ISLE ROYALE SCOUTS HOLD REUNION plans for next summer's camping program for older Scouts. Each fellow had a number of pictures taken on the Island and enroute showing various activities and scenery. As a very important part of the cause they loved. They served creatively blazing new trails in service to youth. They have added to the dignity of their profession; to the ad-new units between January 7th and March 10th. It was understood what the prize and price would be and when the Regional Executive, Dwight M. Ramsay made the decision as to who were the winners, all the members of the party went to the Plu-The Scouts who went to Isle Royale last summer instead of going to the National Jamborce at Washington as the delegation from the North Shore Area Council, held a reunion last Saturday evening at the Stairway Grill in Highland Park for the purpose of fellowship and talking over purpose of fellowship and talking over plane for next summer's camping program attended a political rally in Waukegan last Sunday.

While politicians exhorting, someone else was extracting; and Mr. Haas returned home to find that his pocketbook, which fortunately contained no money, was missing.
