Dorothy Thompson, chaplain; Ethel Stanger, marshal; Jean Sinclair, conductress; Alvina Culver, associate conductress; Lydia Harris, organist; Effie Grimson, Adah; Iva Henderson, Ruth; Myrtle Weiss, Esther; Dorothea Aynsley, Martha; Hazel Warren, Electa; Rose Marshall, warden; Norman Culver, sentinel; Martha Keel, instructress; Bessie Okey, soloist and Jean Bruce correspondent.

The installing officers were: Martha Keel, installing officer; Catherine Levin, marshal; Blanche Muller, chaplain and Ralph S. Jacobs, organist. These officers were escorted by past worthy patrons, Chas. Brown, Edward Strenger and George Weiss. Peter Grimson gave the ode to the flag and Phoebe Bowers, sang several appropriate solos.

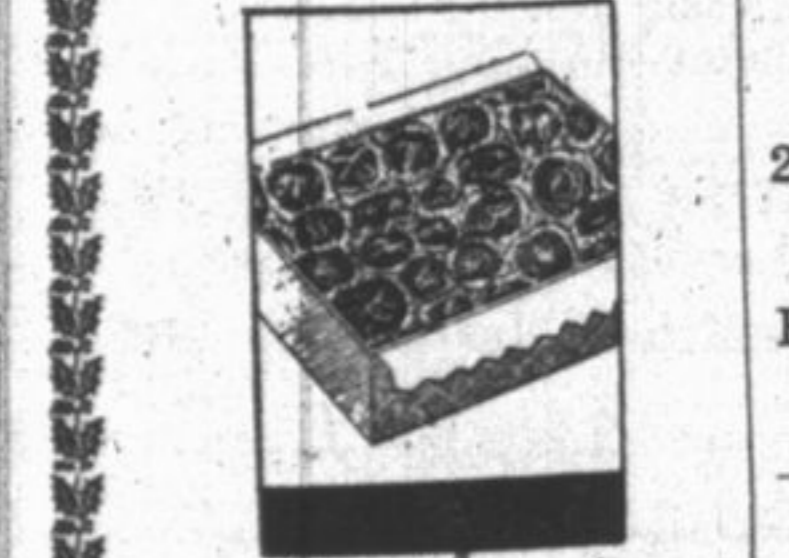

At the close of the installation there were remarks from several of the officers, and a moment of reverence was felt when the retiring matron and patron signed the Bible. The retiring matron was presented a jewel by Mrs. Frances Larson and the worthy patron's jewel was presented by Mr. Hugo Schneider. A delightful musical program including trombone selections by Miss Ethel Button of Deerfield, solos by Miss Bowers and Mrs. Muller and several xylophone selections by
