

FRAN
ting
RNS ghland Park
Residence, H. P. 439

Deerfield Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Bates announce the birth of a son Monday, Nov. 4, at the Highland Park Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. James Allen Payne have named their new little daughter Bonnie Ellen.

Mrs. Harry Otendorf entertained her Libertyville bridge club at luncheon last Tuesday.

Jean Pettis was one of three of the School of Music at the University of Arizona, to receive recognition at the University Honorary Assembly held Thursday morning, Oct. 31, at the University Auditorium. This is an annual gathering at which time cups and scholastic awards are given. The dean of each college presents three outstanding freshmen, sophomores and juniors from the past year to the President of the U. of Arizona, Dr. Shantz, and he awards the honors.

An all-day meeting of the Dorcas Society is being held Thursday (today) at the Presbyterian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Schult of Sumner, Iowa, spent last week with their daughter, Mrs. Arthur Pagel.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rockenbach entertained the Neighborhood Club on Saturday evening.

Miss Mabel Page was hostess at a party last Thursday evening at her home on Arbor Vitae Road.

Maurice Cazel has returned from a trip in the west.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Stilke were the hosts at a party Thursday evening for the Evangelical Daughters of St. Paul's Church.

The Quid Nunc Club met last Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Donald Easton.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Segert were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Stryker in Chicago Saturday.

Mrs. Hubert McGuire is entertaining the Sewing Guild of the Holy Cross Church today at her home.

Mrs. John Anfruns will be hostess to St. Paul's Sewing Society at her home on Friday afternoon (tomorrow).

Lovers of negro spirituals will be interested in the next meeting of the Deerfield Sunday Evening Club on Nov. 10, 8 p.m. at the Deerfield Grammar School, when the "Magnolians" of Chicago will be presented. A detailed program appears elsewhere in The Press.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Jacobson and three daughters, who have been living with Mrs. Jacobson's mother, Mrs. W. F. Plagge, for several years have moved to the Wing house on Deerfield avenue, formerly occupied by Percy McLaughlin. This is the former Frank Peterson house, and it is now completely remodeled into two apartments.

Mrs. Reuben Davis of Hazel avenue has recovered from a several months' illness and her niece, who has been staying at the Davis home, has returned to Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Selig returned on Friday from a visit with relatives in Iowa.

The Altar and Rosary Society of the Holy Cross Church will meet Friday evening of this week at the home of Mrs. Henry Petersen. Mrs. Petersen's sister, Mrs. Christ Petersen, will be the assisting hostess.

Raymond J. Bell, who has been in the vicinity of Lansing, Mich., for the past month, returned to his home on Hazel avenue on Tuesday. Mr. Bell is employed in the fire-arms department of the government. L. E. Greim, one of his assistants, is in Wisconsin for a six weeks' stay near LaCrosse.

The Bannockburn Garden Club held open house on Tuesday evening at the Bannockburn School. Details of this annual event will appear in next week's Press.

Mrs. C. J. Davis will be hostess to the Just Sew Club on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Carl T. Anderson is entertaining her contract bridge club on Thursday afternoon of this week.

The Chatter 'n' Sew Club will meet Wednesday evening at the Witt home on Forest avenue with Mrs. Roy Miller as hostess.

The Deerfield Volunteer Fire Department spent several hours on Sunday evening pumping water from the basement of the home of Mrs. Henry Pope on Meadow Brook Lane, near Landis Lane.

Husbands will be honored guests Thursday evening, Nov. 14, when the Woman's Missionary Society of the Bethlehem Church holds a special meeting that evening. Mrs. John Vetter, the president, and her staff of officers, will serve as hostesses for the affair.

J. P. Gondon, who has taken V. V. Hipsley's place at the C. M. &

St. Paul station in Northbrook this past month, will continue his duties there as station agent until Mr. Hipsley recovers from a serious illness.

Miss Alice E. Rehm of Downers Grove spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. John Vetter. Miss Rehm, who is state secretary of Young People's Missionary Circles, spoke at the Bethlehem Evangelical Church Sunday evening. The program was sponsored by the local Y.P.M.S.

Boy Scouts will call at Deerfield homes on Saturday, Nov. 9, to pick up toys, which will be repaired for Christmas for children on homes where Santa does not stop.

A leadership training class is being conducted by Rev. Earl J. Brusio, in the Bethlehem Evangelical Church each Monday evening. The eight persons enrolled for the course are Mrs. Arthur Lee, Myrtle Lee, Mrs. Harold Giss, Mrs. John Vetter, Mrs. Arthur Merrer, Mrs. Milton Frantz, Mrs. E. J. Brusio, and Barney Stolle.

"Ethiopia and Its People," will be the subject of a talk by Dr. George L. Robinson of the Presbyterian Seminary, Chicago, at a dinner at 6:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 19, at the Presbyterian church.

A surprise stork shower in compliment to Mrs. Frank O'Connor was held Wednesday afternoon at the O'Connor home with Mrs. Eugene Boyer as hostess.

Dorothy Wessling entertained the M. M. Club on Tuesday evening at her home.

Mrs. Chester Wessling and Mrs. Raymond Dobbins will give a benefit luncheon and card party at the Wessling home on Thursday, Nov. 14, at 1 o'clock. Reservations for this Eastern Star benefit party may be made with either hostess.

Miss Oliver Frantz, who attends Naperville College, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Frantz.

The Ralph Wickershams have moved from the Julius Johnson house to the Herman Knigge house on Park avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bonn who have been occupying the L. M. Beckman house on Osterman avenue have moved to Highland Park. The cottage on the Beckman property has been rented by Mr. and Mrs. Horace Neill.

Mrs. Roy Hagie was guest of honor at a surprise birthday party given at her home in Glenview by the Old Time Pleasure Club on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dawson have a son, born last Wednesday at the Highland Park Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Olson were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard James in Evanston on Sunday. Mrs. Allen Harder, Misses Luella and Juliana Willman visited Mr. and Mrs. Ethan Willman in Whitefish Bay, Wis., on Saturday. Juliana remained to spend the week-end there.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Page and children spent Sunday at the Fred Protine home in Elmhurst.

The Fred Meyer home is being remodeled for two apartments.

Mr and Mrs. Eldon Soefker have moved from the third apartment in the L. C. Hole house to the upper flat in the Walter Page house.

Mr. and Mrs. William Johnston and Mrs. Conrad Uchtman visited at the Carl Mau home in Chicago on Sunday.

Miss Evelyn Kent was the week-end guest of Alice Jane Simons at the Carl Mau home in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Churchill of Morton Grove were dinner guests Friday at the Walter Page home.

Mrs. Roy Stace stayed at the V. William Bridle home in Highland Park several days last week, while the Bridles went down to St. Louis.

Moran Plumbing & Heating Co.

Witten Building - Highland Park
CLIFFORD R. MORAN, Prop.

Electrol Oil Burners
Sales and Service

Office Phone
Highland Park 1060

Res. Phone
Highland Park 1342

BETTER LIGHT—BETTER SIGHT

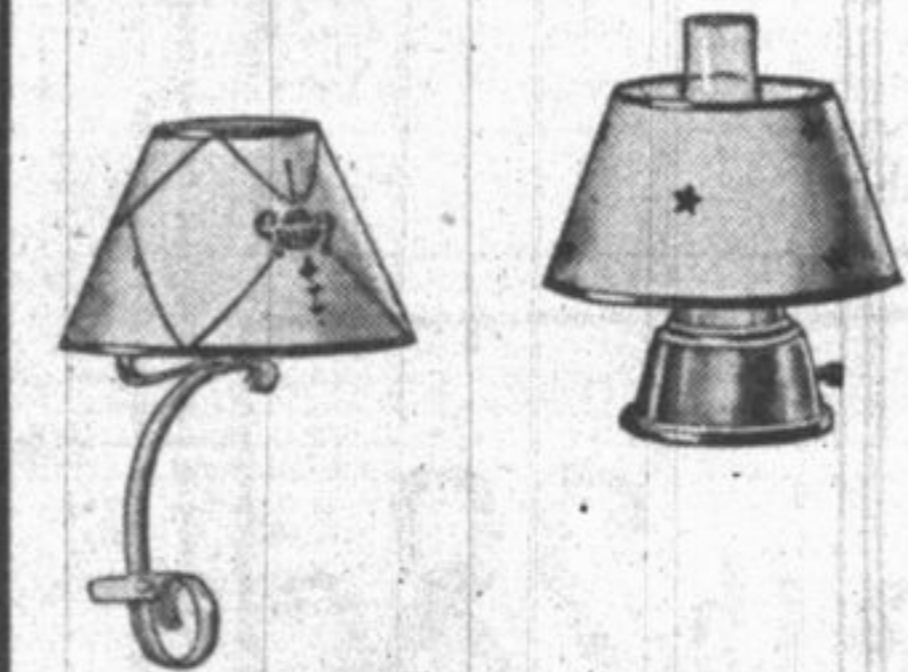

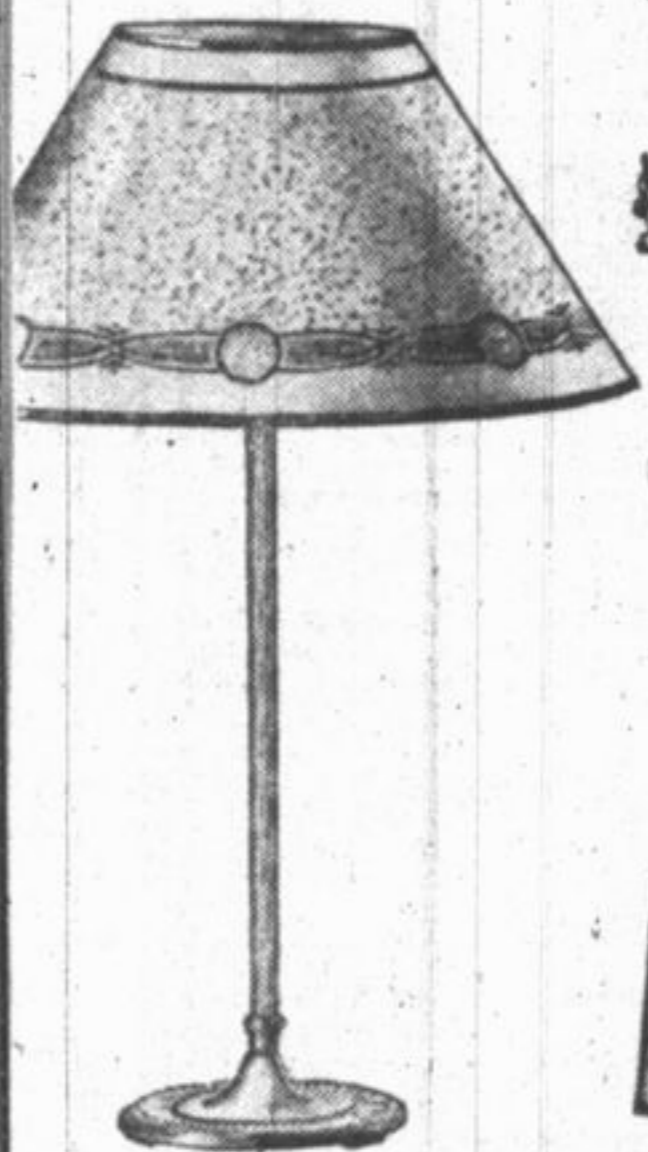

Come in and see the new Fall LAMPS

now on display at your PUBLIC SERVICE STORE

• Just arrived — our new Fall stock of beautiful lamps! All kinds! All sizes! All prices! Decorative, boudoir, novelty, and the latest Better Light—Better Sight Lamps. See them now. Prices are low. Choose from a wide assortment in every group. Only a few are illustrated here.

ONLY A FEW OF MANY DECORATIVE, NOVELTY, AND BOUDOIR LAMPS. MANY SELL FOR LESS THAN

$5

Swinging arm adjustable at two points. Shade of heavy white homespun material over parchment. Base ivory and gold. Variety of other color effects and finishes. $17.95 Group

Shade is pure, white silk and hand-tailored with pleated treatment. Lamp has well weighted cast metal base. Wide selection of other colors and finishes. $6.95 Group

Lustrous silk "metalray" covered parchment's shade. Novelty check trim. Base and standard finished in warm ivory with gold trim. Many other attractive finishes and colors. $8.95 Group

Beautifully designed floor lamp. Three-wattage bulb and special switch. Eggshell colored shade made of pure knit-pleated silk. Finely molded base and standard finished in ivory and gold. $12.95 Group

$1.00 DOWN $1 A MONTH

FREE TRIAL

Now try any Better Light—Better Sight Lamp in your home before you buy. You are not obligated when you accept this offer. Get further details at your Public Service Store now.

Two Items of Interest for the Home! Listen to the Better Light—Better Sight program featuring JOHN CLEMENS, The Melody Master every Sunday night WMAQ—10 P.M.

See the "New American" Model Homes in Oak Park, Downers Grove, Wheaton, and in Chicago at Beverly Hills and Sauganash.

The Illuminating Engineering Society tag on lamps, assures you that the lamp complies with 55 strict requirements for mechanical, safety and illuminating excellence.

A new lighting principle gives 6 to 10 times as much useful light. Glass reflector reflects and transmits for both general and direct lighting. Light is soft and glareless, just right for eye comfort.

SPECIAL! A Genuine General Electric Sunlamp Formerly priced $19.95 now only $14.95 Low, liberal terms Get one at this low price for Winter's sunless days

Bull's Eyes of TRUTH
By PLAIN-SPOKEN PETE

EVERY MAN WHO WORKS FOR A LIVING IS ENTITLED TO RESPECTFUL CONSIDERATION UNLESS THE BROTHERHOOD OF MAN'S IDEA IS JUST ELECTION DAY APPLE SAUCE

Every motorist should have consideration for his passengers... If not for himself and keep the wheels, axles and frame of his car in perfect alignment. The best way to do this is to have your car serviced the HEE LINE WAY. We have complete HEE LINE EQUIPMENT for checking and correcting misalignment.

AUTO-RECONSTRUCTION
DAHL'S
322 NO. FIRST ST. HIGHLAND PARK 77

Annual Red Cross Roll Call
Join J+
Arming Day to Thanksgiving

PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY OF NORTHERN ILLINOIS

