

DEERFIELD LOCALS

Dr. and Mrs. Walter B. Metcalf left on Sunday for Detroit, Mich., to attend the annual session of the American College of Physicians being held from Monday through Thursday of this week. Mrs. Metcalf will go up to Canada to visit friends on Monday and Tuesday, returning to Detroit to attend the banquet on Wednesday with Dr. Metcalf, who is a member of the college. The Metcalfs are returning on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clavey and family have moved from Waukegan and are now living in their home at 825 Forest avenue. The T. W. Alder family, who had been occupying the Clavey house, have bought a home in Ravinia.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Alder announce the birth of a baby girl at the Passavant hospital, Chicago, last week.

Miss Ducker and Mrs. Reichelt attended the national conference of the Progressive Education association which was held in the Palmer House in Chicago last Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Scully, Sr., and two daughters, Margaret and Jean, left Saturday for Concord, N. H. to attend the funeral of Mr. Scully's sister, Mrs. H. S. Hillegass, who passed away at the Christian Science Home in Concord.

Mr. and Mrs. William Schley of Libertyville visited at the Charles A. Selig home on Sunday.

Melvin M. Grootemont of Appleton, Wis., visited his sister, Mrs. G. A. Willen on Monday.

The engagement of Miss Aleda Frisbie of Lake Forest and Edward Cazel, son of the Homer Cazels, of Deerfield, is being announced by Miss Frisbie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Frisbie.

Marriage licenses were issued last week in Waukegan to Wellington Quirk, age 46, Deerfield, and Elsie Gibbons, 36, Glencoe; and Stanley Fredrickson, 24, of Highland Park and Jeanette A. Reeb, 21, of Deerfield.

Miss Mary Hood spent the week-end with Miss Sue Witt. Miss Hood and her father, James J. Hood, have taken an apartment in Chicago. The people who were occupying Mr. Hood's house on West Deerfield road have gone east.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schar spent Sunday at the Ernest Haseman home in Long Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Reeds and sons were Sunday guests at the Roy Hutchison home in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Frost have a son born Wednesday, Feb. 26, at the Highland Park hospital.

Donald Ginter, eleven year old son of the D. J. Ginters of Park avenue, who has been in a cast for many months, is now able to play outside and will return to school soon.

Mrs. E. J. Brusco was guest of honor at a surprise birthday party on Tuesday at the Bethlehem Woman's Missionary society.

The Jesse Varner family moved from Northfield to the former Winyard house on the Grove farm.

Hubert Juhrend, who started on a trip south to Florida with Richard Evans, returned home Wednesday because of ill health.

William Selig of Chicago spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Selig.

Miss Dorothy Wessling spent the week-end with Miss Olive Frantz at North Central college in Naperville. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Milton Frantz and Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Wessling drove to Naperville and Dorothy returned home with them. Olive will spend this week-end in Deerfield.

Dr. V. W. Spriggs, dentist, and Dr. C. R. Sugden, physician, moved Saturday evening from the Stryker building to offices on the second floor of the Deerfield State Bank building.

Mrs. V. William Briddle will entertain her Contract Bridge club at luncheon tomorrow at her home in Highland Park.

The Chatter 'N' Sew club will meet Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. G. Albert Willen.

Leave has been granted by the Waukegan courts to lease the A. Carl Stadler property on Orchard lane. Mrs. Adam Stadler, mother of the late Mr. Carl Stadler, and his two daughters, are residing there.

Mrs. Thomas Mooney entertained her luncheon 500 club on Wednesday at her home on Ridge road.

St. Paul's Guild is meeting Friday afternoon (tomorrow) at the home of Mrs. C. V. Steiner.

Mrs. Leonard North and Mrs. Raymond Dobbins filled the stations of Esther and associate matron on Wednesday evening for Friday's night of Campbell chapter, Highland Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Peterson will be hosts to the Bethlehem Fireside club on March 19 at their home on Chestnut street.

A Christian Education rally will be held in the Bethlehem Evangelical church on Friday, March 20. There will be afternoon and evening sessions. Supper will be served in the church parlors by the women of the congregation.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Hutchison spent Thursday at the William Hutchison home in Waukegan.

The E. S. Worthams of Chicago will come to Deerfield again in May to occupy the Leslie Brand home for the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Youngs and daughter Joan and Mrs. Youngs' mother, Mrs. Grace Cottrell of Brittany road are vacationing in Florida. Miss Myrtle Cottrell left on Sunday to join her family in the south.

Mrs. W. L. Walton was hostess to her luncheon bridge club on Wednesday at the Green Tea Pot. Mrs. Leslie Brand will entertain the club next Wednesday.

Mrs. Hubert McGuire Sr. is entertaining the Holy Cross Sewing guild on Thursday (today).

Lenten services are being held each morning at 7:30 o'clock and on Tuesday and Friday evenings at 8 o'clock in the Holy Cross church.

The Altar and Rosary society will meet tomorrow evening at the Holy Cross parish hall for a business meeting following the Lenten devotions.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nielsen, who had been living in the apartment in the John Stryker home, have moved to Northbrook.

Mrs. W. F. Weir entertained her bridge club on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. G. R. Bassinger is entertaining the Bethlehem Woman's Auxiliary at an all-day quilting party today at her home on Central avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. William White and children of Chicago spent Sunday at the Sam Rockebach home.

Miss Jane Warner, who has been home on leave of absence from her nurses training at the Presbyterian hospital, Chicago, for several months to recuperate from an operation, went back on Monday to her work.

Rey and Mrs. E. J. Brusco attended the funeral of Rev. Arthur Byas in Chicago on Monday. Rev. Byas, a former district superintendent of the Evangelical church, was superintendent of the Deaconess hospital in Chicago and pastor of the church next to the hospital, which burned recently.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Greim and two children spent the week-end with relatives in Rock Island, Ill.

John and George Sims of Chicago visited their mother, Mrs. Richard Sims at the Senior Scully home on Saturday.

Mrs. Harold Nerman of Bannockburn opened her home yesterday for a party for the mothers of the Bannockburn grade school children.

A box social is being held this evening by the Deerfield Chapter, O. E. S., at the Masonic temple.

A special meeting of the Deerfield board was held last night. The next regular meeting is scheduled for Tuesday evening, March 10.

An amateur hour was held Monday morning at the Deerfield grammar school for the morning assembly. Children of all grades were eligible.

A meeting of Royal Neighbors was held Tuesday evening at the Fred Meyer home to complete plans for their 25th anniversary on March 12.

A surprise party was held Saturday evening in honor of Charles Johnston's birthday, at his home on Fair Oaks avenue.

Mrs. George Pettis, with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Johnson of Half Day, attended a birthday celebration for Mrs. Louis Gathman in Arlington Heights on Sunday.

The Robert Mau family will move from Forest avenue to the Sharp farm (old Reichelt farm) on County Line road.

Dr. W. F. Weir conducted the division on Church Administration for the Chicago Presbytery at the Avondale church on Monday. He addressed the congregation of the Norwood Park church last evening on "The Work of the Presbyterian Church." On Monday evening Dr. Weir will represent the Presbyterian College of Christian Education, Chicago, at the 50th anniversary of Macalester college in St. Paul, Minn. Dr. Weir, who is an instructor in the Presbyterian college in Chicago, is minister of the local church of that denomination.

Mrs. S. S. Love, Mr. and Mrs. Berry Devine, Mrs. Mildred Gunckel and daughter, Verene, visited Mrs. Love's aunt, Miss Margaret Ludlow, at the Charles Welter home in Wilmette on Sunday. Miss Ludlow fractured her ankle in a fall on the ice recently.

Ewald Winter of Chicago spent Sunday with his father, August Winter.

The William Johnstons were hosts to the Neighborhood club on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Dora Hesse and son Elmer of Chicago were Sunday guests at the Conrad Uchtman home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Traute of Chicago spent the week-end at the Albert Roggow home. Sunday guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Richiger and Mr. and Mrs. William Gottschlick of Cicero.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Halloway of Lockport visited Mrs. Harriet Johnston at the William Johnston home on Sunday.

Mrs. Elmer Hoffman entertained at three tables of bridge last Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. John Hoffman's birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wickersham and children spent Saturday at the Charles Scott home in Mundelein. On Sunday, Mrs. Wickersham's brother, Dan Scott and Mrs. Elizabeth Ellis of Antioch were her guests.

Circle Four of the Presbyterian church is meeting tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Louis Metzner. The meeting was postponed from last week because of the illness of the hostess.

E. K. CATTON
Your Typewriter Man
CALL
ALBERT LARSON
STATIONER
Highland Park 567
REPAIRS - RENTALS - SALES

Moran Plumbing & Heating Co.
Witten Building - Highland Park
CLIFFORD R. MORAN, Prop.
Electrol Oil Burners
Sales and Service
Office Phone Highland Park 1060 Res. Phone Highland Park 1343

Deerfield Garage
Chevrolet Sales and Service
745 Waukegan Road Phone Deerfield 7
CORDS PISTON RINGS Are Guaranteed
To Stop Oil Pumping.
To give maximum compression and increased power without motor heating or loss of speed.
No matter how old your motor is, New CORDS Hi-Speed Oil and Compression Piston Rings will restore an even flow of power.
50% LESS CYLINDER WALL WEAR

1936 IS THE TIME TO BUILD

HAPPY, sturdy, and strong is the child blessed with a home and a yard to play in where he has plenty of room to develop in clean, healthful surroundings. To give their children the best that life offers... the extra advantages to be had in a home of their own... hundreds are making use of the exceptional building opportunities of 1936 and are now constructing, in the large area served by the Public Service Company, the homes they have desired for years. • If you are contemplating a home in the attractive residential area served by this company, let us help you plan your gas or electric service requirements. We can also give you preliminary estimates—perhaps helpful ideas on other features of modern homes: automatic heating... air conditioning... electric kitchens... modern laundries... and basement recreation rooms... as well as latest wiring and lighting improvements and other conveniences that increase the comfort of living. (We will be glad to consult with you, your architect, or contractor. Inquire at any of our stores or offices, or write.

Hear Dudley Crafts Watson discuss topics close to the heart of every home lover, and a delightful musical program.
TUNE IN WGN
every Wednesday evening at 9:30

SEE THE MODERN HOME EXHIBIT at the Public Service Store, 911 Church St., Evanston. On display is a full-sized modern kitchen, also service pantry, breakfast room, basement recreation room and home laundry—all built to conform with actual home conditions. An interesting exhibit, free to all.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY OF NORTHERN ILLINOIS
GENERAL OFFICES: 72 WEST ADAMS STREET, CHICAGO
Serving 334 Communities—900 Industries—10,010 Farms—In Northern Illinois

NEUMANS
Waukegan's Lane Bryant Store
127 N. Genesee Street
Waukegan

A Swagger
SUIT
with Schiaparelli's new braided revers
16.75

A grand suit to change into after you've been wearing a strict taitleur—it looks so different in a flattering feminine way. Its swinging lines give it dash... its artist's collar makes it young... and the braided fronts are very dressy.
Ask to see our mannish jacket suits, also 16.95