married to Chester Meir of Northbrook Saturday evening at 8:15 o'clock at the Bethany Church parsonage. The Rev. H. F. Siemsen read the ceremony. The bride was attended by Miss Pauline Lustilla as maid of honor and Robert Meir served his cousin as best man. The bride wore a dark blue print dress with hat and accessories to match, and a corsage of gardenias. Miss Lustilla was attired in a frock of red and white with a white hat and a corsage of gardenias. Mr. and Mrs. Meir will reside on North St. Johns Avenue. Both young people have been employed by the Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company here, for a number of years.

Mrs. T. H. Decker and daughter, Betty, Mrs. F. C. Noerenberg, and daughter Mary, and Mrs. William Denzel spent Tuesday in Gary, Ind., visiting Mrs. B. A. Smith, and helping her celebrate her 93rd birthday anniversary. Mrs. Smith was the recipient of a number of telegrams and letters honoring the occasion.

A very lovely military wedding took place last Wednesday evening at the Fort Sheridan Chapel when Miss Maybelle Swain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Swain of Cincinnati, Ohio, became the bride of Lieut. William C. Benton, of Cincinnati. The service was read at 8:30 o'clock. The bride, who was given in marriage by Major Frank Miller, wore a gown of pink embroidered organdy, made with a pleated cape and trimmed with a blue sash. She wore a small turban of the same material and blue slippers. Her corsage was of red and white roses. She was attended by Mrs. Lee Davis, also of Cincinnati, who wore a peach colored cotton lace jacket frock and a corsage of red roses and daisies. Capt. Perry Lewis was best man for the groom and the ushers were Lt. Edwin C. Gorsuch, Lt. Edward Anderson, Lt. Cyril J. C. Schmidt, and Lt. Alfred J. Murphy, all reserve officers of the University of Cincinnati, from where both the groom and attendants were graduates. A reception was held at the Officers' Club. The bridal couple took an apartment at the Highlands and left there Saturday noon after the groom had finished his two weeks' training at Fort Sheridan, where he was a reserve officer.

The marriage of Miss Martha Jensen, daughter of Mr. Jens Jensen, to Arthur Moline of Chicago took place Saturday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock in the beautiful garden of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall L. Johnson on Dean Avenue. The Rev. L. W. Sherwin of the Highland Park Presbyterian Church read the ceremony. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Johnson, as matron of honor and the best man was Ray Moline, the groom's brother. Mr. and Mrs. Moline will make their home at 1211 Elmwood Avenue, Wilmette.

Good Scores Turned in in Local Golf Tourney

If scores turned in last Friday in the Highland Playground Golf Tournament are any indication as to the future golf stars of this country, Highland Park will be well represented. Eight players from each of the four playgrounds reported at Sunset Valley last Friday morning, none of the participants being over 15 years of age.

Port Clinton won the team championship, followed by Sunset, Lincoln, and Ravinia. Julio Campagni from the Port Clinton playground, won the individual championship
