PLANS PROGRESS FOR N. S. ICE CARNIVAL

Local School Children as Well as Rink Stars To Appear

Highland Park youngsters in the four upper grades of the city schools as a group have registered their enthusiastic approval of the first annual North Shore Ice Carnival.

This was evidenced earlier this week when the call went out in seven local grade schools for skaters to enter the preliminary races now being run off to determine the contestants for the finals at the big benefit show to be held in Sunset park on Sunday afternoon, January 26.

If the response to the call sent out by Playground director, George Scheuchenfug is any indication, the juvenile bladesetters consider it the thrill of a lifetime to be given the chance to appear on the same ice with the many skating luminaries who will headline the program at this event. Several hundred youngsters clamored for an opportunity to compete and though many of them have been eliminated in the early trials, all of them are eagerly awaiting the final outcome of the grade school races.

With the school preliminaries thus getting under way, and the announcement this week that arrange-

Rector's Guild To Sponsor Benefit Party

The Rector's Guild of Trinity Episcopal church is busy with plans for what promises to be one of the delightful social events of the winter season for not only its own members but for its many friends in Highland Park.

Mrs. Charles Perrigo, chairman of the Program committee, and the board of the guild are announcing a benefit party for the evening of Saturday, February 15. The ball room, the lounge and the dining room of the Deerpath inn in Lake Forest will be given over to the party.

It is to be a cabaret dance, with an excellent orchestra; also a fashion show, at which well known Chicago and North Shore shops will exhibit winter-cruise, southern beach and early spring styles. These clothes will be displayed by professional models.

The plans call for a midnight supper. For the entertainment of those who might prefer bridge to dancing there will be tables reserved in the Deerpath's lounge, with its attractive stone fire place.

The models will appear in all three rooms during the evening.

Further details as to plans for the event will be announced in a later issue of this paper. Reservations for this party, according to the committee, must be made in advance.

BUILDING AND LOAN HAS FUNDS TO LEND

President Indicates That Association Seeks Good Loans

An indication that better times are at hand and that a revival in the North Shore real estate market has already commenced was seen in a recent interview with William E. Brand, president of the Highland Park Building, Loan and Homestead association. Mr. Brand states that the association now has a large amount of surplus funds on hand which it is seeking to loan to owners of improved real estate in Highland Park and suburbs in conservative loans of $10,000 or less.

Charles F. Grant, secretary of the association, indicated that it is the opinion of the officers and directors of the association that the worst of the depression is over as regards real estate and real estate mortgages. The local Building and Loan association has weathered the storm far better than most building and loan associations in the state of Illinois and better than most similar financial institutions. It has met its maturities promptly and has been able to meet withdrawals far more promptly than most of the building and loan associations in the state. Mr. Grant stated that the association now is in a position where it has surplus funds which it is seeking to loan to responsible persons on first mortgages upon improved north shore real estate.

The Highland Park Building, Loan and Homestead association is one of the oldest institutions in Highland Park, its origin going back to 1888. There are few serious defaults in the mortgages held by the association at this time according to officials.

HONOR POLICE CHIEF'S 20 YEARS OF SERVICE

Friends Express Appreciation of Services of Police Chief "Ed" Moroney

In recognition of his twenty consecutive years of faithful service on the Highland Park police force, Police Chief "Ed" Moroney was last night presented with a gold watch by his friends who have known and worked with him during his years of service.

Feeling that the outstanding success which has marked his efforts during the past twenty years is in no small part due to the cooperation of his wife, the same group expressed their appreciation of her part in his task with the presentation of a silver tea set.

Mayor William M. Dooley made the presentation of the watch in the following words:

Friend Ed: "There is a pretty general and well defined sentiment among the people of Highland Park that you have rendered an excellent and highly commendable brand of service as a public officer of this city since you entered upon that service 20 years ago, today.

"And while your friends are legion—just a few of those who hold your friendship in warmest affection have taken it upon themselves to offer you a slight indication of their confidence and their esteem.

"And they have allowed me the honor and great pleasure of presenting to you this token of their high regard and friendship.

"We sincerely hope that as this watch ticks out the minutes, the hours and the days of your stay here on earth, each tick will bring you more happiness and more joy and a ripe old age, filled with peace and contentment.

"We congratulate you upon having attained this record of 20 consecutive years of faithful and conscientious service."

In expressing his appreciation of the gift, "Ed" stated that he wished to take the opportunity of thanking the men and women he has worked with for the splendid treatment he has received from them ever since he took office. He also thanked his friends for remembering his wife, saying that he knew she would appreciate their recognition of the part she has played in helping him.

Others who spoke briefly, commiserating the chief included Commissioners Taylor, Gourley, Brown and Greenleaf, Chief Tiffany of the Lake Forest police force, Mrs. V. C. Musser, Mrs. Edith Meyer, Mrs. Hunke and Mr. George Prindle. All praised the efficiency of the police department under his management and wished him many years of happiness.

Stolen Articles Held at Police Station Here

Announcement is made by the Highland Park police department residents who have had articles pilfered from parked cars may possibly find them at the local police station.

Articles recovered from persons who purchased them from Don Bartoli, who has confessed obtaining robes, clothing and other articles from parked cars, are being held at the Highland Park station for identification by their owners.

Among the articles being held are three robes stolen last Thursday night, on Moraine road, one on Lincoln avenue and one on either Beech or Cedar street. Other robes were stolen from the Ravinia skating rink and from in front of the North Western station.

Any one who has purchased articles from Bartoli is warned to turn them in to the local station immediately in order to avoid prosecution for receiving stolen goods.

Stolen goods are also being held for identification at the Highway and Lake Forest stations. They include automobile robes, suit cases, suits and overcoats.

OFFICER, MAN, AND FRIEND

On Wednesday of this week, Police Chief Edward Moroney of the Highland Park force completed twenty years of service, 17 of which were in the capacity of chief of the department.

Mr. Moroney recalls that twenty years ago, when he first became a member—temporarily, he then believed—there were only two other policemen on the force, William Meyers and John Grant. In February of the same year, 1916, William Howell was added to the department, as was Charles Carey in June.

"Ed," as he is known throughout the community, recalls that at that time, on calls within a reasonable distance, there were only two types of transportation, walking and running. However, if the call was from any considerable distance, it was sometimes possible to obtain a taxi. It was not until almost two and one-half years after his appointment to the force, in the summer of 1918, that an automobile became a part of the equipment.

Through these twenty years of public service "Ed" Moroney has achieved an enviable reputation as a police officer, as a man, and as a friend. As a police officer, his human understanding, straightforwardness, and kindness stamp him as one of the finest types a community can produce.

As a police officer and as a man he is outstanding, but those who know him best, know him as a friend. Never judging, always looking for the best and always finding something worth while, he is well fitted to typify the proverb that "to have a friend you must be a friend." If further proof of his innate quality of friendship were needed it could easily be found in the people of all ages in all walks of life who know him and call him friend.

He states that "Highland Park is the best town in the world." For him it should be. He has done far more than his share to make it so.

Will Rogers' Last Picture at Alcyon

A performance that traces a course from heart-rending pathos to the gayest comedy, punctuated with lighthearted humor and dancing feet, is given by 9-year-old Jane Withers in "This Is the Life," which is showing at the Alcyon Friday and Saturday.

Will Roger's last picture and one of his best—"In Old Kentucky"—radiates humor and flashes action at the Alcyon theatre three days beginning this Sunday. This star is his lovely homely self, trying to fix up everything for everybody and handing out a laugh a minute while the story gallops thrillingly around a race track.

Whatever your cinema tastes and preferences, you'll thrill to the picture "The Melody Lingers On" at the Alcyon on Wednesday and Thursday coming. Josephine Hutchinson has never been better and George Houston is a "find" indeed, bringing to the screen a rare combination of striking good looks, charm, acting ability and a magnificent baritone voice.

P. H. PRIOR APPOINTED TO ILLINOIS ASS'N

Made Key Man of Illinois Federation of Retail Associations

P. H. Prior, prominent local retail merchant, has been appointed as one of the legislative key men of the Illinois Federation of Retail Associations, is announced by J. T. Meek executive secretary of the federation.

Mr. Prior was appointed through the retail division of the Highland Park chamber of commerce, which is very active in its efforts to coordinate all lines of retailing in constructively combating harmful legislation and in furthering an understanding of retail problems on the part of the consumer.

Leading merchants in each city of the state are to form the nucleus of legislative effort with respect to the sales tax, social security and all other legislation considered to have a direct bearing on retailing in Illinois.

Among the most important points to be developed, according to Mr. Meek and Mr. Prior, will be a program designed to acquaint consumers of the fact that nearly all taxes levied on business of any kind will be ultimately placed on the shoulders of the consumer through absolute necessity on the part of business. Thus it is hoped that the retail legislative organizations throughout the state will not only protect retailers against harmful legislation but will also unite all consumers in a universal protest against irrational governmental spending and in favor of sane legislation, which will not hamper but encourage business.
