Chicago Flower Show to Be Held March 21 to 29

Tenth Annual Show Presented by Illinois Garden Club at Navy Pier

The tenth annual Chicago Flower Show, presented by the Garden Club of Illinois at Navy Pier, March 21-29, in spite of the prolonged cold of this coldest winter since 1889, will bring to Chicago all the beauty that has been planned by the seventy-five clubs which are working on exhibits, among them the local Garden club.

Trees, — poplars, birches, plum, pear and apple were pruned and tubbed last fall, placed in cold storage and brought out into the warmth and artificial sunlight in time to burst into bloom for the opening day of the show.

Shrubs, among them lilacs, forsythia, flowering plum, bridal wreath and pussy willow, were selected and trimmed last summer that there might be an abundance of bloom when they were wanted.

Thousands of bulbs have been planted—narcissi, tulips, hyacinths, fritillaria, scillas, muscari and many more.

Plants from tiny pinks and violas to great rose plants have been potted and are growing along in warm greenhouses to be ready.

The Bannockburn club will, as usual, be a part of this great show. They will have a flower arrangement, modern—with three quarters of the water exposed. Mrs. Marshall Doty is the president of the club and Mrs. E. R. Seese, of Deerfield, is chairman of the exhibit.

The contest among the students at the various art schools in the city was held as usual, and the posters advertising the show are ready for distribution. A committee of the Bannockburn Garden club for several years past, have wrapped these posters ready to send to various parts of the city. They were in at headquarters, 307 Palmer House, Chicago, last Friday, getting this most important task accomplished.

The committee included: Mrs. E. J. Ginter, Mrs. W. L. Keady, Mrs. H. L. Brown, and Mrs. William Aitken. The North Shore Garden club, with Mrs. Julius Rosenwald, president, will also have flower arrangements at the show.

Few clubs can boast of regular meetings over a period of twenty years, so as a feature of general interest to our women readers we print the story of a club without dues to which every Highland Park mother is eligible.

Almost twenty years ago some of the mothers who are still members of the Mothers' club were bringing their baby daughters who are now Mothers' club members themselves, to the Highland Park Y.W.C.A. From a beginning of seven mothers who dropped into the "Y" for a cup of tea and a "cookie for the baby" to the present membership of eighty with a real influence in the community, this group has steadily served the practical interest of mothers and homemakers.

Today's mothers of twenty years ago, now grandmothers, who are still active members with their daughters include Mrs. Madge Smith and her daughter, Mrs. Charles Berry; Mrs. Minnie Gerken and her two daughters, Mrs. William Davison and Mrs. Grant Benson; Mrs. Mary Demski of Glencoe and her daughter, Mrs. Willis Gerken.

Mrs. O. L. Olesen, former president of the Highland Park Y.W.C.A., is called "the mother of the Mothers' club." She tells how she volunteered to help the "Y" secretary sweep up the cracker crumbs after those first tea parties for babies twenty years ago, and from that beginning developed a regular education and recreation program with elected club officers. "George Jones gave us an annual concert, also the Brand orchestra, a friend of mine just back from ambulance driving in France told her experiences, and soon we had thirty coming to the meetings. Then programs were changed to evenings so that the fathers could keep the babies. That plan of bringing father into it has been enlarged to include a husbands' dinner once a year as a reward. At that time there were no movies in Highland Park and people did not seem to have discovered bridge."

Outlining the many plans for the club programs, Mrs. Einer Paulsen, president, points out that activities are chosen to offer recreation and education for all members and that every mother in Highland Park from great-grandmothers to the young mother who has her first baby is invited to meetings. On the second and fourth Wednesday each month the Handicraft group, instructed by Mrs. Thomas Marks and Mrs. Helen Boyce, get together. The Red Cross free courses in home hygiene and care of the sick, as well as in first aid, are sponsored by the club. In February the meeting was "Everybody's birthday party" with Mrs. Ingar Boye as a guest speaker on reading for children. Mrs. Theodore Osborn, president of the Highland Park Y.W.C.A. was made an honorary member this month. March features a card party open to the public on Tuesday, March 3, and a white elephant party on March 10. April brings the annual hatch keys for ladies play; May, a cooking demonstration; June, annual meeting and exhibit of members' handicraft. Through all of these meetings runs the additional purpose of promoting friendship among the members and fellowship in the Y.W.C.A.

Many efficient committee members carry the service of the Mothers' club into the homes of members. Mrs. Louis Schemmel, as chairman of the Sunshine committee calls on the sick, bringing a basket of fruit from the club. Mrs. Schemmel is also the official representative of the Mothers' club on the board of directors of the Highland Park "Y". Sick children of members are remembered with fruit or a gift by Mrs. Cora St. John, chairman of the children's sick benefit fund.

Mrs. John Sobey, vice-president, is in charge of donations for prizes at card parties; Mrs. G. K. McCreadie, as chairman of the refreshment committee, in five minutes any time, can get volunteers for home-made cakes or cookies to feed one hundred people. Mrs. John Barber, entertainment chairman—and the Mothers' club is famous for its unusual, gay parties—is aided by Mrs. Elmer Therrien, Mrs. Edward Therrien, Jr., Mrs. Paul Webb, and Mrs. Ludwig Tjaden. Mrs. Theodore Arnsward, reording secretary, Mrs. John Picchetti, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Ernest Farneti, treasurer, Mrs. John Fay, publicity, are all working with the president, Mrs. Einar Paulsen. "We invite any mothers interested in the club to phone the officers or call the "Y", Highland Park 675, to find out more about our activities," says Mrs. Paulsen speaking for all the members of this informal, hospitable club. "Newcomers particularly are invited as many women have found congenial friends and even neighbors through the Mothers' club they would not have known otherwise."
