

Women Voters To Hear Mrs. Quincy Wright

A series of informal dinner parties given by members of the Highland Park League of Women Voters will precede the lecture to be held next Wednesday evening, Feb. 19, at 8 o'clock in the Ravinia Village House, by Mrs. Quincy Wright whose subject will be "Can the United States Be Neutral?" Among those who will entertain are Mrs. Jay Glidden, president of the league; Mrs. George Gaidzik, Mrs. Paul Bergholder, Mrs. Earl Jerome, Mrs. I. M. Greenberg, Mrs. Marc Law and Mrs. Fred Law, Mr. and Mrs. Quincy Wright will be the guests of Mrs. Carroll Binder, the program chairman.

The meeting is open to the public without charge.

At a meeting of the board of the League of Women Voters on Feb. 11, in the YWCA, it was reported by chairmen of the six departments that study groups were being enthusiastically attended by a total of 84 members. Members who find they can still attend are welcome and non-members may join the group at a nominal fee. The groups meet as follows: Department of Economic Welfare at the home of Mrs. George Carr, Wednesdays at 10 a.m.; Department of Child Welfare, under Mrs. Frank Selfridge, at the library Mondays at 10 a.m.; Department of International Cooperation, under Mrs. I. M. Greenberg, at the library Tuesdays at 1:30 p.m.; Department of Education at the home of Mrs. Walter Rubens, Thursdays at 10 a.m. The groups in the departments of government and its operation, under Mrs. Clarence Balke and the status of women under Mrs. George Gaidzik are yet to be organized.

After seven and one-half hours of dual instruction in an airplane, Robert McMillan, 17, of North Central High school, Spokane, Washington, made his first solo flight.

Sunday Evening Club To Hear New Speaker

Dr. Phillips Elliott, a young man who is making a deep impression on the church and laity of Brooklyn, New York, through his ministry in the First Presbyterian church there, will speak for the Sunday Evening club in Orchestra hall the first time Sunday. His subject will be "The Passion for Service." In the absence of Clifford W.

Barnes, the president of the club, who is in California, Clarence E. Randall, a trustee, will preside. The Melodists of Maywood will give a special program at 7 o'clock, and the club's choir of 125 will sing Beethoven's "Hallelujah" from the Mt. of Olives oratorio, and the Philo Otis arrangement of "A Mighty Fortress." Mark Love, soloist, will sing "Judge Me, O God," and be heard with the choir in the solo part of "By the Waters of Babylon." Admission to these services is free.
