HARBOR IS SEEN AS PRACTICAL PROJECT

Funds Are Available for Such Purposes; Much Interest Shown Locally

Under the present Federal Administration, several billions of dollars have recently been appropriated for an extensive program of public improvements, primarily for the purpose of furnishing employment to many of those formerly on the relief rolls. Money is being spent throughout the country in a vast number of worthwhile building projects.

Most citizens of Highland Park would like to see some of this money doled out to the very front yard of the city. What more appropriate enterprise could there be but the immediate construction of a yacht harbor in this city?

From her very earliest days, Highland Park has been strikingly associated with Lake Michigan. The rapid growth of this city in its early days was directly influenced by the cargo schooners calling daily at her piers. Later, the Goodrich steamers made this a port of call, adding their powerful influence to the development of our city.

In more recent times, the north shore has quietly watched the amazing growth of the sport of yachting at the southern end of Lake Michigan. Chicago harbors, planned to optimistic capacities, have in this last year or so, reached the extreme limit of their facilities. The world-famous Mackinac race drew more entries this year than at any other time in its long history. At a recent regatta sponsored by a Chicago newspaper, spectators were amazed and thrilled at the undreamed of number of sail and power yachts filling Chicago harbor.

An outlet to take care of this tremendous development has naturally been sought after. In the past few years, far-sighted yachtsmen have pointed to Highland Park as the natural spot for a new harbor. Geographically, it is almost mid-way between the already overcrowded harbor at Wilmette and the restricted government harbor at Great Lakes. As a factor of protection (Continued on Page 8)

L. F. High School Gets Mimeograph Equipment

Mr. Albert B. Dick, Jr., former mayor of Lake Forest and who has resided in Lake Forest for nearly forty years, has made a gift of a complete installation of the most modern mimeograph equipment to the new Lake Forest high school. It is ample to handle the duplicating needs of the school and to permit a thorough course in instruction in the mimeograph process for students in the commercial classes. This is an invaluable gift from this public-spirited citizen and has been gratefully accepted by the Board of Education of the high school.

Turn Your Clock Back One Hour Saturday Night

Highland Parkers, as well as residents of other Chicago suburban towns will get back the hour of sleep they lost last spring next Sunday morning. That is, they will if they remember to turn their clocks back one hour before retiring Saturday night.

The official hour for setting the clocks back is 2 a.m. Sunday morning, September 29, so if you're a stickler for observing rules, you'll have to sit up until 2 o'clock in order to comply with the regulations.

Villa Moderne Adds Swank with New Bar—Draws Great Crowds

Manager Frank Hutchins of the Villa Moderne made a distinct ten-strike with the society folks of the North Shore towns, and Chicago last Saturday night, when he formally opened the new bar in what he has so aptly called the "North Shore's smartest cafe-restaurant." Tremendous crowds who gathered for the event were the best evidence of the popularity of the institution. They came from all parts of the Chicago territory, and, as Manager Hutchins puts it, "We were soon crowded to capacity."

The Villa Moderne is unique among cafe-restaurants, both for its decorative and restful effect upon its patrons, and what is even more important, the exceptional cuisine. A splendid orchestra and an excellent dance floor are added attractions. These together with the natural beauty of the surroundings, have accounted for the splendid success already achieved.

Watson Lecture Series to Start Next Sunday

Dudley Crafts Watson returns from his European tour filled with enthusiasm, and promises to his audience a season packed to the limit with wonderful information about the arts in Europe. During his tour he was able to remain longer in each locality and thus absorbed more of the atmosphere of a particular section. He visited many art centers, studied many galleries, saw several important exhibitions—and returns to tell about them. He will inaugurate a series of lectures on Sunday, September 22, to continue throughout the season. These will be held every Sunday in Fullerton hall, at 3:30 in the afternoon. Heretofore Mr. Watson's Sunday lectures have been for members of the Art Institute only, but this season the public will be admitted, admission being nominal. On Sunday, September 22, Mr. Watson's first lecture will be "The Art and Life of Italy," showing its magnificent cultural background and the wonderful life of its people, now unhappily in the throes of military preparation. The Italian consul will be invited to introduce the speaker. On Sunday, September 29, Mr. Watson will speak on the "Art and Life of Germany," and tell how the people of that country have found succor from the horrors of war through turning their thoughts to art.

Celebrate Golden Wedding

The lawn of the John Fritsch farm home in Northfield was the scene of the golden wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Miller (Sarah Fritsch) of Randolph, Minn., on Sunday. The weather was ideal for the reception and short out-of-door worship service. Rev. F. Brandfeller of the United Evangelical Church of Highland Park led the singing of "Bless Be the Tie That Binds" and introduced Rev. Earl J. Brusco of the Bethlehem Church of Deerfield. Rev. Brusco read appropriate passages from the scriptures and offered the prayer. Both ministers congratulated the couple upon their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Little Wayne Glauert presented a bouquet of roses to the honored couple, who responded with clever speeches of acceptance. Mr. Miller read an original poem he had written of their fifty years of wedded life. Mr. and Mrs. Miller were married Sept. 24, 1885, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Fritsch (now the Reichelt home) on Chestnut Street, Deerfield, and left for Randolph, Minn., where they have lived in the same home for fifty years. Mr. Miller has been postmaster of that village, serving under ten presidents, a period of 45 years. There were ninety-one guests present on Sunday, Sept. 22, 1935, who came to offer felicitations to the Millers and of this number twelve were present at the wedding fifty years ago. They were her three brothers, Ben of Highland Park; John of Northfield, and Ezra Fritsch of Huntley; and Mrs. Frank Fritsch of Highland Park. Mrs. Edward Dresselhaus of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. William Metz of Chicago, Mrs. Louisa Miller of Deerfield, Roy Fritsch of Northfield who was three months old at the time of the wedding; Ellsworth Wilcox of Libertyville; Selenus Knedler and Mrs. Jacob Ritzenthaler, both of Prairie View. Following the services a buffet supper was served under the lovely trees by the younger generation of Fritschs.

This picture is rated by the West and East Coast Preview committees as a class A, family picture. Proceeds from this benefit are to be used to support the activities of the 'Boys' and Girls' clubs of the Deerfield-Shields High School in Highland Park. Offer Scholarships to High School Students

Fourteen students in Lake county high schools may this year receive scholarships for four-year courses of study at a state institution of learning, it was revealed. In the past the Lindley scholarships were awarded to students having the best grades at the completion of their eighth grade studies in the rural and village schools. Under new legislation which went into effect this year, the scholarships will no longer be awarded to eighth grade students, who had to lay their awards aside for four years while attending high school, but will go to the high rating students who are ready to enter college.

The existing legislation will give Waukegan township high school and Deerfield-Shields three scholarships each and the other seven high school districts including the new Lake Forest school, one each. The award is to be made by the superintendent or principal of each high school to the students maintaining the best grade average in all courses of study. These scholarships, similar to the Lindley scholarships, are granted by the state and not by a private fund or endowment.

Alcyon To Offer "Broadway Gondolier"

W. C. Fields, laugh promoter of the age reaches the top of his form as a comedian and pantomimist in his latest laugh riot, "Man on the Flying Trapeze," showing at the Alcyon on Friday and Saturday. Included on this program is a very special attraction "Man of Aran," featurette. "Man of Aran," which received unanimously eulogistic reviews from the London and New York critics and was recently selected as the best picture of the year, is a lineal descendant of other Flaherty sagas. Mr. Flaherty went practically single-handed to the Aran Islands, and recruited his cast from among the natives. The film is a record of the life struggle of the men of Aran against the sea and the land for existence. A picture, heralded as one of the most humorous, as well as romantic productions of the year is "Broadway Gondoliers" featuring Dick Powell, Joan Blondell and a host of other stars being presented on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday coming. "Shanghai," produced by Walter Wagner who gave "Private Worlds" to the movie public, is based on the question of marriage between a Eurasian and a white girl. Charles Boyer's magnetism and Loretta Young's beauty contribute greatly to the success of "Shanghai" at the Alcyon theatre next Wednesday and Thursday.

Sales Tax to Be Added to Local Water Bills

Under the new ruling making Governor Horner's sales tax applicable to services as well as to merchandise residents of Highland Park and Highwood will be forced to pay a tax on their water bills, beginning with the new series set out. Highland Park officials announced shortly after the issuance of the last water bills that the next ones would be increased three per cent to cover the sales tax, and the Highwood city council followed suit early this week. The City of Highwood, which buys its water from Highland Park, allows a 10 per cent discount on bills paid within 15 days of the time they are issued and for that reason feels that it cannot absorb the sale tax as well. Other industries which are affected by the latest ruling include electric power, gas and telephone companies.
