Lunch Room Essay Wins Eighth Grade Prize

"Our Lunch Room" is the subject of prize-winning essay written by James Kirk of the 8th grade at Elm Place school in the contest sponsored by the Parent-Teacher association.

Our Lunch Room

Year in and year out the lunch room is a necessity for the children who live too far to go home for lunch.

In cold weather the P.-T. A. provides a hot dish that may be purchased for a small sum of money by the children who can afford to buy it, and to those who cannot afford to pay, a hot dish is given without charge.

The P.-T. A. has strived to make the lunch room an attractive place in which the children may eat. They have provided green tables and comfortable chairs to take the place of the old benches and tippy tables. They have hung bright curtains at the windows and have had the floor and walls painted to make it a more cheerful place.

A teacher who has worked hard all morning always looks forward to her lunch hour. Until this winter the teachers generously gave up their lunch hour to take care of the lunch room. But now the P.-T. A. has had mothers come over and relieve the teachers.

Of all of the help the P.-T. A. has been to our school, perhaps the biggest help to us is the lunch room.

One hundred fifty-two golfers braved the last of the brisk March winds last Saturday and Sunday at Sunset Valley Golf Club to inaugurate the 1936 season which promises to be the best in several years at this popular Highland Park club.

Among the large number of golfers to play on the opening week-end were Fred Nelson, president of the club, and George O'Connell, vice-president.

Tom Kelly, the club pro, was on the job as were his assistants, Bill Rhodes and Bill Chalmers. Joe Kelly greeted old friends and assigned lockers at a rapid rate. Mrs. Rudolph's excellent cuisine was unexpectedly in demand but she rose to the occasion and lived up to her reputation.

All-in-all, it is reported that the opening was a grand success.

Public Invited To View Military Exhibition on Monday, April 6

According to General Merrill's statement, the general public is invited to visit Fort Sheridan from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. where an interesting and varied exhibition has been arranged. The 1st Battalion, 2nd Infantry, will have on display arms and equipment of a modern doughboy soldier, including the necessary equipment for full field service. Eddie Cantor and Marx Brothers at the Alcyon

Because Edward Everett Horton has always managed to fill even the most meagre of his roles with the most thoroughly human and lovable qualities of his personality, his role in the picture, "Your Uncle Dudley," which is featured at the Alcyon on Friday and Saturday, will prove an unforgettable treat to the Horton addicts. It is a wise, sympathetic and often hilariously funny story, with a tailor-made, full-length characterization for Horton that at last proves his right to personal stardom. Lois Wilson and Alan Dinehart play opposite him.

Eddie Cantor is set loose in a gigantic amusement park in "Skeek Me Pink," his sixth annual extravaganza which will be at the Alcyon on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evenings. This laugh-loaded comedy is based on Clarence Budington Kelland's Saturday Evening Post story "Dreamland," in which Sally Eilers, Harry Parke, better known as the Greek dialectician Parkyarkarkus of radio fame, and Ethel Merman are also featured. If you've ever been a Marx fan then you'll find "A Night at the Opera" comes close to being their most hilarious film - if you have not, then this one ought to convince you, for here is a picture that is not only tops for comedy, but one that is built around an intriguing plot, an interesting story and some truly brilliant singing by the two Broadway favorites, Kitty Carlisle and Allan Jones. An Alcyon attraction for Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday.

High School Orchestra To Give Annual Concert Next Sunday, April 5

With a balanced program of modern and classical compositions and, as guest soloist, a former concertmaster of the Chicago Symphony, Mr. Harry Weisbach, playing his violin, the annual Spring Orchestra concert will provide a very pleasant Sunday afternoon to all who wish to come. There is no admission charge, and the concert will begin at 3:30, April 5, in the Highland Park high school auditorium.

Mr. Weisbach Plays

The soloist, whose daughter, Harrietta Weisbach, is a sophomore in this school, will play Beethoven's "Sonata in F major, opus 24," and a snappy gypsy number, "Zigeunerweisen," by Sarasate. He will be accompanied by Olga Sandor at the piano.

The orchestra, under Mrs. Helen M. Manning's baton, will play a selection of popular and symphonic numbers. First on the program is the "Adagio and Allegro," from Haydn's "Second Symphony," followed by Dachs' "Andante and Gavotte." Next is the "Gold and Silver Waltz," by Lehar. A brisk "Scherzo," also by Dachs, comes next, with Brahms' famous "Hungarian Dance Number Five" following. To bring the first part of the concert to a rousing close, the orchestra will play a "Selection" composed of numbers from Romberg's "Dersert Song." This piece is really nothing more than glorified jazz.

Mr. Sandwick To Speak

During the intermission Superintendent Sandwick will give a brief talk on the progress of the local Civic association.

An informal tea, in the English club room, given by the P.-T. A., will follow the concert. Mrs. Danley, president, will preside.

Amelia Earhart will appear at Elm Place Auditorium on Monday evening, April 13, at 8:30 p.m., to relate her "Aviation Adventures." Proceeds of this lecture will go to the Elm Place School and Green Bay Road School Parent-Teacher Associations.

Mrs. Earhart's adventures in aviation will attract a large audience as most people are fascinated by adventure of any kind. When tales with both charm and experience, of the air are related by a woman such as Miss Earhart possesses, the auditorium may prove too small.

Therefore, the committee urges all those who wish to attend to buy their tickets at once as only three hundred and fifty seats are available. Tickets are on sale at Gaell, Pease and Highland Park pharmacies.

Safety Committee To Meet April 8 At The City Hall

Committee Will Elect Its Officers and Discuss Plans for Organization

The Highland Park Citizens Safety Committee will hold its first quarterly meeting Wednesday evening, April 8, at 8 o'clock in the city council chambers at which time there will be an election of officers and discussion of articles of organization.

Mayor William Dooley will address the meeting. H. B. Aiston, temporary chairman, will preside and present several matters pertaining to safety that are of urgent and immediate concern to the entire community.

The new federal carrier act will be discussed, the features of which permit through interstate motor freight traffic and give every indication that the north shore highways are apt to be used for this purpose with consequent increased congestion and greater danger to both children and adults.

The constantly mounting toll of death has aroused the nation and only through organization of those desiring safety can the reckless be restrained. Highland Park is proud to take the initiative on the north shore, said Mr. Aiston, and to join the state and nation in this movement; not only that it may do a loyal and patriotic service but that it may do a service to humanity as well.

Every representative and member of the committee is urged to make every effort to attend and every church, school, civic and fraternal organization is invited to take an active part in this great cause—the saving of human life.

Mr. Kennicott has many old letters and family papers relating to Robert Kennicott, who became an eminent naturalist and explorer of the Yukon country, where he died in 1895. Last year the Chicago Academy of Sciences of which he was a founder, held a special meeting on the centennial of his birth.

A report of the state conference at Joliet will be given by the delegate, Mrs. Louis B. Sinclair.
