HIGHLAND PARK PUBLIC LIBRARY
HIGHLAND PARK ILLINOIS

Books Old and New for Our Children
If books were considered necessities and not luxuries, life might be richer and more colorful.

Like other educational habits, the reading habit is generally formed through childhood and early youth. If the child, during these years, so fundamental in developing the taste for good or bad literature, is constantly exposed to the best, the undesirable books would make no appeal.

The realm of good literature is a vast one. A wide variety of subjects and interests are represented, books rich in imagination, human vitality, sincerity and dramatic action together with exquisite art and skilled workmanship.

Your Public Library is a treasure house within this realm. Have you scanned the shelves for some of the treasures?

Red Cross Program at Deerfield Club

Members of the Deerfield Woman's club will hold their regular meeting, Tuesday, October 22, in the Public Library. Mrs. E. J. Ginter, chairman of the Social Service department is in charge of the program, and has arranged to have a speaker from the Red Cross headquarters together with a sound film called "The Greatest Mother." Inasmuch as November is the month of the Red Cross drive this should be a very interesting program.
