

KET
RK 4040

's Coffee
TE BLEND

2 1-pound cans 69c

or Steel Cut and full-bodied
DELICIOUS COFFEE

ECIALS!

HOVY PASTE
Highest Quality
15c

CAVIAR
ine Rafco Russian Imported
z. tins $1

Our Own Brand
YONNAISE
e best and purest in-used. 35c

TON CHEESE
y Wine, 45c

RUFFLES
d French, 45c

UCTS
Daily

ER KRAUT and ANKFURTERS
meal, ready to serve can 35c
3 for $1.00

KTAIL STYLE SAUSAGES
warm and serve can 38c
z. can 49c

RWURST
cooked
g 3 for 85c

artment

Rib Roast of Beef
pound 29c
6th and 7th ribs

Frying Chickens
pound 35c
Fresh dressed

Lobsters!
ALIVE OR COOKED
Express shipments from Maine Daily.

Bakery
Department
Specials

FRIDAY—
Cocoanut
Cream Pies
29c

SATURDAY—Orange BREAD
29c

The Highland Park Press

VOL. XXV (25th Year)

HIGHLAND PARK, ILLINOIS THURSDAY, JANUARY 30, 1936

NUMBER 48

PROFESSIONAL MODELS AT SUPPER DANCE

Rector's Guild Sponsors Party February 8 at Deerpath Inn, Lake Forest

Many party plans are centering around the Supper Dance and Fashion Show which takes place at the Deerpath Inn at Lake Forest on Saturday evening, Feb. 8, at 8:30 o'clock, when the Rector's Guild of Trinity church and their friends in Highland Park and along the North Shore take over the Deerpath for the evening.

Throughout the ball-room and dining room, which adjoin and will be thrown into one for this occasion, will be groups of tables for parties of from four to twenty-four, many of which have already been reserved. One of Lew Diamond's orchestras from Chicago will furnish the music for the dancing and fashion show.

During the Fashion Show, which will begin promptly at 10 o'clock, the guests will be initiated into a pre-view of the new spring fashions just arrived from New York. These will be sponsored by all the well known North Shore shops. Among those sending their own models will be Frances Heffernan of Winnetka; Jane Frye of Lake Forest; Hanna, Incorporated; Almee of Winnetka. The Fashion Show will continue for three quarters of an hour.

Mrs. Fred Shafer and Mrs. William F. Bromstedt, Jr., have arranged these fashion displays and are in charge of this feature of the entertainment.

Mrs. W. E. Peters and Mrs. Arthur S. Claghorn, Jr. head the committee in charge of the sale of tickets and reservations, assisted by Mrs. W. C. Haupt, Mrs. Victor Fabian, Mrs. H. S. Vandenberg, Mrs. Clarence A. Parliament, Mrs. R. A. Hicox, Mrs. Norman W. LeVally, Jr., Mrs. Harold G. Brown of Bannockburn.

Mrs. Alfred S. Trude, Jr., and Mrs. C. W. Hills, Jr., are making all arrangements for the delicious buffet supper to be served at 11:30 o'clock by the management of the Deerpath in accordance with their usual excellent service.

All members of the Rector's Guild are busily engaged in various details of plans for the party. There will be bridge in the lounge, as previously announced for those who prefer cards to dancing.

Mrs. Charles Perrigo, chairman of the program committee, and Mrs. William L. Winters, vice-president of the guild are deep in conferences these days with their various committees. Mrs. W. M. Hanley, with the other officers, Mrs. Chase Smith and Mrs. C. J. Haynes, are taking an active part in all arrangements.

Tickets are now on sale at a nominal price. A list of those entertaining before the supper dance will be given in next week's announcements.

1000 ATTEND N. S. ICE CARNIVAL SUNDAY

Sub-Zero Temperatures Fail to Keep Away Throng of Spectators

In spite of sub-zero temperatures, over 1,000 people attended the first annual North Shore Ice Carnival, held Sunday afternoon at Sunset Park. The program, which featured Gladys Lamb and Norval Baptie, in an exhibition, which was climaxed by their famous "airplane spin," included novelty skating events, fancy skating and speed races.

Baptie also gave a demonstration of barrel-jumping, a feat in which he excels. Several hockey games between boys' teams wound up the program.

Members of the committee of carnival arrangements, in addition to Mayor Dooley and Mr. Sihler, were Lyle Gourley, Milton J. Hardacre, president of the East Park district; Robert L. Grinnell, president of School District 108; C. E. Bates, superintendent of School District 109; R. H. Price, superintendent of School District 107; Clark G. Wright, superintendent of Highland Park schools; William Hammond, Lincoln school athletic director, and E. J. Brown, Sunset Park athletic director.

Others were Howard Copp, Brae-side school athletic director; Burt Leach, Elm Place school athletic director; C. C. Hatcher Jr., president of the West Ridge Community club, and Laurie Abt, Col. J. B. Jackson, William Mann, and W. H. Krumbach, members of the club.

Mother, Father, Aunt and Uncle, in One Day, Is 1936 Record

Becoming mother, father, aunt and uncle within 12 hours was the 1936 record established on Monday of this week by Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Levernick and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Levernick, both families of Hazel and Park avenues, Deerfield.

Prominent Couples Wed Fifty Years Celebrate Sunday

Next Sunday, two couples who have resided in Highland Park for many years will celebrate their golden wedding anniversaries. Mr. and Mrs. Aaron A. Dahl who reside in the Laegeler building and Mr. and Mrs. William O'Flaherty of Milwaukee, who until 11 years ago lived in Highland Park were married fifty years ago at Ft. Totten and Ft. Bufford, N.D., close to Devils Lake, where they were close friends.

The Dahls will hold open house from 4 to 7 o'clock for their friends, while the O'Flaherty's will celebrate with a family dinner at the home of their daughter Mrs. John Sobey, followed by open house from 5 to 9 o'clock for their friends.

Mrs. O'Flaherty was born in New Orleans while her husband was born in Ireland. They have six children, Mrs. William H. Burke of Milwaukee, Mrs. Sobey of Highland Park, Miss Stella O'Flaherty of Oshkosh, George of Waukegan, James of Duluth, Minn., and William of Chicago. There are fourteen grand children and three great grandchildren.

Mrs. Dahl was born in Denmark, February 26, 1863 and Mr. Dahl was born in Sweden, Jan. 8, 1862. They came to Highwood in 1889, where they have resided since. They have two sons, Ernest who lives in New York and Carl who resides in Wilmette. There are five grandchildren. Mr. Dahl has been a tailor for many years, and at the present time is tailor at the North Shore line office.

Horner for Governor Club Forms in Highland Park

A Highland Park "Horner for Governor" club had its initial meeting at the Public Library auditorium Tuesday evening. This meeting was attended by a number of local citizens who are interested in the reelection of Governor Horner and are opposed to the Kelly-Nash political machine in the operation of state government.

Dr. Robert Bosworth, Mr. Sidney Stein, and Mr. Phil McKenna gave informative talks as to the accomplishments and aims of Governor Horner.

Zimmer to Manage Picchetti Brothers Meaf Department

Picchetti Brothers announce that beginning February 1, Winfred B. Zimmer will take charge of their meat department. They feel that Mr. Zimmer's long experience in this line of work will assure their patron's of the finest meats, expertly cut and reasonably priced.

Adult Education Classes Reopen Feb. 3

In spite of sub-zero weather 130 at the high school last Monday eve-people registered for the new term.

Classes will reopen next Monday night at 7:30. Those who have not already registered are urged to be at the school by 7 so that classes may begin on time. From the number of telephone calls a large number of students are expected to register this week.

Attention is again called to Prof. Strevey's course on current events which are expected to register this week.

Mrs. P. M. Murray entertained the social committee of the Highland Park Woman's club, Tuesday afternoon.

DEERFIELD-SHIELDS P.-T. MEETING FEB. 6

Mothers of Elm Place District to Be Hostesses at Regular Meeting

Mothers of the Elm Place district, with Mrs. Frank Ronan as chairman, will be the hostesses of the day at the regular monthly meeting of the Deerfield-Shields Parent-Teacher association to be held in the girl's gymnasium at the high school on February 6 at 3 p.m.

The program, which will consist of tea served in the gymnasium, followed by informal conferences for parents and teachers, will be taken charge of by Miss Mary Thompson, head of the girl's physical education department and Miss Lulu Lasswell, school nurse.

About 115 girls will take part in a demonstration of the physical education curriculum, which includes corrective gymnasium work. There will also be an exhibition of equipment, suits, D.G.A. awards and bulletin board work.

Miss Lasswell will speak on the health problems of the school and will explain the health records maintained.

All who are interested in physical education for girls in healthful and corrective exercise and in a program of intra-mural sports for girls, are invited to attend.

A. F. Stephenson To Address Lions Club

Allan F. Stephenson, District Governor of northern Illinois for the Lions International, will be the guest speaker at the meeting of the Highland Park Lions club at the Green Teaport at 6:30 p.m. Thursday (today).

District Governor Stephenson will speak on "The Growth of Lionism." He is a graduate of the University of Iowa and at present is district traffic superintendent of the Illinois Bell Telephone company. He has been secretary and president of the Lake View Lions club, vice-president and president of the Cook County Council of Lions clubs and a director of the Illinois District 1-A of Lions International.

Special entertainment has been arranged for the meeting by the program committee composed of Emmett Duffy, Paul Olson and Robert Ansbach. Several high school students under the direction of Miss Rinkenberger will provide some of the special numbers.

Invitations have been sent to Lions clubs at Winnetka and Libertyville to attend the meeting here Thursday night.

Last week, a delegation of the Highland Park Lions club attended a meeting of the Winnetka club and presented that club with the local organizations financial contribution to the Hadley Institute for the Blind. This contribution provides one free scholarship to the blind school for one year.

Woman's Union to Hear Lecture Tuesday, Feb. 3

"Out of Grandmother's Attic" is the title of a talk to be given next Monday, February 3, before the Women's union of the Highland Park Presbyterian church. Ruth Wallis Wagner of Evanston tells the story of old New England furnishings and customs, and brings with her many quaint articles for the interest and enjoyment of her audience.

Mrs. Wagner is a woman with a background of historical interest, and her talks are not alone about early American furniture, but she leads her audience through the realms of primitive lighting, and fire-place cookery showing utensils used in those days. She has been in great demand for women's clubs and has given programs for almost all the large clubs in the Chicago area as well as for various chapters of the D.A.R. A cordial invitation is extended to all who would like to hear this program. The hour is 2 p.m. in the Parish house.

Frank Knox To Speak at Republican Rally

Col. Frank Knox, Republican candidate for president of the United States, will address a Republican rally at the Waukegan High School gymnasium on Tuesday, Feb. 3, at 8 p.m.

The program for the evening will include music by the Waukegan Union Band.

Card Party, Feb. 10

The Royal Arcanum are giving a card and bunco party at Masonic temple, Monday evening, February 10 at 8 o'clock. Bridge, 500 and Bunco will be played. Refreshments will be served. The public is invited.

PAUL M. ANGLE TO SPEAK HERE FEB. 4

At Woman's Club; Social Committee Plans Valentine Party

Mr. Paul McClelland Angle, one of the outstanding scholars specializing in the life of Lincoln, will speak before the Highland Park Woman's club at the regular club meeting on Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 4, at two o'clock—his subject "Abraham Lincoln." Mr. Angle is the editor of "New Letters and Papers of Lincoln" and "Herndon's Life of Lincoln." He collaborated with Carl Sandburg in "Mary Lincoln, Wife and Widow"; and is the author of "Lincoln, 1854-1861." Formerly executive secretary of the Abraham Lincoln association, Mr. Angle is now librarian of the Illinois State Historical Library. His new book, "Here I Have Lived: History of Lincoln's Springfield 1821-1865" was published about six weeks ago.

Mr. Angle received his A.B. from Miami university and his M.A. from the University of Illinois, having also attended Oberlin college. He is a member of the American Historical association, the American Library association and the Mississippi Valley Historical association.

Coming as it does so near to the birthday of this greatly beloved historical figure, this program will be of special significance to those interested in learning more of all that pertains to the life and influence of Abraham Lincoln.

On the morning of the 4th, at 10 a.m., the Education committee is bringing to the club Mr. Reuben Cahn, who was formerly professor of economics at Northwestern university and is now an editorial writer for the Chicago Tribune, to discuss "The Present Economic Situation." Mr. Cahn is a resident of (Continued on Page 4)

Elect Officers of Community Service

At a meeting of the members of Community Service Inc. held Monday evening, Jan. 20, at the public library, George R. Jones was re-elected president; J. B. Garnett and F. J. Ronan were re-elected vice-presidents, and Mrs. E. J. Grundy was elected and all but one old director are retired or re-elected. This year only one new member was elected and all but one old member re-elected. Mr. Charles C. Hatcher Jr. is the new member to be elected.

Community Service Inc., a non-profit sharing corporation, is operated primarily for the purpose of providing and supervising recreation in the community. Also in cooperation with the Deerfield-Shields High School and the Adult Education Council a project in adult education is fostered. The staff also co-operates with the schools and other organizations in Highland Park in their recreational work. Its offices are maintained in the old city hall located at 649 Central Avenue, tel. H. P. 858.

Child Poetress Has Verse Published

Grace Yoe Williams, child poetess of Highland Park, whose work has appeared frequently in Child Life magazine during past years, and who is a member of the Child Life Pen and Pencil Club, has had the following verse published in the February issue of Child Life:

TO MY FAVORITE STAR
Little star up in the sky,
May you pass the earth close by
Twinkling, blinking at the moon
I shall see you very soon.

Dr. E. O. Meloy at Lincoln P. T. A. Meet

Dr. E. O. Meloy, dean of the School of Education at Northwestern university, will speak on "Modern School at Work," at the Lincoln School P.-T. A. meeting, Tuesday evening, February 4 at 8 o'clock.

Super Service Station Opens in Deerfield

Announcement is made this week of the opening of the Deerfield Super-Service Station, R. R. Knaak, proprietor, located at 745 Waukegan Road, Deerfield.

The station, which will specialize in Sinclair products, has been completely remodeled into one of the most up-to-date one-stop service stations on the North Shore.

Cooking Demonstration to Open Here Friday

Phil Libby, of The Highland Park Press Home Service Department to Show Modern Methods of Cooking to Highland Parkers

H. P. Woman's Club to Sponsor Photographic Contest for Amateurs

Announcement is made of the second annual photographic contest for local amateurs under the sponsorship of the art department of the Highland Park Woman's club during the month of April.

Alcyon Theater To Present Shirley Temple

Tonight and Friday brings an excellent picture to the screen of the Alcyon. "Dr. Socrates," featuring Paul Muni and Ann Dvorak, is crammed full of exciting episodes and situations which have been taken from a novel by W. R. Burnett. "Moonlight on the Prairie," starring Dick Foran and Shiela Mannors, introduces a new type of Western drama. It has all the rough riding, thrilling action and daring stunts of the old Westerns, but adds to this the songs of the cowboys around the campfires and on the prairies Saturday of this week.

Shirley Temple scores a brilliant triumph in "The Littlest Rebel" at the Alcyon three days starting this Sunday. The scene in which Shirley visits Abraham Lincoln (Frank McFlynn) is one of the best ever screened. Karen Morley and John Boles play Shirley's parents, while Bill Robinson is excellent as the faithful slave who does marvelous tap routines with the little star.

Barton MacLane, whose work in "G-Men," "Dr. Socrates" and "The Frisco Kid" made him the screen's No. 1 bad man, has at last been given an opportunity to show his versatility as well as his talent for characterization, in the heroic role of steel foreman and high executive in "Man of Iron." The film has much comedy as well as thrilling action and romance with Mary Astor and Dorothy Peterson in the cast. An Alcyon attraction for Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

Young People To Present Play Feb. 7-8

An evening's entertainment of humorous plays will be presented by the young people of the Redeemer Lutheran Church next Thursday and Friday evenings, Feb. 7-8.

"Who Gets the Car, Tonight," is a vexing problem at times even in well regulated families. Pa and Ma, Junior and Sis, each have important dates, for which each absolutely must have the car. This problem is solved the youngsters, who give promise of real stage ability.

The trials and troubles of an amateur stage director are a heavy burden to bear. The second sketch called: "Dress Reversal" gives the audience a back stage review of a mercurial coach driving his players like a slave driver.

The third sketch deals with the age-old story of a mortgage on a farm, and portrays the resourcefulness of young people in measuring up to opportunities, with the spice of romance added.

For the evening of wholesome entertainment the Walther League offers this program.

Philatelic Society Meets Next Monday

The North Suburban Philatelic society will meet next Monday evening at the Elm Place school. The auction planned for this meeting has been postponed and will be held Monday, March 2.

The Blind Exchange, instituted at the last meeting of the club proved so popular, that the club is planning many more for the future.

D. B. E. Plan Card Party, Saturday

The Plymouth chapter, Daughters of the British Empire will hold a card party at the home of Mrs. S. Lauridson, 374 North avenue, Highland Park on Saturday evening, February 1 at 8 o'clock. Mrs. B. Drake will be hostess. Interested friends are cordially invited. The proceeds will benefit the British Old People's Home at Riverside, Ill.

Beginning Friday, January 31, and continuing through Tuesday, February 11, the Highland Park Press and North Shore Gas company will present an unusual cooking demonstration in the model kitchen in the gas company's Highland Park office.

The demonstrations will be held daily from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. The demonstrator will be Phil Libby, widely experienced food expert and former chef in the Niumala hotel, Honolulu; Gilpatrick Acres, LaMoine, Me.; Carlin Cafe, Milwaukee, Wis.; and experimental and test cook with the Gulf Caribbean Food company.

One feature of this demonstration which will appeal to those who want detailed information on cooking questions and recipes will be the individual attention Mr. Libby will offer everyone who attends. This demonstration will not be a group affair, but one which will give women, and men a real opportunity to learn more about cooking and foods in a personal and individual manner.

Another attractive feature is, that one may visit the demonstration at any time during the day and stay only as long as one wishes. There will be a continuous demonstration each day during this event.

Everyone is invited to attend the demonstrations without obligation of any kind.

Dinner Dance in Ravinia, Feb. 15

The social committee of the Ravinia Woman's club is planning a dinner dance to be held at the Ravinia Village House Saturday, Feb. 15. All members of the club and their guests are invited. There will be a good dinner and Bert Rammet's excellent orchestra will again furnish the music. Reservations must be made by Monday, Feb. 10 to Mrs. Eugene Karn, 4066, or Mrs. Ed. Knox, 684.

Exmoor Club To Show German Film

By arrangement with the German railways, the Exmoor Country club will present beautiful and thrilling moving pictures of Garmisch-Partenkirchen, famous German winter resort and scene of this year's winter Olympic sports, Sunday evening, at 5 o'clock.

There will also be pictures of scenes near Eagle River, Wis., Wisconsin's winter wonderland. The regular winter sports program will also be featured outdoor and indoor during the afternoon and evening.

W. C. T. U. To Meet
The Highland Park W.C.T.U. will meet at the residence of Mrs. A. M. Cline, 589 Homewood avenue on Wednesday, Feb. 5, for an all-day meeting. This meeting will be in honor of Frances Willard, founder of the organization.

FELLOWSHIP CLUB TO MEET TUESDAY

H. F. Crunden, of Bell Co., To Speak on Telephone Communication

Members of the Men's Fellowship club of the Presbyterian church will hear H. F. Crunden, of the Illinois Bell Telephone Company, speak on "The History and Romance of the Telephone," at the regular dinner meeting of the organization, to be held Tuesday evening, Feb. 4, at the church.

Mr. Crunden's talk will be supplemented by three reels of sound motion pictures displaying the workings of telephonic communication, including wireless, radio-network broadcasting and sound-movies.

Miss Harriett Vitum to Speak Here Feb. 5

The Highland Park group of the Northwestern settlement will meet at the home of Mrs. I. K. Davie, 804 S. Linden avenue, on Wednesday, Feb. 5 at 1:30. The guest of honor will be Miss Harriett Vitum, the house resident of the Northwestern settlement in Chicago.