Local and Personal
of Highland Park

Word has been received of the tragic death in Hornell, N. Y., of Miss Hendee, sister of Miss Cora Hendee, former librarian at the local library. She was killed in an auto accident on Nov. 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rafferty are the happy parents of a daughter, born Sunday at Alice Home hospital, Lake Forest. Mrs. Rafferty was formerly Miss Betty Baker.

Little Jimmy Siljestrom underwent an operation on his leg at the Highland Park hospital last week. This is the second operation, due to an infection of the bone.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Kerber and daughters were registered recently at the Dearborn Inn, Dearborn, Mich.

Mr. Elmer Stone, who has been seriously ill at the home of his sister, Mrs. M. H. Conrad of McGovern street, was taken to the Auburn Park hospital last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Martin are now located at Coral Gables, Fla. Miss Anna Ohlwein of N. Second St., entertained twelve friends on Tuesday evening, honoring her birthday anniversary.

The ladies of the Bethany church met Tuesday at the home of Miss Edith Hansen to sew for the coming bazaar at the Bethany church.

The ladies of the Bethany church met Tuesday at the home of Miss Edith Hansen to sew for the coming bazaar at the Bethany church.

Mr. Walter Lamb, a former resident of Highland Park now of Atlanta, Ga., visited friends in Highland Park yesterday.

The newly organized young women's club of Grace M.E. church will Mrs. Ira Breakwell, 244 Sheridan meet at the home of the President, Ave., Highwood, Friday at 7:30. All young women are invited.

Miss Viola Johnson and Walter Koller were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at four o'clock by the Rev. F. Brandfeller, pastor of the First United Evangelical church, at the parsonage. The single ring ceremony was used. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin H. Moon were the attendants.

Mrs. William F. Nell entertained at luncheon Tuesday for her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Horace Neil.

Mrs. C. L. Van Arsdale was pleasantly surprised last Thursday evening, when a group of friends came to help her celebrate her birthday anniversary.

The ladies of the Redeemer Lutheran church are holding their monthly social this afternoon today (Thursday) instead of next Thursday as previously planned at 2:15 p.m. Bridge, five hundred and bunco will be played.

Mrs. Viola Conrad entertained ten relatives at supper Sunday evening.

Sorosis Amicae met last Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Jean Sinclair, 363 Bloom St.

Represents Florida
At Exhibition

Mrs. Robert W. Oliver (Edith Walker of Ravinia) has been appointed delegate to represent St. Augustine, Fla., at the Arts Exhibition of the Florida Federation of Arts held in Tampa, Fla.

She is chairman of the Exhibitions of the St. Augustine Arts Club.

Miss Rosemary Lytton
Is Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Schwarz of Chicago recently received a cable from London, England, from Mrs. George Lytton, Mrs. Schwarz' sister, announcing the engagement of her daughter, Rosemary, to Lieut. Charles Sutton Sheppard, of the British Royal Navy, son of the late Herbert Chase Sheppard and Mrs. Sheppard Teignmouth, Devon, England.

Just when the wedding will take place was not stated in the cable, however it did state that Mrs. Lytton and her daughter had taken a house near London. It is quite possible that the wedding will take place there.

The Lyttons made their home in Highland Park for many years, and the announcement will be of great interest to their friends here.

The two weeks revival services held at the First United Evangelical Church with the pastor, Rev. F. Brandfeller acting as the evangelist, came to a close last Sunday evening. A number of young people gave their hearts to the Lord Jesus Christ and a large number of the children evidenced their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, as Saviour, by coming to the altar of prayer.

New Minister Is Entertained

The Ladies' Aid of the Highwood M.E. church, Highwood Ave. and Everts Place, was entertained by the men of the church last Saturday evening. A very fine program of music and entertaining speeches was offered at the climax of which some witty and interesting poetry was read by the author, Mr. Goldstead.

The Rev. and Mrs. Tinker were then greeted formally by the church. A beautiful bouquet of chrysanthemums was presented to Mrs. Tinker and a small purse to Mr. Tinker as a token of appreciation and a welcome to the pastorate of the church.

Social Card Party
Friday

The Sheridan Rebekah Sewing Circle will have a Social Card Party at the apartment of Mrs. Flora Werner, 320 Central Ave., on Friday evening, November 22, at 8:00 o'clock with Mrs. Anna Rose assisting.

Five Hundred and Bunco will be played and prizes will be awarded. The public is cordially invited.

Woman's Club Holds
Benefit Card Party

The Deerfield Woman's club held a benefit card party Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 19, in the auditorium of the Deerfield grammar school.

Mrs. Robt. L. Johnson, who was in charge of the party, wishes to thank the members of the committees for their co-operation. The chairman of the committees were as follows:

Mrs. Louis Ashman, tickets.
 Mrs. H. C. Young, raffles.
 Mrs. Munroe McKelley, tables.
 Mrs. Wm. Weir, reception.
 Refreshments: Mesdames Ralph Peterson, Alex Willman, Irving Brand.

The club wishes to thank the following merchants for their generosity in furnishing prizes: Bahrs Floral offering; John D. Schneider for tickets; Public Service for a lamp; Steele Wedeles for a box of assorted canned goods; Blue Goose Market for a basket of fruit; Hathaway bakery for a cake; Frankens Brothers for tulip bulbs; E. T. Dreiske for a bouquet and the Highland Park Press for one year's subscription.

The Woman's Club appreciates the use of the school auditorium and the co-operation of the club members and numerous friends.

Alcyon Theatre Presents
"She Married Her Boss"

"Little Big Shot" at the Alcyon Friday and Saturday adds another child star, Sybil Jason, to the film firmament. Her role is that of an orphan who is adopted by two men, Edward Everett Horton and Robert Armstrong. Glenda Farrell is also in this amusing drama.

"She Married Her Boss" will be shown on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. The fun continues fast and furious, with Claudette Colbert as the storm center. Melvyn Douglas does a fine job as the frantic boss and husband.

"The Bishop Misbehaves," which is to be presented on Wednesday evening only, is the maddest, merriest detective story in years. Maureen O'Sullivan plays the society girl whose madcap revenge idea starts the whole joyful plot rolling. Norman Foster and Edmund Owen play opposite Miss O'Sullivan.

With forty-eight of the nation's loveliest redheads, one from each state, featured in the colorful girl ensembles, "Redheads on Parade" uses music, dances and romance and spectacles to tell a brisk comedy story. John Boles and Dixie Lee head a splendid cast in this film which is scheduled for Thursday and Friday coming.

Vogue Cleaners White-
wash Press Bowlers

Vogue Cleaners were the only team in the Business Men's Bowling League to win all their scheduled games in last week's contests at the Majestic alleys.

On Tuesday Marchi Brothers garage team took two out of three from Purnell & Wilson, on Wednesday the Whitehouse Tavern boys won two from the Elks, and on the same evening Vogue took the Highland Park Press teams for three games.

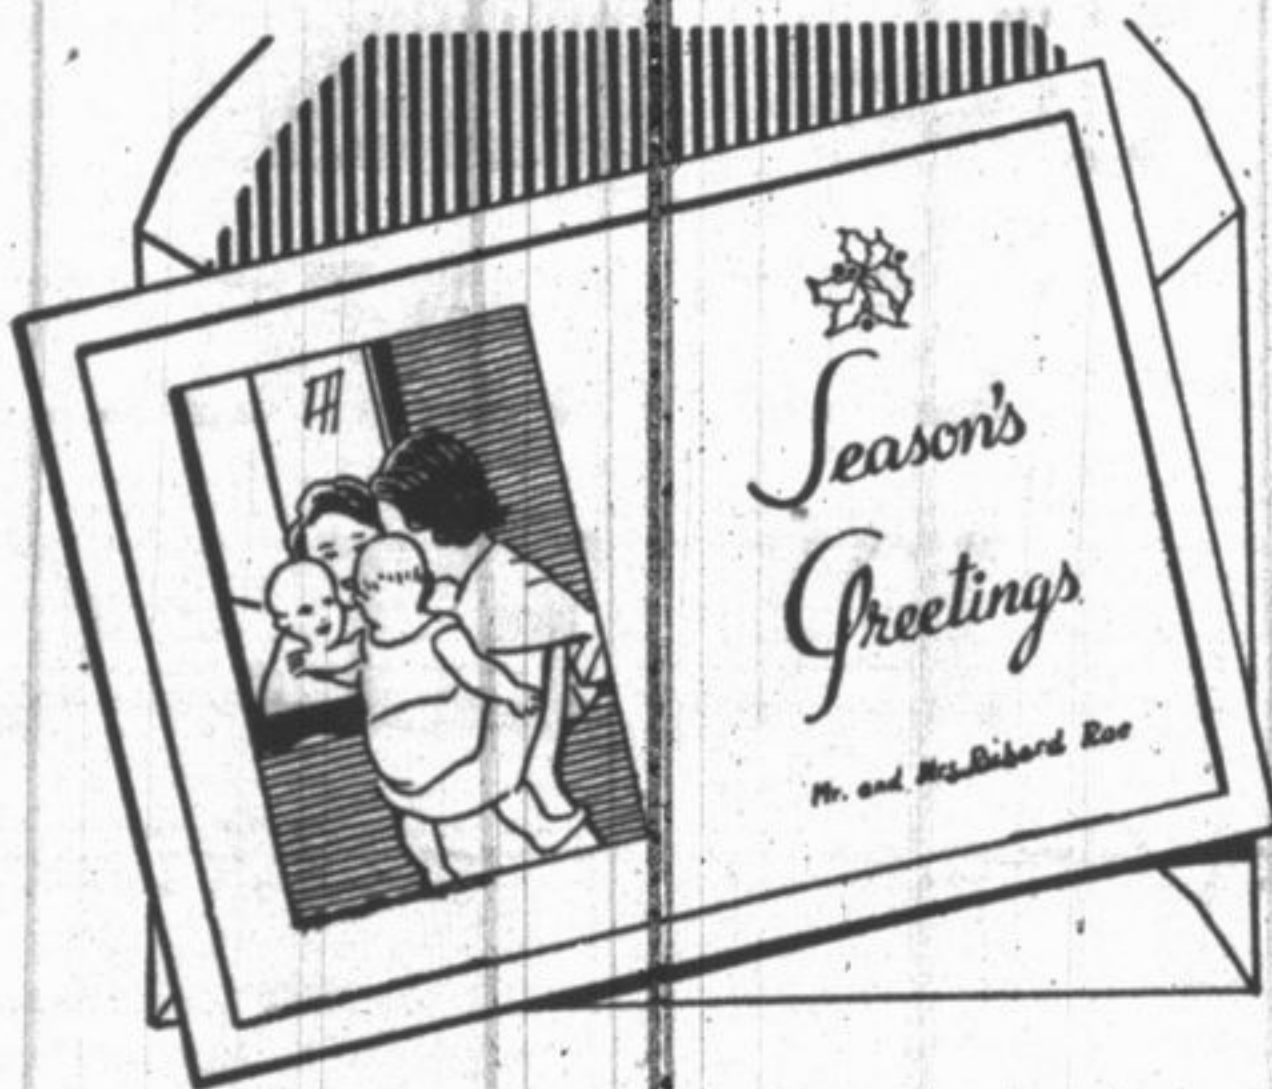

On Thursday Moroney's Insurance won two games from the Coleman bowlers.
