

Chest Announces Budget Allotment

The Chest itself," Mr. Bryant stated, "is exceedingly low and represents the expenses incident to the conducting of the campaign and the year round administration of a permanent Chest office to be established for the collection of subscriptions and the disbursement of Chest funds to the member agencies, auditing of agency financial operations monthly and the maintenance of an information service regarding the activities of the Chest."

"The provision for shrinkage due to removals, deaths, and so forth," Mr. Bryant said, "is the wise and customary practice of all organized Community Chests throughout the country in order to protect the joint fund from falling below the minimum financial needs of the member agencies. Experience in other cities has shown that a reserve of approximately 10 per cent of the total needed is essential for this purpose."

Chairman Herbert E. Kerber of the General Campaign committee announced this week the formation of a Special Gifts committee of the Community Chest which will immediately seek to secure subscriptions from the more substantial contributors to Highland Park's welfare needs. This special committee was organized at a meeting held at the home of General Robert E. Wood, chairman of the Community Chest, Sunday afternoon. The committee is composed of Alfred K. Stern, Samuel M. Hastings, Co-chairmen, Robert E. Wood, Ralph A. Bard, Herbert M. Lautmann, Albert P. Snite, Harold M. Florsheim, George A. Mason, Werner A. Wieboldt, James Becker, S. Henry Foreman, Irving Randall, S. L. Reinhardt, C. W. Schaaf, and Cloude Wampler. This committee which swung into action early this week and will endeavor to complete the solicitation of prospects allotted to them prior to the opening of the general campaign. General Campaign Makes Progress Preparation for the general city-wide solicitation to start October 30 has made rapid progress during the past week according to Chairman Herbert E. Kerber. "Each of the sixteen district chairmen and co-chairmen have been engaged this week in completing the preliminary work of dividing districts into block areas and securing a captain and assistants for each block and in listing all prospects in their block areas. We expect this organization work to be completed by Friday evening, October 18. The district chairmen have been receiving ready responses throughout the city to their requests for volunteer workers during the campaign and they have need, however, for many more volunteers to thoroughly cover the city, and are asking all who are willing to serve the community in this large city wide undertaking who have not been contacted for service to immediately notify Chest headquarters, telephone 470 of their willingness to serve."

Rally-Dinner for Workers All workers in the campaign are urged to keep the evening of October 30 free for a big campaign rally meeting and dinner to be held 7 p.m. on that date at a place to be announced later. This big meeting will mark the opening of the campaign, and at this time final instructions and information will be given.

District chairmen and co-chairmen are urged to keep Monday evening, October 28 free of engagements in order that they may attend the final chairmen and co-chairmen pre-campaign meeting at Chest headquarters.

Lake County Dentists to Meet Next Monday

When a government starts going into private business it usually isn't long until private business finds itself inside the government.

Portrait of An American

Who is the typical American? Just what is he like?

There seems to be doubt on these questions in the minds of many men in public office today. Much of our recent legislation suggests that they regard him as willing to swap his American birthright of independence and opportunity for the lifeless regimentation now imposed on certain populations abroad.

But there should be no such confusion. A portrait of the typical American was clearly drawn in the Bill of Rights of our Federal Constitution. Read it and you will see that he is a man who stands firmly for:

Freedom of religion, freedom of lawful speech, freedom of the press, freedom of peaceable assembly...

The right to be secure against unreasonable search and seizure, to be immune from governmental inquisition, to trial by jury in all civil as well as criminal cases...

The guarantee that he shall not be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law, and that he shall be protected in all these and other rights even against government itself.

In that insistence on definite rights and powers is reflected, I maintain, a true picture of the real American citizen — the man who works and earns and saves and on whose character and effort depends all the strength of our government. It has stood unchanged for almost a century and a half. It remains as accurate today as when first drafted.

When our politicians get that picture clearly in mind we shall see fewer efforts to inject into our government the ideas of a regimented Europe — whose tragic effects we read daily in dispatches from across the sea.

America, our lawmakers should remember, is still full of Americans — sons and daughters of the hardest, most self-reliant breed of pioneers and liberty-lovers the world has ever seen. No one can take away their individual freedom — and make them like it. The Bill of Rights still remains our national portrait.

Dr. R. E. Speer to Be Sunday Club Speaker

Dr. Robert E. Speer's public address in Orchestra hall on October 13, before the Chicago Sunday Evening club, will be an interesting event to many, as this popular religious leader has not been heard in Chicago for several years. He is known the world around for his nearly fifty years of labor in the foreign missions fields during which he has become the foremost authority on the work of the church in the Orient. He will speak on the subject "A Religion for the Depression." Clifford W. Barnes will preside.

At this Sunday Evening club meeting one of Chicago's musicians will be honored when the large choir presents Delamarter's anthem "The Lord Is My Shepherd" with Lucille Hudberg in the solo part, and under the direction of Edgar Nelson. Verdi's "Spirit Immortal" will also be given, sung by the choir, with the assistance of Miss Hudberg, John Sloan and William Russell, guest artists.

Highwood Woman Hears from Lost Relatives

Mrs. W. J. Lawrther who has for years been trying to locate relatives of whom all trace was lost when she was an infant, had her long efforts rewarded last week when she received letters from Edith Mann of San Francisco, Calif., and Grace Deane Hutchinson of Reno, Nevada. Miss Edith Mann, who is well known on the west coast and New England as an evangelist and religious writer, is first cousin to Mrs. Lawrther.

Miss Grace Hutchinson, an investigator and research worker of legal and social service matters, is at present in New Hampshire. Miss Hutchinson is an aunt to Mrs. Lawrther, her sister, Josephine Hutchinson Hafner, now deceased, was Mrs. Lawrther's mother.

A family reunion will be held in the very near future at the home of Mrs. Lawrther in Highwood, when aunt, niece and cousin will meet for the first time in 48 years.

"AS HUSBANDS GO" TO BE GIVEN NOV. 27

Ravinia Players Announce Tentative Date for First Production

Thanksgiving eve, Nov. 27, has been announced as the tentative date for the Ravinia Players' opening production of their sixth season, "As Husbands Go," by Rachel Crothers. The play is a modern society comedy, dealing with the affect on the lives of two American women of a summer abroad in the company of two European gentlemen, who were decidedly amorous in their attentions. The main situation develops from the two men following Lucille and Emmitt home, where they meet Lucille's husband, Charlie, and Emmitt's engaged daughter, Peggy.

The best known member of the cast, as far as local audiences are concerned, is Bob Arnold, who will appear as Hypolitus Lomi, the gentleman who is intent on marrying Emmitt, albeit chiefly for her money. Bob joined the Players in time for the production of "Mr. Pim Passes By," with which the group closed the season of 1933-34. He played the title role in that performance, and has appeared in every show the group has staged since that time. He has played "character" parts chiefly in type, including that of boisterous, jovial Alfred Grainger in "The Breadwinner"; of quiet, friendly, Dr. Kendall, in "The Dark Tower"; and of the perplexed, love-stricken Caller, in "The Lost Silk Hat," one of the four one-acts, with which the Players closed last season.

In the role of Hypolitus, the again has a role which is different from any which he has played thus far. The character is one who prides himself on both his mixed European parentage, and his love-making ability, and who is quite frank about his desire for Emmitt's money, with which to live quietly for the rest of his life.

Another person well known to local audiences who will be seen for the first time in over a year, is Mary Lou McClerman Hickman, who will play the part of Emmitt's daughter, Peggy. Her last appearance was in "Mr. Pim Passes By," but prior to that time she was one of the most active members of the group, and had a part in most of the Players' productions. Her numerous part appearances in "A Pair of Silk Stockings," "The Ninth Guest," "The Bound," and "Holiday."

Other veterans of the group who will be seen include Sarah Ann McClerman, Fenton Hopkins, Walter Watkins, Mary Turriff, and Dr. E. E. Barckman.

One large part, that of Rommie Derbyshire, the English novelist, who falls in love with Lucille and follows her to her home, will be played by a newcomer to the group, Charles O'Donnell, who has had extended dramatic experience elsewhere. Norma Sadler and Earl Bering will make their local debuts in small parts.

The play is under the direction of Miss Elyse Rinkenberger, for the past five years dramatic director at Deerfield-Shields High School. Miss Rinkenberger is being assisted by Enid Phillips, well known for her acting with the Players in past seasons.

Automobiles Collide Tuesday Evening

Miss Mary Haskell of Elmwood drive, Highland Park, driving a Chevrolet sedan south on Second street collided with a Studebaker sedan driven west on Laurel avenue by Miss Jane Buffham of Racine on Tuesday evening at 5 o'clock.

The Studebaker, which was struck broadside, was turned completely around by the force of the impact, the Chevrolet overturning after the crash. Riding with Miss Haskell were May and Betty McMahon of south Second street and in the Buffham car Mrs. E. O. Bangs and Mrs. Roy Buffham. No one was seriously injured. Both cars were towed to the Dewey Motor Sales, which is located right at the scene of the accident. No witnesses were secured.
