

Deerfield
Local and Personal

Open house will be held at the Rockenbach home on Sunday, Feb. 2, from 2 until 8 o'clock in honor of the 95th birthday anniversary of George Rockenbach. On Saturday is expected that his great grandchildren will be his guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Plagge announce the birth of a son on Jan. 25 at the Oak Park Hospital. Robert William weighed nine pounds and six ounces. The newly arrived son is the 24th great grandchild of George Rockenbach.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Getty of Wayne, Pa., were guests on Sunday at the Fred LaBahn home. Mr. Getty returned east on Sunday, but Mrs. Getty remained until Tuesday. The Gettys are former Deerfield residents. Other Sunday guests at the LaBahn home were Mr. and Mrs. George LaBahn and daughter Irma, and Mrs. C. Niebur of Evanston.

Miss Margaret Appleton, attendance secretary of the Deerfield Shields high school, has scarlet fever and is in the contagious hospital in Lake Forest.

Florence Koller and James McGarvie II, visited at the Andrew McGarvie home in Chicago on Sunday. Mrs. McGarvie is the former Rosetta Taylor.

J. Emerson Morgan of Greeley, Iowa, has returned to Deerfield and is staying at the A. J. Montavon home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Peterson and Miss Verene Gunekel spent Sunday at the Clayton Fehr home in Oak Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Metzger and

Miss Margaret Morrison of Waukegan were Sunday guests at the Earl Frost home.

Robert Elmer, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hoffman was christened at the 10 o'clock mass at the Holy Cross church on Sunday by Father Joseph Savage. Sponsors were Jack and Mary Sheahan of Highland Park.

Mrs. Edwin Palmer entertained her bridge club yesterday afternoon at her home on Central avenue.

Mrs. W. W. Stemm will be hostess at luncheon on Wednesday, Feb. 12, to members of the Independent Social club.

Mrs. Perle N. Butson (Winifred Plagge) left on Monday for her home in Estherville, Iowa. Mrs. Butson was called here because of the death of her mother, Mrs. Henry Plagge last week.

Miss Irene Rockenbach returned home Sunday from St. Luke's hospital, Chicago, where she recently underwent a major operation and she is progressing nicely. Miss Lillian Rockenbach of Chicago accompanied her aunt to Deerfield.

The sixtieth anniversary celebration of St. Paul's church will begin Sunday, Feb. 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Johnson and Alfred Falberg, of Becker, Minn., and Mrs. Henry Johnson of St. Croix, Minn., were week-end guests at the Carl E. Olson home on Greenwood avenue.

The Deerfield A and P store has moved into a temporary location in the Moeller building on North Waukegan road until the Wing building, destroyed by fire last week, is rebuilt.

Dr. W. F. Weir read the marriage service for Miss Cecelia Abbott and Mr. John H. Walker at the Second Presbyterian church in Evanston on Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock. Mrs. Weir attended the service also, and both were guests at the reception which followed at the Georgian hotel in Evanston.

Mrs. Joseph Feldkirchner of Dixon, Ill., has been visiting her two daughters, Mrs. Harold Melling of Fair Oaks avenue and Mrs. Horace Mackley of Sheridan place. Mrs. Feldkirchner will visit a son in Chicago before returning home.

Rev. and Mrs. Earl J. Bruno entertained the officers of the E. L. C. E. and the Y. P. M. C. at the parsonage of the Bethlehem church on Tuesday evening, where they discussed the advisability of organizing the young people's work through the medium of a young people's council.

Mrs. James Wilson is in the Waukegan hospital. The family has been quarantined for scarlet fever, because of the illness of a daughter, Betty, and it is thought that Mrs. Wilson had contracted the disease also.

Monsignor Thomas Quinn, a former priest of the Deerfield Holy Cross church, has been very ill in St. Anthony's hospital in Chicago. His sister, Mrs. Peter J. Duffy, has been visiting him frequently during his illness.

Maurice Allsbrow underwent a major operation in addition to an appendectomy and tonsilectomy at the Highland Park hospital recently and returned home on Saturday to recuperate.

Mrs. Edward Trier of Chicago is entertaining her luncheon 500 club on Wednesday, Feb. 5, at the home of Mrs. Earl Frost, Osterman avenue.

The card party given by St. Paul's Ladies' Aid society on Thursday at the new church activity room was well attended in spite of the sub-zero weather. The door prizes were awarded to Mrs. John Strong, Mrs. B. H. Kress, Mrs. Sam Rockenbach and Mrs. W. W. Stemm, and the quilt to Mrs. Raymond Bell. There were attractive prizes for each table, also.

Ira Gardner, former assistant cashier of the Deerfield State bank, is very seriously ill at his home.

Arthur Kress returned home Friday from St. Luke's hospital, Chicago, much improved, after a five months successful effort in saving his left arm, which was severely injured in an auto accident last summer.

The Altar and Rosary society of the Holy Cross church will meet Friday evening, Feb. 7, in the parish hall. Meetings have now been changed to the first Friday of each month. Mrs. John Welch is program chairman and Mrs. Alex Willman, president.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Worth of North Chestnut street, spent the fore part of the week in Waukegan because of the death on Saturday of Mr. Worth's mother, due to pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Hutchison spent Sunday at the Roy Hutchison home in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Giss will be hosts to the Bethlehem Fireside club on Thursday evening, Feb. 20.

Mrs. William Johnson, Mrs. George Pettis and Mrs. Fred Meyer attended the R.N.A. meeting and dinner on Monday in the Karcher hotel, Waukegan.

Mrs. Alex Willman is entertaining her bridge club this afternoon.

Miss Charlotte Brand will be hostess to the Just Sew club on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Peter Liest is visiting her daughter Mrs. Harry Anderson in Chicago.

Mary Frances Anderson celebrated her 13th birthday anniversary on Friday. She is a daughter of the Peter Andersons of North Chestnut street.

Mrs. Marie Bender of Chicago

spent Thursday with her sister Mrs. Harry E. Wing.

The Wilmot Mother's club will meet Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 4, at the school. A new electric stove has been purchased for the school lunch room, which will make the serving of lunches to the children and for their benefit parties, a much easier task.

The Bethlehem Woman's auxiliary is meeting this afternoon at the church for the annual election of officers.

Mrs. Henry Segert is ill with pleurisy. Her sister, Mrs. Fred Beckman of Prairie View, is staying at the Segert home.

Miss Louise Huhn will be hostess at the next meeting of the Mutual club.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frost have returned from a two months visit with their son, Ira Frost in Pontiac, Mich.

St. Paul's Ladies' Aid society will meet Thursday, Feb. 6, at 2 p.m. at the church. Mrs. John Ott, president, will lead the discussion on "Our Task in Latin America." Hostesses for the social hour will be Mrs. Charles Selig, Mrs. Christ Willman and Mrs. John Ott.

Miss Bertha Freese is recovering from a fall on the icy pavement last Friday when she was injured. The Thursday Evening Dinner club is meeting this evening with Mrs. Irving Brand.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Vantine are planning to leave soon for a two months sojourn in Miami, Fla.

Mrs. Henry Geiger (Marian Taylor) and son Bobby of Chicago are spending several days at the Alex Taylor home.

Mrs. F. W. Russo attended the Hoosier Salon on Saturday. Her father, Edward K. Williams, of Brown County, Ind., is exhibiting a painting "Morning Light."

The fire department was called to the Horace Mackley home, 1016 Sheridan place, Deerfield, on Monday morning. Bursting hot water pipes has been the cause of the false alarm. This is the house which was formerly occupied by the Edward Reagans, where a serious fire damaged the bungalow several years ago. The volunteer fire fighters answered a call at the L. H. Waite home on Friday evening—but there was no damage by fire there either.

Deerfield Grammar school's relay ice skating team which included George and Edward Tanielian, Thurston Hurst, and Frank Stuppel won first place at the Highland Park ice skating carnival on Sunday. Try-outs at the community skating rink had been given the preceding week for the four upper grades, with the following results: fifth grade, Frank Harris and La Verne Kruse; sixth grade, Rosemary Willen and Carter Reeds seventh grade, Ruth Herman and Edward Tanielian eighth grade, Martha Ashman and Frank Stuppel.

Quality Cleaners
AND
RELIABLE LAUNDRY
DRY CLEANING CO.
Phone H. P. 178

Rigid Inspection Is Our Policy!

Washed Clean,
Fluffed Dry, and APPROVED!

Rigid inspection after your blankets have been washed assures you the finest, most satisfactory laundering that can be obtained anywhere... Try Skokie Valley Laundry on that next "Wash Day."

Phone
Highland Park
3310

"Good Laundering Is Cheaper Than New Clothes."
Skokie Valley Laundry INC.
QUALITY LAUNDERERS & DRY CLEANERS
507-509 WAUKEGAN AVE. — HIGHLAND PARK 3310

QUALITY CUT RATE MARKET
WE DELIVER
307 WAUKEGAN AVENUE PHONE HIGHWOOD 1241

Special For Friday & Saturday

Swift's Jewel Shortening Lb. 14c	Pure RENDERED LARD Lb. 15c	Swift's GEM NUT MARGARINE Lb. 15c
---	-------------------------------------	--

BROOKFIELD BUTTER lb. 35c
OR SUNLIGHT

Native Beef ROUND STEAK Lb. 25c	Native Beef SIRLOIN STEAK Lb. 29c	Porterhouse or T-Bone Steaks Well Aged Lb. 35c
--	--	---

Fresh Ground Hamburger all beef lb. 15c

Swift's PARD DOG FOOD 3 cans for 25c	Native Beef TENDERLOIN Whole Lb. 29c	Richter's HEALTH WEINERS Lb. 25c
---	---	---

Boneless Rolled Leg Veal Roast lb. 29½c

Evanston's
Early American Inn for Choice Rooms and Suites

All Homestead visitors are delighted with its Early American charm. And they praise its food, which includes many delicious New England and Southern dishes. You'll like it here, too.

Rooms for transients—suites for permanent guests. Suggest to your out-of-town friends that when they come to Chicago they enjoy the quiet comforts of Evanston's Early American Inn.

The HOMESTEAD
IN EVANSTON
Operated by
PHILIP A. DANIELSON
1625 HINMAN AVENUE
Telephone—GREENLEAF 3300
EVANSTON, ILL.

The Highland Park
Press
and
North Shore
Gas Company announce their Food
Demonstration

9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. daily
JAN. 31 to FEB. 11
inclusive

in the Model Gas Kitchen of the Gas Company's Highland Park Office

PHIL LIBBY
Chef and Food Expert
who knows 8,500 recipes, will be in charge

DON'T MISS THIS FOOD DEMONSTRATION... IT IS FREE TO ALL HIGHLAND
PARK PRESS READERS AND THEIR FRIENDS.

Read Phil Libby's "Recipe Box" feature appearing weekly in The Highland Park Press