Ravinia Players Will Present New Type of Production Feb. 21

Breaking off completely from the 1016 Willoughby Tower Tel. Central $355 203 North Wabash Avenue Tel. State 6326 type of play which they have presented in the past, the Ravinia Players will give their first costume play next week, when they give their W. Levy's fantasy, "Mrs. Moonlight," 6 cents per single copy at the Ravinia Village House, on February 21.

Until now, all of the productions of the group have been plays of the present, but in this one they not only will go to the past, but each of the three acts takes place in a different period.

The play is the story of a woman who is very much in love with her The Zion Lutheran church will hold husband, and who is afraid that a Preaching Mission at their church, when she grows old she will be less ning Sunday evening, February 16 has in her possession, as a gift from Threshold Players, in Glencoe, and week will begin at 8 p.m. every eve- is supposed to bear a charm, and Rogers Park.
