COURTESY CAMPAIGN

"A Courtesy Campaign" is being conducted at the local high school for the purpose of "brushing up" on etiquette. It seems a very good idea, for not that the young people are ignorant or as many say "don't know any better," yet are extremely thoughtless in many manners. The majority of young people receive this training at home, and additional training is given at the local schools.

However, suffice it to say, it is not only the young people who need this "etiquette over hauling." Many of the older people are sadly lacking in courtesy.

In these days of hurry, getting ready for the holiday season, it is a very simple matter to become easily irritated over some trifling matter. Let's not forget that the clerk behind the counter is not responsible for all the mistakes made.

Have you ever stood next to some overbearing person who is laying down the law to some innocent clerk or office help. What was your reaction? Or perhaps you have been this clerk, and fully realize how belittled you felt, yet if you treated the customer in like manner, your position would be gone.

Let us all have more consideration for the other fellow, and do unto others as we would like others to do unto us. Don't push and shove and be generally disagreeable in crowds. The little "thank you" and similar signs of appreciation mean much in our busy lives. A kind word often turneth away wrath. Why not extend this courtesy campaign to our homes, and each one brush up individually on our etiquette.

"The Curtain Rises"
Friday-Saturday

Ronan depicts the part of Franz Kernmann, the understudy of the famous Wilhelm, with an understanding and delightful finesse; Marc Aisner has a very happy part as the thoroughly likeable and charming Rudolph Dortmund in which he seems to be entirely at home; Leland Waite, as Arny Zander, interprets that unique gentleman as "Arny" should be.

"The String Quintet" from the Deerfield-Shields high school will play at the performances both Friday and Saturday evenings, preceding the rising of the curtain and during the intermissions.

The members of the Drama committee will be hostesses at these performances; they include Mrs. Frank Ronan, and Mrs. R. H. Price, chairman of the group, and Mrs. Frank Sturtevant, Mrs. Wade McNutt, Mrs. Joseph Tew, Mrs. Garfield Canright and Mrs. John Oliver. Those assisting the Drama committee as ushers are the Misses Emily Norcross, Sara Jane Murfey, June Souther and Mrs. Price. Mrs. Garfield Canright is chairman of properties instead of Mrs. Wade McNutt, as was announced last week.

"The Curtain Rises," as presented under the experienced direction of Mr. Jack Sturtevant, a director of the Little Theater in Chicago, is a finished performance in every detail and a charmingly sophisticated three-act comedy such as is not often produced as an amateur drama. The star, Ada Lodise Voss, displays rare histrionic ability combined with a stage presence and charm of personality that is rarely encountered off the professional stage.

Tickets may be obtained through any member of the Woman's club or any of the cast, as well as at the door the nights of the play.

Henry Walther Rites
Held Here Saturday

Funeral services for Henry H. Walther of 122 South Green Bay road, who died last Wednesday in Chicago of a heart attack, were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Trinity Episcopal church. The Rev. Christoph Keller conducted the services. Interment was in the Oakwood cemetery in Waukegan.

He had been connected with the John B. Farwell company for 25 years until they were taken over by Carson Pirie Scott and company ten years ago. Since that time, he had been engaged in the real estate business in Highland Park, although recently the heart ailment, from which he had suffered for several
