Present Miss Wood To Society

On the evening of Thursday, December 26th, Miss Mary Wood, will make her debut at a dance to be given at the Blackstone hotel by her parents, Gen. and Mrs. Robert E. Wood.

Christmas Festivities Planned

We hardly recover from the Thanksgiving dinner when the sound of bells and the singing of Christmas carols rings in our ears and the rush and flourish of Christmas is upon us. Then the students return from school and families get together for celebration. Parties are planned and a hectic week of activity keeps us filled with the holiday spirit. The first party of the season to be held is a tea which is being given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Weber and Mrs. Schultz for their daughters June and Mary Jane. Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. Boynton and their daughters Miss Donna Wynn and Miss Margaret Canfield, have issued invitations to a tea at their home, Sunday afternoon. On Sunday afternoon, Dec. 29th, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bard and daughter, Miss Janet, will be at home from 4 to 7 o'clock to meet their guests Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Storke II of Santa Barbara. The Storkes, who were married in the late fall, are leaving shortly after the holidays on a belated honeymoon trip abroad. Mrs. Storke will be remembered as Miss Barbara Bullard.

Another feature of Sunday afternoon, Dec. 29th, is a tea being given by Dr. and Mrs. William L.

Winters. Mr. and Mrs. Everett L. Easton are entertaining the same day from one to six o'clock at an egg nog party.
