GYPSIES ARE NOT DESCENDED FROM EGYPTIANS

Answer to Last Week's You'd Be Surprised

Joan of Arc is not the correct name of the maid of Orleans! The correct name is Joan Darc. The mistake is in supposing that the French form is d'Arc, instead of Darc. (The d' meaning "of.")

Villa Moderne Adds Swank With New Bar
—Draws Great Crowds

Manager Frank Hutchins of the Villa Moderne made a distinct ten-strike with the society folks of the North Shore towns, and Chicago last Saturday night, when he formally opened the new bar in what he has so aptly called the "North Shore's smartest cafe-restaurant."

Tremendous crowds who gathered for the event were the best evidence of the popularity of the institution. They came from all parts of the Chicago territory, and, as Manager Hutchins puts it, "We were soon crowded to capacity."

The Villa Moderne is unique among cafe-restaurants, both for its decorative and restful effect upon its patrons, and, what is even more important, the exceptional cuisine. A splendid orchestra and an excellent dance floor are added attractions. These together with the natural beauty of the surroundings, have accounted for the splendid success already achieved.
