

Deerfield Personals

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Miller of Randolph, Minn., who had been guests of the Fred Hennings in Highland Park for several days, were luncheon guests on Wednesday at the Floyd Stanger home. The Millers visited that day at the Reichelt home where they had been married fifty years ago, when it was the property of Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Fritsch. They had been visiting relatives in this vicinity for several weeks and the reception at the John Fritsch home on Sunday, Sept. 22, climaxed their sojourn here, with a golden wedding celebration. It was a coincidence that the Millers were here during a postmasters' convention, so Mr. Miller attended the conference in Chicago last week and was acclaimed the nation's veteran postmaster with forty-five years of service under ten presidents. When Mr. and Mrs. Miller moved from Deerfield half a century ago they built the first house in Randolph, Minn., and Mr. Miller opened the first store in that community.
