N. S. ICE CARNIVAL TO BE HELD JANUARY 26

Competitive Events, Exhibition and Novelty Acts To Be Featured on Program

Sunset Park in Highland Park will be the scene of one of the most important outdoor sports events of the winter on Sunday afternoon, Jan. 26, when the first annual North Shore Ice Carnival will be staged for the benefit of the West Ridge Community Center.

Plans for the affair were announced today at a meeting of the local men and women who have organized a committee on arrangements to sponsor the meet, which is expected to attract some of the leading skaters of the middle West of Highland Park to enter the various speed, figure and novelty events slated on the program.

In addition to the competitive events, a number of exhibition and novelty acts by famous amateur and professional ice stars are scheduled. Among the featured participants in these specialties are such internationally known performers as Norval Baptie and Gladys Lamb, currently headlining the ice skating show at the College Inn, Chicago, who have long been recognized as the leading professional ice team. Miss Lamb and Mr. Baptie will Uptown Barber Shop give an exhibition of fancy skating and climax their performance with their sensational "airplane spin" act, an exclusive novelty number developed by themselves. Girl skattroupe of ice stars will also per-
