

DEERFIELD

MRS. ROBERT E. PETTIS, Correspondent

Deerfield young people who will be returning home from college this week for the Thanksgiving holidays are Robert Ginter, Virginia Farmer and Joseph W. Brown, of Bannockburn, Walton Reeds, Richard Mer-ner, Helen Engstrom, Jean Brand and Mary Hoffman, all from the University of Illinois; Jane and Henry Crawford, David Stryker, Edgely Todd and Ruth Bolt of Lake Forest college; Charles Orsborn, Bradley Institute; George Ashman, Virginia Military Academy; Betty Hoffman, Lewis Institute; Doris Hunter, University of Chicago; William Crawford, Lawrence College; Mary Jane Condon, Art Institute; Clifford Stanger, Y.M.C.A. College; Olive Frantz, North Central College; Elizabeth and Margaret Burghart, Sacred Heart Academy; Eleanor McDermott, National College of Education, and Thomas McDermott, St. John's Military Academy. Many others are in states too far away to permit them returning home for the week-end holiday.

Mrs. Ella Linderholm Rose and daughter Mary Lou of Lake Forest spent Thursday with Mrs. Berry Devine.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clements of Winnetka and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wilson and children of Ravinia were guests, at the Russell Potterton home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Barrett and children will attend a family reunion at the home of Mr. Barrett's mother, Mrs. Lucy Barrett, in Chicago on Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. Worth Dewey of Chestnut street entertained at cards on Saturday evening.

Mrs. S. S. Love, Mrs. Berry Devine, Mrs. Mildred Love Gunckel and Miss Verene Gunckel visited Betty and June Gunckel in Chicago on Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Trute of Chicago spent Tuesday and Wednesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rogow of Park avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mau, with Frederick and Alice Simons of Chicago spent Sunday with relatives here and were dinner guests at the William Johnston home.

The Deerfield Camp of Royal Neighbors will meet Friday evening at the Town Hall. A pot luck supper will be served.

Harry E. Moore and Miss Esther Merrett of Chicago visited at the Reichelt home on Sunday.

Miss Rose Frost had as her Sunday guests Miss Margaret Shiels and Miss Julia Verbeke of Lake Forest.

Mrs. Leonard North will entertain the Independent Social club on Wednesday afternoon.

Ward Anderson, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Anderson, has been very ill for the past three weeks.

Mrs. James Ryan has moved to the Carl Mau apartment on Forest avenue. The Ryan house on Chestnut street, now owned by William Lesser of Northfield, is being redecorated preparatory to renting it.

Miss Caryl Frantz entertained the Y.P.M.C. of the Bethlehem church at her home on Saturday evening. The young people are preparing a Christmas box to send to Miss Edna Fritsch at Roark, Kentucky. The box will contain articles for distribution to the mission children where Miss Fritsch teaches.

Miss Anna Marie Herrmann was hostess to members of the M.M. club last Tuesday evening. This group of girls will play "Santa" to a needy Chicago family. There are three children in this family, ages 7 and 5 years and four weeks old. The girls visited at this home last Saturday.

Girl Scouts of Troop One gave a surprise party for their leader, Miss Beth Andrew, on Wednesday afternoon at the Bethlehem church.

Mrs. Elsie Oberrauch McKenzie of Glenview entertained at a miscellaneous shower for Miss Verda Varner of Highland Park last Thursday evening. Miss Varner's marriage to Gerald Robertson took place on Friday in the Deerfield Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Floyd Stanger and Mrs. Arthur Lee will be hostesses to the Bethel Woman's Auxiliary on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. William Neville entertained at a shower on Wednesday evening in compliment to Miss Verda Varner.

David Stryker is a member of the Lake Forest College Men's Glee Club. The group sang in Milwaukee on Friday evening.

The Dorcas Society of the Presbyterian church will hold its annual bazaar and dinner on Thursday, Dec. 5, with the serving beginning at 6:30 p.m. The bazaar will open in the afternoon.

Thilo H. Toll has been confined to his home because of a serious knee injury.

The Chatter 'N' Sew club will meet Wednesday evening, Dec. 11, at the home of Mrs. Alex Willman.

Mrs. G. A. A. Willen will entertain her contract bridge club on Friday afternoon, Dec. 6. Mrs. Clarence Anderson was hostess to the group last Friday.

Mrs. Arthur Pagel will be hostess to the Evangelical Daughters of St. Paul's church at a party on Wednesday, Dec. 11.

Mrs. George Engstrom will entertain her sewing club on Wednesday, Dec. 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnston entertained the Neighborhood club on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Hans Bahr was hostess to the Quid Nunco club on Tuesday evening.

The Deerfield chapter of the Eastern Star will hold a public installation on Thursday evening, December 5, at the Masonic Temple.

The next meeting of the Deerfield P.T.A. will be a Christmas entertainment by the school children, not at the regular meeting date but at a later date in December.

Jacob Kies was guest of honor at a dinner in observance of his 86th birthday anniversary on Tuesday, Nov. 19, at his home in Northbrook. Guests came from Paxton, Gibson City, Park Ridge and this vicinity to offer felicitations.

Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Hipsley celebrated their 23rd wedding anniversary on Wednesday, Nov. 20, at their home in Northbrook. Mrs. Hipsley's many friends in Deerfield will be glad to know that he has improved in health and has returned to his duties as station agent in Northbrook.

Conrad Uchtman was "Legion Chef" on Monday evening and the oyster stew was enjoyed by Deerfield Legionnaires at their regular meeting at the Masonic Temple. The annual turkey dinner, with Russell Potterton in charge, will be held Saturday, December 9.

A Men's Fellowship dinner and forum were held last Tuesday evening at the Presbyterian church. A special feature of this meeting was the music furnished by a part of the Euterpe Mandolinistic club of Highland Park, with Mr. E. Picchiotti as soloist. This musical club has traveled all over the country giving concerts and it was fortunate to have secured the services of these popular musicians. The address by Dr. George L. Robinson on "Ethiopia" offered a very unusual opportunity to the men and their friends. The dinner was served by Circle No. 2.

Funeral services for Peter Newton were held Tuesday at the Holy Name Cathedral, Chicago, where solemn requiem mass was celebrated and interment was in Mount Carmel cemetery. Mr. Newton and his daughter, the late Miss Julia, lived for years with his sister, the late Mrs. Theresa Minorini, in Deerfield. Since his sister's death he has resided at the Bradley hotel in Chicago. He was born in Italy 66 years ago where the family name was spelled Neuton. He came to Chicago when he was eleven years of age. Mr. Newton's death occurred Saturday at the Henrotin hospital following an illness of about a month. Among the various clubs where Mr. Newton had been employed since 1890 were the Union League club, Chicago Athletic club, Hamilton club, South Shore Country club, and the Sky Line club. Surviving him are his sister, Mrs. Amelia Lama and his brother, Frank.

Miss Alice Eads and Catherine Cunningham have organized a children's choir at the Holy Cross church in Deerfield, which meets every Sunday morning at ten o'clock to sing Christmas hymns.

Miss Alice Eads, who was taking her novitiate at the Sisters of Loreto Convent in Canada, and is home on a year's leave of absence, plans to leave shortly for New Mexico. Miss Eads is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Burns of Todd Court and makes her home with them.
