If you are lacking in energy and vitality, he may prescribe an extra quantity of some special vitamins or combination. And when you have a Doctor's prescription, we'll appreciate the privilege of filling it. Remember, our stock of food concentrates is always fresh and complete.

GREEN BAY SCHOOL ABRAHAM LINCOLN AND THE PIG
One time Abraham Lincoln bought himself some new clothes. He was all dressed up and was on the way to Sunday school. He looked down and saw a pig stuck in a mud hole. He could not go on to Sunday school and leave the pig to die, so he pulled and pulled and finally got him out, but his new clothes were all spoiled.—Jack Lazard.

ASSEMBLY PROGRAM
Last week we had a nice program in the auditorium. The 3rd grades told us about Robinson Crusoe. The girls' Glee club sang three songs and the 4th grades showed us their geography books.

SIX CENTS
One day Abraham Lincoln was in his store. An old lady came in. She bought some things. Abraham short changed her. Abraham walked six miles to give her the six cents.—Thomas Adair.

SAYINGS OF LINCOLN
"Be sure you are right and then go ahead."
"All that I am or ever hope to be I owe to my sainted mother."—Charles Larrabee.

BOOK REPORTS
In 4th grade English we are making book reports. We tell about the author's life, about the characters in the story, the plot and why we like the book.—Edgar Liebenstein.

MANUAL TRAINING
In manual training we are making locks, freighters and bridges. We are making the locks so that the water goes up and down. First we took a piece of wood and cut the end on a slant. Then we made the bottom of the locks. Then we made the top piece and the gates so they will open. We painted them and they were all finished.—Lorenz Werhane.

Two very famous birthdays are very close together. They are Abraham Lincoln's and George Washington's. Lincoln's is February 12, and Washington's is February 22. We will celebrate them both in the auditorium with special programs.—Betty Smolinsky.

A POEM
The sparkling snow comes down so fast,
Like diamonds in the air,
I love to watch it in the sky,
Fluttering here and there.
By Betty Smolinsky.

LINCOLN SCHOOL
Oh, tall, gaunt stranger,
You have faithfully played your part,
You have gained your nation's tribute,
Long remembered in every heart.
And the words so wise you've spoken,
Have borne the test of years,
They have bound our states together,
Wiped away our nations tears.
The nation will long remember,
It will fly our flag for you,
For you, our noble hero,
The red, the white, the blue.
By Jean B. Rosenthal, 8A1.

OUR SCHOOL ASSEMBLIES
Last Monday we had an assembly program in honor of Rudyard Kipling who died last month. This program was in charge of the 6th grade literature classes. In the beginning a summary was given of his life. Upon request we sang two of Kipling's songs "Children's Hymn" and the chorus of "On the Road to Mandalay." A few of Kipling's poems were recited followed by a dramatization of "How the Camel Got His Hump." We, the children of Elm Place, are very familiar with this renowned author and poet, Rudyard Kipling.

DEERFIELD SCHOOL Abraham Lincoln
The light was suddenly snapped on. The darkness vanished and suddenly, as if by the rub of Aladdin's lamp, a mortal light faced the problems of all mankind. A new illuminator, far greater than any known. The rays of that man were direct and swift, carrying a spreading warmth to that nation.

This same light was unexpectedly snapped off, leaving the world again to grow accustomed to the bewildering darkness, awaiting the rays of another new light. Never again can this world expect rays as bright as those of Abraham Lincoln.—By Josephine Lloyd, 8A.
