Miss Jean Farleigh of Monclair, N. J., and Miss Elizabeth Bliss of Flossmore will be the house guests of the George Bliss family of N. Linden avenue over Thanksgiving. Mrs. Frank R. McCoy of Fort Sheridan entertained at tea at her quarters on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. M. M. Austin of Clifton avenue had as her guest a few days last week Miss Ida Lewin of Waukegan. Miss Carolyn Saathoff entertained her bridge club Monday evening at her home on S. Second street.

Mrs. C. F. Schrier of Olney, Ill., who has come to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Wm. F. Guyot of Glenview avenue, is on the sick list.

Miss Dorothy Himmler is leaving today (Thursday) for St. Louis, Mo., where she will visit Mary Lou and Hilda Walters, former residents of Highland Park.

The first annual Harvest Home Fellowship supper held at the First United Evangelical church, November 21, was attended by about 150 members and friends. The special program given, with an appropriate message by Rev. R. E. Swanson of the Swedish Mission church of Winnetka, was appreciated by all. Walter E. Willard, 277 Linden Park Place, has been promoted to the rank of second lieutenant in the R.O.T.C. field artillery at the University of Illinois.

The Robert Aynsley's are moving next week from 980 Greenbush road to 646 Homewood avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Larson will entertain the members of their 500 club Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William Guyot drove to Mansfield, Ill., to visit Mr. Guyot's sister, Mrs. Robert Meredith, over the week end.

Rev. R. E. Swanson of Winnetka preached at the First United Evangelical church last Sunday evening and Rev. F. Brandellner, pastor of the local church, supplied at the Swedish Mission church of Winnetka.

Hop, skip and jump! Let's see who will beat. For mother has promised A marshmallow treat.

ECONOMY BUYING

I WISH I had kept count of the exact number of times homemakers have protested in response to my enthusiasm for marshmallows in cookery. "But you have to waste so many! You can't possibly use more than half a package at a time, and the rest are all dried up before you want to use them again. It's too much of an extravagance for me!" Now campfire marshmallows have furnished the perfect retort to that remark: the triple sealed economy package.

When you buy a pound package of marshmallows nowadays, you really buy four separate packages of a quarter-pound each. Each one has its own sealed waxed-paper overcoat to keep its contents fresh and tender until you are ready to open and use it; and each contains just sixteen plump, luscious marshmallows. If your recipe calls for less than the whole sixteen in any pack-ette, it is highly improbable that the children and men in your family will allow the remainder to go to waste!

When considering the cost of marshmallows, don't forget that their use need not be confined to one dish, or even to half a dozen. If you have used them in your favorite pudding today, you need not wait to use them again until you are ready to repeat the same pudding. Salads, sweet potatoes, candies, cakes, hot beverages, and above all home-made ice cream, all cry out for marshmallows, whether to add new flavor and texture, to extend the quantity, or to substitute for sugar.

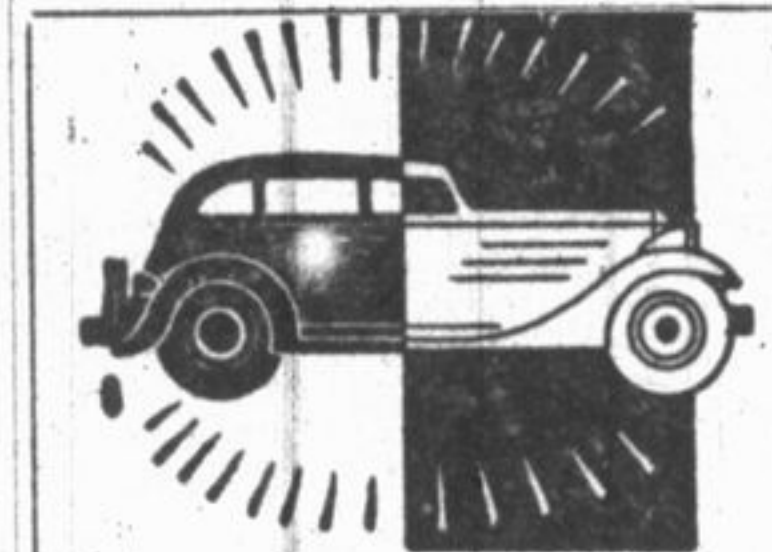

And if you have children coming home hungry from school every afternoon, remember that a marshmallow or two is a light, wholesome, quickly digested source of the quick energy they need. Keep a supply always on your pantry shelf.

be staged by Col. W. de Basil's Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo in its engagement at the Auditorium, in Chicago, opening Sunday, Nov. 24. There will be eight performances at night, the last on December 1, and matinees November 27 and 30 and December 1.

Dancing by dozens of the finest dancers in the world, scenery and costumes by brilliant, original artists and music by a symphony orchestra are combined in the performances of the ballet, now on its third annual tour of the United States under the direction of S. Hurok.

Since the ballet left the United States last Spring, it has appeared in Monte Carlo, Barcelona, and for three months at Covent Garden, London. It has been attracting capacity audiences in the present tour, beginning with a record-breaking engagement at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York.

The ballets new in the repertoire this season, included in those which will be danced in Chicago, are The Midnight Sun, The Good Humored Ladies and Choreartium, the latter danced to the music of Brahms' Fourth Symphony, all three of these produced by Leonide Massine, outstanding male dancer of the company, and A Hundred Kisses, Scheherzade and Spectre de la Rose.

THE DIPLOMATIC HOT DOG

For the first time in history, the lowly hot dog—boon to baseball fan, pet of circus goer—appears in a "diplomatic role."

A German Ambassador and his distinguished party, en route between Milwaukee and Chicago, accorded the humble frankfurter official recognition. They told the North Shore Line conductor that in all their travels they had yet to taste a real, dyed-in-the-mustard, American hot dog.

A resourceful dining car steward proved that he was something of a diplomat himself when, a short time later, the Ambassador entered the diner. There before him was a unique token of international good will—a platter of steaming hot dogs!

This incident is one of a number of unusual North Shore Line "white flag" services performed every day. It is taken from the new booklet "White Flags." You may get a copy by writing, or asking,

Commends Work Of Civic Orchestra

With the Thanksgiving turkey digested, it is hoped that every member of the Civic Orchestra will be present at the next rehearsal, Friday evening, November 29, at eight o'clock sharp, at the Parish House of Trinity Church, 201 Laurel avenue. A member of the faculty of the Columbia School of Music who has been present at some of the recent rehearsals, expressed surprise that a town the size of Highland Park could command the services of such a group of fine instrumentalists, and she marveled at the ability of the conductor, Mrs. Helen Mayer Mannings, to obtain such splendid musical results from a group rehearsing but once a week.

General Hugh Johnson is quoted as writing that the political pledges of 1932 were broken. This was hot news several months ago.

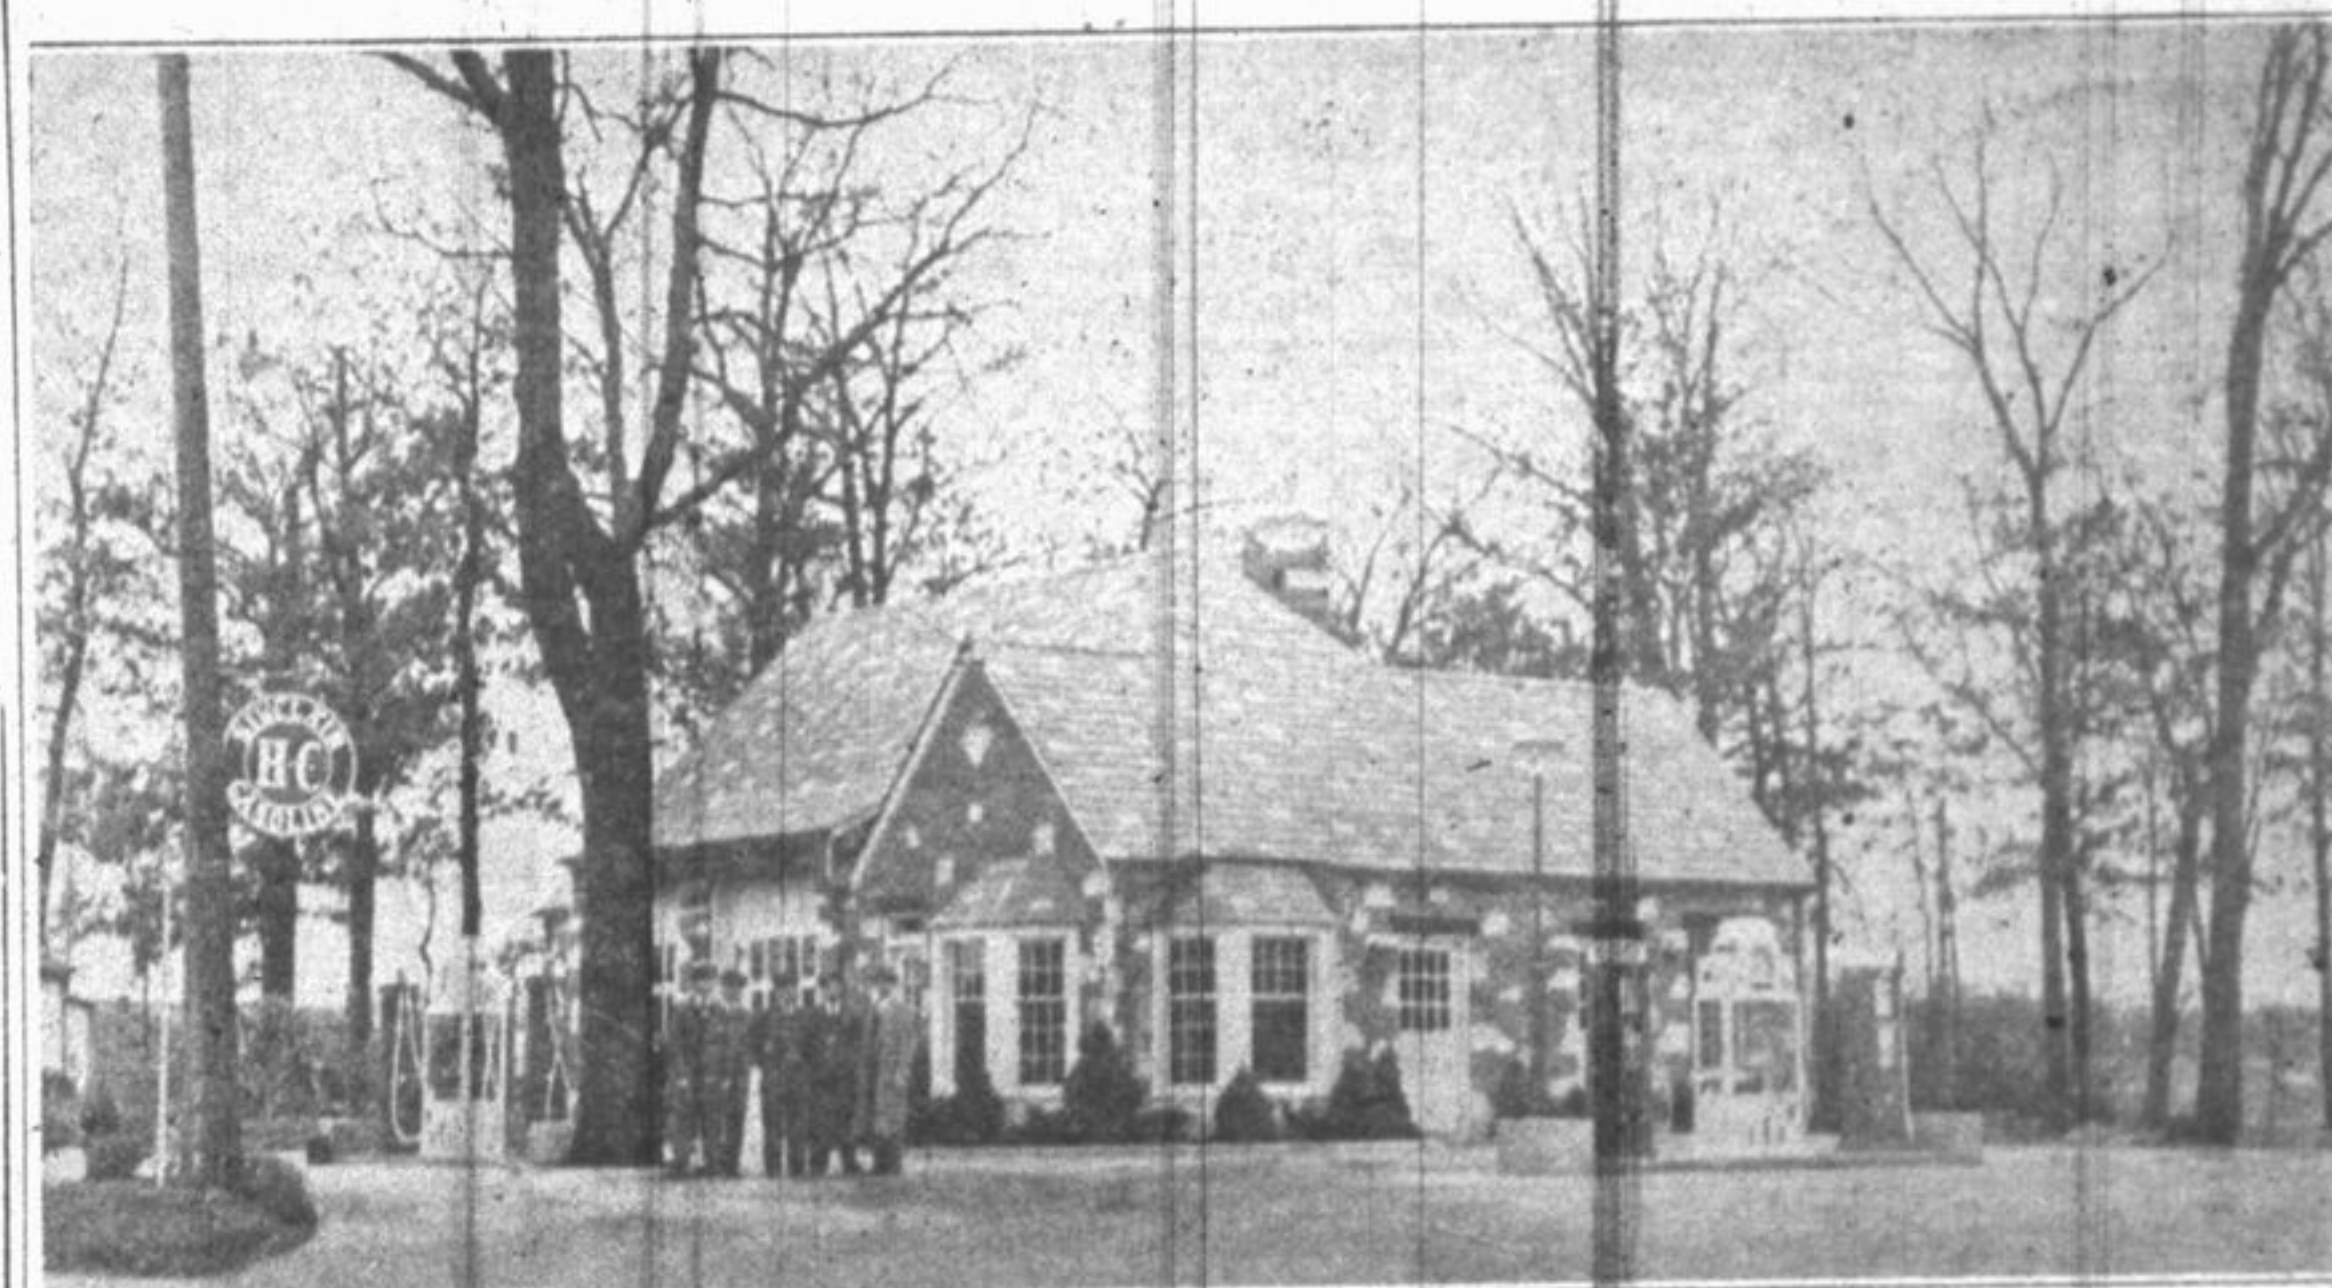

The Yale Class of 1924, which fifteen months ago was 68 per cent in favor of the Roosevelt program is now 69 per cent against it. Probably the President, like a good Harvard man, will now quote the succinct phrase of contumely made famous by John the orangemen—"It's hell wid Yale!"—Boston Transcript.
