CABIN IN THE WOODS RESERVATIONS OPEN
The Cabin-in-the-Woods, west of Glencoe, which is in the forest preserve property, but of which the North Shore Area Council has exclusive use, is ready to be used for the fall and winter short term camps. The cabin has been renovated and cleaned since last spring and summer. There is a new store and a supply of cots was brought down from Camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan for use for Scouts going on overnight hikes to the cabin.

PLANS FOR SHOW PROGRESS
Plans for the Merit Badge Show to be held at Patten Gymnasium on the 25th and 26th of October, are rounding into shape. All tickets have been distributed to Scout troops. Troops have accepted responsibility for occupying all of the available booth spaces and co-operating organizations have agreed to exhibit also. Beyond the scouting booths which will include approximately 50 merit badges and related program features, booths have been accepted by the community chests, Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Safety Council, and Fire Departments. Approximately 2000 boys will take part in the show during its show period. It promises to be one of the largest of its kind ever held in this neighborhood.

SCOUT SEMINAR TO ATTRACT LARGE NUMBER
The Scout Seminar to be held at the Knickerbocker Hotel on October 27 (Sunday) will attract a large number of North Shore Scouters. The discussion groups include personnel, cubbing, rural scouting, and health and safety. Each of the four sessions will be conducted by National Headquarter's experts.

WESSEL TO CONDUCT SCHOOL
Mr. William Wessel, national director of cubbing, the program of the Boy Scouts of America, for 9, 10, and 11 year old boys, will conduct a sectional cubbing school in cub leadership for the cub leaders of the North Shore Area Council and surrounding neighboring councils. The cub training course will be held somewhere within the North Shore Area Council territory around the first of November. Watch for

Card Party Tonight
The Sheridan Rebekah Sewing circle will hold a public card party at the home of Mrs. William Fosbender, 603 Vine avenue, on Thursday evening, October 10 at 8 o'clock, with Mrs. Clara Devendorf assisting. Bridge, five hundred and bunco will be played and prizes awarded.

dates. The course will be open to all men who are interested in the cub program, whether now connected with it or not.
MERIT BADGE SHOW TO FEATURE COW
The Dairying Merit badge exhibit which is to be staged by Troop 54 of Half Day will contain among other things a live cow. The cow will be used to demonstrate modern milking methods and modern dairying practices. Troop 54 of Half Day is under the leadership of Scoutmaster Richard Whitacre. Mr. Whitacre is superintendent of schools in Half Day. The scouts will demonstrate all of the requirements of the Dairying Merit badge which include pasteurizing and testing of tuberculosis bacteria with the use of the Babcock test. The dairying booth promises to be one of the most interesting in the exhibit.
